AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of June 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the seventh of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

Heralds-College, June 14, 1821.

In pursuance of a warrant from the Deputy Earl Marshal of England, in obedience to His Majesty's Order in Council of the 9th instant, the Officers of Arms this day made Proclamation of the day appointed for the Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation.

At eleven o'clock the Officers of Arms, habited in their tabards, assembled at Westminster, and being mounted upon horses of the life guards, and attended by the Serjeants at Arms, also mounted, proceeded to the front of Westminster-Hall, where, after the trumpets had sounded thrice, His Majesty's Proclamation was read by Ralph Bigland, Esq. Norroy King of Arms. A procession was then formed in the following order:

A party of Life Guards:

A party of Constables, with their staves.

The High Constable of Westminster, mounted.

Knight Marshal's-men, two and two.

Drums, two and two.

Trumpets, two and two.

Serjeant Trumpeter, in his collar, with his mace.

Serjeants at Arms, two and two, bearing their maces.

Pursuivants.

Rouge Dragon, Francis Townsend, Gent. Bluemantle, William Woods, Esq.

Heralds.

York, Chas. Geo. Young, Esq. Somerset, J. Cathrow-Disney, Esq.

Richmond, Joseph Hawker, Esq. Chester, Geo. Martin Leake, Esq.

The procession, flanked by the life guards, moved on to Temple-Bar, the gates of which were shut, and Rouge Dragon, Pursuivant of Arms, having advanced between two trumpeters, preceded by two of the life guards, demanded, in the usual form, admission into the City; on being admitted, he was conducted by the City Marshal to the Lord Mayor, who was in attendance in his state carriage, together with the Sheriffs and other Officers of the City, and the Order of His Majesty in Council having been delivered to His Lordship, the gates were directed to be opened: Rouge Dragon Pursuivant being then conducted to his place in the procession, it moved on into the City, the Constables of Westminster filing off at Temple-Bar.

At the corner of Chancery-lane, the Proclamation was read the second time by the Chester Herald; the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, and Officers of the City, then fell into the procession, immediately after the Officers of Arms, and the whole advanced to the Royal Exchange, where the Proclamation was read the third and last time by Richmond Herald.

The streets through which the procession passed were filled with spectators, and the acclamations were general.

The Officers of Arms afterwards dined at the Mansion-house, where they were most elegantly entertained by the Lord Mayor.
