By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Appointing a Day for the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the sixth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our Royal intention to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon Tuesday the first day of August then next ensuing, at Our Palace at Westminster: and whereas by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date on the twelfth of July following, We thought fit to adjourn the said Solemnity until Our Royal will and pleasure should be further signified thereon: and whereas We have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday the nineteenth day of July next, at Our said Palace at Westminster; We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give notice of and publish Our resolution therein; and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what rank or quality soever they be, who either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Our Coronation, do duly give their attendance at the said Solemnity on Thursday the nineteenth day of July next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons, by Ourselves under Our sign manual to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Heralds-College, June 22, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that drawings of the dresses appointed to be worn at the approaching Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation, by the Members of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, under the degree of the Peerage, by the Clerks in Ordinary of the Privy Council, by the Trainbearers of His Majesty and of the Princes of the Blood Royal, and also by the Officers of the Royal Household, and by the Barons of the Cinque Ports, may be seen at this College, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon, upon production of an order, signed either by a Privy Councillor, Clerk in Ordinary of the Privy Council, Trainbearer, an Officer of the Royal Household, or by a Baron of the Cinque Ports.

Heralds-College, June 30, 1821.

IN pursuance of an Order in Council, bearing date the 27th day of June instant, I do hereby give notice to all Peers, Privy Councillors, and others, claiming to have tickets at the ensuing Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation, that (it being necessary to know beforehand the number of persons for whom accommodation is to be provided) no tickets will be issued to any Peers, Privy Councillors, or others, who shall not have signified to me, on or before Saturday the 7th of July next, his or their intention of attending at the said Solemnity.

HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal of England.

Council-Office, Whitehall, June 27, 1821.

THESE are to give notice, that all such Peeresses, or Widows of Peers of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as intend to see the Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation, in Westminster-Hall, do forthwith send
