Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 13, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at Buckingham-Palace, on Thursday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

Whitehall, July 13, 1821.

IN pursuance of an Order of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the following instructions have been framed for securing the commodious access and return of carriages conveying persons to and from Westminster-hall and Abbey, on the occasion of His Majesty's Coronation on the 19th instant. In conformity with these instructions the necessary directions have been given to all His Majesty's Officers and Servants concerned in carrying them into execution. The doors of the Hall and Abbey will be opened at three o'clock in the morning. At the same hour all the gates of Hyde-park, except the Kensington-gate, will be opened for carriages, and the Stable-yard-gate will be opened for the passage of such carriages as will be permitted to use the second route laid down in the instructions. The doors of the Hall and Abbey will be shut at seven o'clock in the morning against all visitors, except those who are entitled to be set down at the House of Lords, and the doors of that House will be shut at eight o'clock. All carriages are then to depart, and the gates of the Park will be open at three o'clock in the afternoon, to those which are to wait there for the return of their owners, as stated in the second and third routes.

SIDMOUTH.

No 1.

Route for the Foreign Ministers, for all those who are to form part of the Procession, and for those who have Tickets from Peers, Judges, Privy Counsellors, and Grand Crosses of the Bath.

N. B. The holders of such tickets may also use the route No. 4.

Pass down Grosvenor-place, Eaton-street, and the Vauxhall-road, along Millbank-road, Millbank-street, and the east side of Abingdon-street; set down at the House of Lords; and go home by the west side of Abingdon-street, along College-street, Little College-street, Wood-street, North-street, St. John's Church-yard, Little Tufton-street, Tufton-street, the Horseferry-road, Carey-street, the north and west sides of Vincent's-square, and Bentinck-street.

Persons of the above descriptions from the eastern parts of the town, will fall into this line most easily by crossing Vauxhall-bridge.

All the foregoing persons will be excluded unless they arrive by eight o'clock in the morning.

In the evening the carriages to take away the above-mentioned persons, will wait in Vincent's-square, with the hind wheels against the rails of the square, will come from thence (when required) by the reverse of the morning route, up the west side of Abingdon-street, and go home by the east side of that street, the Millbank-road, and Vauxhall-road.

No. 2.

Route for all Persons who have Tickets for the South Side of the Aisle of Westminster Abbey.

Enter St. James's-park, at the Stable-yard, pass along the Mall, cross the Parade, and leave the Park by Storey's-gate, pass down Princes-street; set down in Dean's-yard; and go home by Bowling-street, Little Smith-street, Smith-street, Dean-street, Tothill-street, the Broadway, York-street, James-street, into the Park at Buckingham-gate, up Constitution-hill, and out at the Hyde-park-corner-gate.

All the foregoing persons will be excluded, unless they take their seats by seven o'clock in the morning.

In the afternoon the carriages to take away the foregoing persons will enter St. James's-park from Piccadilly, and wait in the Bird-cage-walk with the hind wheels against the houses, and the horses heads fronting the canal, and (when called for) will take up and go home by the same route as in the morning.

This route will be used by those who have seats in the booths which open into Princes-street.
