A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS John Earl of Stair was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the second day of August next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said John Earl of Stair, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of June 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the seventh of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States.

of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or

Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint :

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted, and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war :

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases : His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further ; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order :

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

| To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest. | } | Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest. |
| To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong. | } | One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows,
To the officer commanding the party, two shares.
To each of the other officers, one share. |

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of February 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Memorial from the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, in the words following, viz.

" WHEREAS by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole;" and by another Act of the present session of Parliament, to amend the said Act, it is provided, that for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; we, the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, may by our Memorial propose to your Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach :

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Northern Coast of North America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 113 degrees of West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; but has not arrived Northward, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81 degrees of North Latitude :

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Majesty's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Majesty may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the said Acts :

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of your Majesty's subjects, or to your Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle - - - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle, a further sum of - - - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage, the further sum of - - - £10,000

2.—To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude - - - £1,000

To 85°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 87°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 88°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 89°, or beyond, a further sum of - - - £1,000

And if your Majesty should graciously approve these proposals, we further, with all humility, submit whether your Majesty would not be pleased, by your Order in Council, to revoke, cancel, and annul His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, for the accomplishment of certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof; and His Majesty doth hereby establish the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

And His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to revoke, cancel, and annul the Order in Council of the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, and the same is hereby revoked, cancelled, and annulled accordingly. Jas. Buller.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, that the Right Honourable William Wellesley Pole, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for Queen's County, in Ireland, is become a Peer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to whom a writ of summons hath been issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom to summon him to Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said Queen's County, in the room of the said Right Honourable William Wellesley Pole, now a Peer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to whom a writ of summons hath been issued as aforesaid, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand the 20th day of July 1821,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Major Joseph Savill to be Lieutenant-Colonel, vice Goodrich, promoted. Dated as above.

Whitehall, July 9, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, between one and two o'clock in the morning of the 7th of June last, a great body of men, to the number of about two hundred, armed with guns, pistols, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea shore, in Eastware Bay, near the town of Folkestone, in the county of Kent, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of uncustomed goods; and that some of the persons so assembled discharged loaded fire-arms at certain Officers and seamen of His Majesty's ship Severn, who were there on their duty in the protection of the revenue, whereby Richard Wooldridge, Quartermaster of the said ship, was killed, and Lieutenant David Peat, and Robert Hunter and John Walker, seamen, were wounded; and upon an inquisition since taken on the body of the said Richard Wooldridge, a verdict of wilful murder hath been found against persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony and murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of the persons so assembled (except those who actually fired at and wounded the said Richard Wooldridge, or any of the officers and seamen above named), who shall make a full discovery of his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony and murder.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners. of

His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such ground madder should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such ground madder should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such ground madder in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 21st day of December 1820,

N. VANSITTART.
B. PAGET.
G. H. A. SOMERSET.

East India-House, July 11, 1821.

To Prize Agents, Trustees of Prize-Money, and other Persons engaged in Prize Concerns, and their Representatives.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That by Act of Parliament of the first and second of His present Majesty, cap. 61, which received the royal assent on the 23d June last, all unclaimed shares of booty, prize-money, head-money, bounty-money, and salvage-money, and of money arisen from or distributable in respect of any capture or other warlike service whatsoever, belonging to officers, soldiers, or sailors, or other persons in the military or naval service of the Company, and remaining in the hands of any prize agent or other person whatsoever residing in the United Kingdom, are to be paid over to the Court of Directors in London within six calendar months after passing the Act, to be applied to the purposes of Lord Clive's Fund and Poplar-Hospital; and the persons having such money in their hands are required by the Act, without further notice, to deliver an account thereof to the Secretary of the said Company in London, with a list of the names, rank, regiment, or other sufficient description of the persons entitled thereto, verified by affidavit on oath of the party required to deliver the same; such oath to be taken before any Magistrate or other person authorised by any Court of Law or Equity to administer oaths.

Peter Auber, Assistant Secretary.

East India-House, July 18, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That measures having been adopted which may lead to the discharge of a large portion of the existing six per cent. Indian loans, the Company's loan creditors resident in Europe are hereby apprised of the circumstance, that they may furnish their agents with instructions accordingly.

The Court have authorised their Bengal Government to open a new six per cent loan in India, to which the present six per cent. loan obligations are transferable, and in regard to absentees who receive their interest by bills upon the Court, and who have omitted to give instructions to their agents applicable to the discharge of the existing obligations, interest will be remitted to them as heretofore, for a period of fifteen months after the opening of the proposed new loan in Bengal, within which period they must furnish their agents with instructions, either to receive their capital or to transfer it to the said proposed new loan.

