

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 9. to Monday November 13. 1682.

Tangier, Octob. 6

A Small Algerine, having taken an English Merchant Ship, bound for Sancta Cruz, and carried her to Sally, (to which Government the Algerine pretended to revolt) the late Ambassador from the Emperor of Morocco in England, (who happened to be there at that time on occasion of a great Fast, during which the Moors are by their Law forbid to Travel) upon notice of it, caused the said Ship to be secured, and writ to the Emperor his Master, to acquaint him with the Action of the Algerine, which the Emperor understanding, was highly offended, and sent Orders for the Restoring the Ship and Goods, and that all Rebelments should be made good upon pain of death. We have likewise an account that the Emperor having some days before received Letters from his said Ambassador, containing a Relation of his Reception, Entertainment, and Proceedings in England, he had thereupon called together his Alcalds and principal Governors, and had declared to them the high Satisfaction and Honour he had received from His Majesty of Great-Britain, and commanded them to be Witnesses for him, That as long as he lived he would study to improve the Friendship that was begun between them, and that as soon as the Ambassador should arrive at Court, he would Ratifie the Treaty he had concluded, declaring farther, That he purposed to make the said Ambassador Alcalid of Alcazar, under whose Government are all the places and Countreys from Tunis to Sally, and the Country about this City.

Francfort, Nov. 15. After several meetings, the Deputies of the Empire agreed upon an Answer to be returned to the French Ambassadors upon their late Declaration, the substance of which is, That the Empire is very desirous to establish a firm Peace and Friendship with the most Christian King, and wishes nothing more earnestly than that the present differences may be speedily composed, but that the nature and constitution of the Empire is such, that it is impossible to bring things to a determination within a limited time, and that they hope this Consideration will prevail with his most Christian Majesty to allow the Treaty that has been begun here its free course, and not to limit it to the Term expressed in the late Declaration of his Ambassadors here. This Conclusion of the Deputies was communicated by the Imperial to the French Ambassadors, who answered, That though they had positive Orders to leave this place after the Term was expired, unless the Proposals they made upon their first arrival here were accepted, yet they would not fail to give the King their Master an account of what they had represented to them, and that they would expect his Pleasure upon it: And accordingly this next Morning the French Ambassadors dispatched an Express to Paris,

Brussels, Nov. 13. We are told that the Marquis de Grana has received an account from Monsieur del Pal, his Minister at Paris, That there is little likelihood of his obtaining a Prolongation of the Term, and that his Excellency has thereupon sent an Express to the Hague, to acquaint the Spanish Envoy therewith, and to direct him to call upon the States General for their assistance in case things should come to a Rupture. Don Antonio d'Agurto, our Maître de Camp General, being returned from visiting Luxemburg, Limburg, and the Garisons in Gelderland, has made report to his Excellency of the condition he found those places in: and as for Luxemburg, we are informed he has assured his Excellency that it is provided with all things necessary for a long Defence; however his Excellency has resolved to add to the Garrison that is at present there, the Walloon Regiment, Commanded by the Count de Tilly, and 300 Spaniards of Morcade's Terse, making together 800 Men; and they have Orders to march immediately thither, and if they cannot have passage through the Country, now possessed by the French, they are to go round by the way of Trier. Don Antonio d'Agurto, in his return from Luxemburg, saw the Electors of Mentz, Trier, and Cologne, whom he said he found in a disposition to treat with the French upon the Propositions they made many Months since at Frankfurt, and in an opinion that it was absolutely necessary at this time to establish a firm Peace between the Empire and the most Christian King.

Hague, Nov. 13. Their Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange returned hither the 11th Instant. The same day the Members of the States of Holland and West-Friseland began to come to Town; and this day they met for the first time since their Receipt. The States-General, upon the late Memorial of the Sieur Dieft, the Brandenburg Minister, concerning the Ship called the Arms of Brandenburg, taken on the Coast of Guinea, have written very earnestly to the West-India Company to have an account of that matter, in order to the giving a satisfactory answer to the said Minister. There is a great dispute between the Envoy of this State and the Envoy of the Elector of Brandenburg at the Court of Denmark, concerning precedency, which we hear the former has writ to the States about.

Hague, Nov. 17. We have advice that between 4 and 500 Men of the Elector of Brandenburg's Troops (who embarked on several light Frigats at Glückstadt) have landed in East Friseland, and have possessed themselves of Greitzell, lying at the mouth of the River Ems, which his Electoral Highness declares he has done according to the obligation that lay upon him as Conservator of that Country, to secure it against the evil designs there are to bring Foreign Troops to Quarter upon it.

Paris, Nov. 14. On Monday next the Court removes from Fontainebleau to Versailles. From Turin we have advice, That 3000 French Horse are possessed of the Quarters assigned them by the Duke of Savoy in pursuance of the defensive Alliance concluded between our King and his Highness, which gives great jealousy to the Milanese and to the Genoueses. The 12th Instant, the Parliament was opened here with the usual solemnity.

Plymouth, Nov. 7. On Saturday last arrived here, His Majesties Yacht the Merlin, from the Westward.

