NAVAL CHARTS.

Admiralty-Office, June 30, 1821.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having caused various charts to be engraved in this Office, for the use of His Majesty's ships, and being desirous of extending the benefit thereof to navigation in general; this is to give notice, that the said charts may be had, both wholesale and retail, at moderate prices, at Mr. Faden's, Charing-cross, and at Mr. Arrowsmith's, Soho-square; from whom may also be had, catalogues of the said charts, shewing the retail price of each article.

As more charts were, during the course of the late war, mounted on canvas for the use of the Navy than His Majesty's service at present requires, a large assortment of such mounted charts, marked with their respective prices, will be found in the shops of the before-mentioned Agents.

Office of Ordnance, June 11, 1821.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 4th day of July next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Tin Ware,

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and farther particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Tin Ware;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 4th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
