Whitehall, July 9, 1821.

THE King hath been pleased to approve of the nomination of the Right Honourable Kenneth-Alexander Baron Howard of Effingham, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to discharge the duties of the office of Earl Marshal of England at the approaching Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation, in consequence of the indisposition of the Right Honourable Lord Henry-Thomas Howard-Molyneux-Howard, Deputy Earl Marshal of England.

Heralds-College, July 10, 1821.

THESE are to give notice to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, that the attendant to wait on each Lord during the banquet in Westminster-Hall, on the day of His Majesty's Coronation, must be habited in a scarlet frock coat, with a garter blue silk sash round the waist, white waistcoat, breeches, and silk stockings, with black shoes and scarlet rosettes.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Chairman of the East India Company, has been presented by His Lordship to the King, and most graciously received:

To His Majesty GEORGE the FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the British Inhabitants of Prince of Wales' Island, approach the Throne to tender to your Majesty the expression of our unshaken loyalty and devotion to your Majesty's sacred Person, and the happy Constitution of our native land.

Whilst we deplore, in common with every inhabitant of the British empire, the death of your Majesty's revered and venerated Parent, we cannot be insensible of the many and inestimable advantages which his exemplary and royal virtues have diffused for the instruction of his subjects; deeply therefore as we mourn for the loss of a virtuous and patriot Sovereign, we contemplate in the glorious course of His long and eventful reign, ample sources of comfort and delight, in the example which he has bequeathed.

To your Majesty however all hearts are now turned, and we more especially desire to approach the Throne on the anniversary of this auspicious day, which gave your Majesty birth, which thirty-four years since first witnessed the display of the British colours in this Colony, honoured on that occasion by the name of your Majesty as Prince of Wales, and now again rendered peculiarly memorable by the ceremony which we have just performed of proclaiming your Majesty as our Sovereign.

We therefore most humbly entreat your Majesty graciously to accept the heartfelt assurances of our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, beseeching the Almighty Disposer of all events to grant your Majesty a long and happy reign.

Distant as we are from the land of our birth, and few our numbers, we confidently assure your Majesty that we yield to none in those sentiments of honest pride and gratitude, which the glorious and memorable events of your Majesty's delegated power have been calculated to excite in the hearts of a loyal nation. To have conducted a just and necessary war to a safe and honourable conclusion by a peace, which promises to be lasting, was reserved for the wisdom and secured by the energy and firmness of your Majesty's policy and Government; and we hail these great events as the auspicious harbingers of that permanent prosperity, which we trust, through the blessing of Providence, may be uninterruptedly preserved to your Majesty and our country.

We beg leave to subscribe ourselves, with every sentiment of loyalty and attachment, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the British Inhabitants of Prince of Wales's Island.