Whitehall, Nov. 10. This day the Mayor and many of the Aldermen and principal Citizens of Norwich, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Tarmouth, their Lord Lieutenant, surrendered the Charter of that City, pursuant to what had been resolved in their Common Assembly, into His Majesties Hands: Which done, they humbly presented the following Petition to His Majesty; who having heard it read, was pleased to declare Himself very Graciously upon the several Points of it; and to assure them that he had a particular Satisfaction in the repeated Evidences which the City of Norwich give of their Loyalty and Affection to His Royal Person and Government.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The most Humble Address and Petition of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of your Ancient and Loyal City of Norwich, and County of the same:

Most Humbly Sheweth,

THAT your Petitioners (by the Grace and Favour of your Royal Progenitors) have not only by many former Grants been a City and Town incorporate, thereby enjoying very great Immunities, Franchises, and Privileges, and in the Reign of King Henry IV. were made a County, (which Honor we have ever since enjoyed by the Goodness of the succeeding Kings and Queens of this Realm:) But also by your Gracious Majesties Charter Granted in the Fifteenth Year of your most happy Reign, (the Benefit whereof we do with all humble thankfulness acknowledge) and have been and ever will be ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes for the Preservation of your Sacred Person and Government in Church and State as by Law now established, and the Right of Succession and Lineal Descent of the Crown; yet fearing by Neglect, Omission, or Inadvertency, (without the least thought of Disloyalty) we have forfeited those Liberties and Privileges, (by means whereof this City hath so long flourished.

Your Petitioners therefore most humbly pray, That your Majesty would graciously please of your innate Goodness and Princely Bounty to Grant us, your Loyal Citizens of Norwich, a new Charter, with such Immunities Liberties, Privileges, and Franchises as to your Royal Wisdom and Goodness shall seem meet; which (we hope) will equal (if not exceed) the many large Grants of your most Renowned Ancestors, and out of the tender regard we have for the Security of your Majesties Person and Government, and the great Confidence and Reliance we have in so Gracious a Sovereign, we do further pray your Majesty (when in your Grace and Clemency you shall think fit) to Grant to the Citizens of your City and County of Norwich a new Charter, That your Majesty would Reserve to your self the Approbation (for the time to come) of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Common-Council, that shall hereafter be chosen and elected, and that neither Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Common-Council, for the time to come, though elected, shall so run to execute any of the said Petitions until your Majesties Approbation be first obtained; And if your Majesty shall not Approve of the Person or Persons that shall be elected and chosen, that then the Citizens shall be obliged to choose such other person as your Majesty shall Approve of.

And your humble Petitioners (as in Duty bound) shall ever pray for your Majesties long and prosperous Reign, &c.

Whitehall, Nov. 10. This day the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, and the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, attended His Majesty in Council; and being made acquainted with the following Order of the Board, were required to take care that the same be duly and punctually observed.

At the Court at Whitehall, November 10. 1682.

Present, the King's most Excellent Majesty, and the Lords of His most Honourable Privy Council.

FOR the preventing Tumultuous Disorders which may happen hereafter upon pretence of assembling to make Bonfires and publick Fireworks, and disappointing the evil designs of persons disaffected to the Government, who commonly make use of such occasions to turn those meetings into Riots and Tumults;

It is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, do presume to make or encourage the making any Bonfires or other publick Fireworks upon any Festival Day, or any other time or times whatsoever, without particular direction or order first had from His Majesty or His Board, or from the Lord Mayor of London, or the Justices of the Peace in their respective Limits, upon pain of His Majesties Displeasure, and being prosecuted with the utmost severity of the Law, whereof all persons whom it may concern are to take notice at their Peril. And the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, and His Majesties Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, and the City and Liberty of Westminster, are hereby strictly charged and required to take care therein accordingly.

FRANCIS GWYN,

Whitehall, Nov. 12. His Majesty was this day graciously pleased, in consideration of the great and successful Services performed by Captain WILLIAM BOOTH, Commandant of the Adventure Frigate, in the late War against the Rebels, to confer upon him the Honour of Knighthood, having been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord FINCH, and the rest of the Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Advertisements.

WHEREAS the Annual Feast of the LEATON SCHOOLARS will be held on Tuesday the 21 of this Instant November, at Stationers-Hall near Ludgate; the Tickets may be had at Mr. Mann's Coffee-house near Whitehall, Sam's Coffee-house in Littlegate-street, and Jonathan's Coffee-house near the Royal-Exchange.

ON Monday the fourth of December next will be exposed to Sale, by way of Auction, the Library of Mr. John Humphrey, late Minister of Rowel in Northamptonshire, at Jonathan's Coffee-house near the Royal-Exchange in Covent-hill; where the Catalogues will be distributed gratis on Friday Morning next, and at Richards Coffee-house near Temple-bar, at Mr. William Natts's Book-seller in the Pall Mall, at Mr. Tho. Fox's in Westminster-hall, at the Peacock in the Poultry, and at Mr. William Cooper's at the Pelican in Little-Britain.

TOOK from the Coachman of the Lady Morgan, of Lau-tarnam in the County of Marmouth, a bright grey Stone Horse, strong set about 14 hands blind of the near-eye, with a bunch about his Feetick Joint, and a cut Tail, on the 4th Instant, between Hounslow and Clebrook, by 6 Highway-men. Whoever gives notice of the said Horse so that he may be restored, to Mr. Doodly, Apothecary near Salisbury-house in the Strand, or to Philip Jones Esq; at Leinth in the County of Marmouth shall have 50 Guineas Reward.

SOLOM or Strayed, on the 15th of October last, out of the Grounds of Captain Leiners of Weniston near Halsworth in Suffolk, a black brown Gelding, between 13 and 14 hands, with a small blaze down his Face, a thick head, a short neck, and Paces most. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. John Frith, Glass-seller in Fish-street-hill, or to Mr. John Vincos at Halsworth in Suffolk, or to Mr. Tho. Seaman of Norwich, shall have 30 s. Reward.