Peter Auber, Assistant-Secretary.

Notice is hereby given, that the Copartnership heretofore subsisting between the undersigned, Bartholomew Parker and Robert George Sampson, of No. 105, Crawford-Street, Montague-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Chemists and Druggists, has been dissolved by mutual consent on and from the 24th day of June last past.—Dated this 14th day of July 1821.

Barthw. Parker.

R. G. Sampson.

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership which lately subsisted between the undersigned, carrying on business at Kingston-upon-Hull, under the firm of Crosse, Escreet, and Co. was dissolved by effluxion of time, as far as regards the said Thomas Escreet.

July 21, 1821.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Bromley-le-Bow, Middlesex, July 20, 1821.

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership carried on at Bromley, in Middlesex, between Richard Lawrance, Edward Bourne, and Nathaniel Beard, Brewers and Maltsters, was dissolved the 23d June 1821, by mutual consent, so far as relates to the said Richard Lawrance, who retires.—The debts due to the said late concern are to be paid to Edward Bourne and Nathaniel Beard, who will liquidate the debts and claims which are due from the said late Partnership.

Richd. Lawrance.
Edwd. Bourne.
Nathl. Beard.

Bromley-le-Bow, Middlesex, July 20, 1821.

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership lately carried on at Bromley, in Middlesex, between Richard Lawrance and Edward Bourne, Brewers and Maltsters, was dissolved the 27th November last by mutual consent.

Richd. Lawrance.
Edwd. Bourne.

Notice to Richard and John Marshall, who formerly lived at Aldwark, near Easingwold, Yorkshire.

Carlton-Hustwaite, July 14, 1821.

RICHARD was some years since a Waiter at an Inn, in London, and John was a Mason in Manchester.—They may hear of something to their advantage on application to William Mettrick, Carlton-Hustwaite, near York.

Extensive Stabling, with large Yard, long Horse-Ride, good Dwelling-House, Counting-House and Offices, Broad-Street, Bloomsbury.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. J. H. Sherwood, on Thursday, July 26, 1821, at Twelve o'Clock, on the premises, by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Mr. John Bishop, and with the consent of the Mortgagee and Assignees;

Those highly valuable and convenient premises, most eligibly situate in Broad-Street, Bloomsbury, long established in the business of a stable-keeper and horse-dealer, known as the sign of the King's Head, and from their extent and accommodation are equal to a first rate trade; they comprise numerous stables, with stalls for forty-two horses, lofts and rooms for forty quarters of corn; large yard, with water-troughs and pump of fine water, horse-ride and counting-house, with three rooms over.

Also a genteel dwelling-house, in front of Broad-Street, containing eight rooms, two kitchens, pump of fine water, and cellaring, held on lease for an unexpired term of twelve years, at a moderate rent.

May be viewed, and particulars had on the premises; of Mr. Dodd, Solicitor, Caroline-Street, Bedford-Square; Messrs. Robinson and Hine, Solicitors, Charter-House-Square; and of Mr. J. H. Sherwood, No. 42, Bartholomew-Close.

TO be sold by auction (by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Ann Pugh, formerly of Lancaster, in the County of Lancaster, Widow, Dealer and Chapwoman), at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, Liverpool, in the said County of Lancaster, on Monday the 6th day of August next, at Seven o'Clock in the Evening, subject to conditions then to be produced;

All that good and well-accustomed public-house, called or known by the sign of the Three Tons, situate on the west side of China-Lane, in Lancaster aforesaid, and now in the occupation of Mr. Richard Thompson, as tenant thereof, together with the back-buildings and small dwelling house thereunto belonging.—The above premises are freehold of inheritance.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Massey, Solicitor, Water-Street, Liverpool, or to Mr. Webster, Solicitor, Lancaster.

SURREY AND BERKS.

TO be sold, in seven lots, pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, dated 21st November 1820, made in a Cause Roper versus Bartholomew, before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the King's Head Inn, in Egham, in the County of Surrey, on Wednesday the 15th August next;

A very valuable freehold property, called Rusham-End Farm, situate in a beautiful and fashionable part of Surrey, on the borders of Berks, consisting of a most substantial and comfortable residence with lawn, gardens, fish-ponds, yards, coach-house, and stabling, and about 95 acres of most excellent meadow and arable land.

Also four parcels of very rich old meadow land, near the Town of Egham, containing together about 20 acres, and a freehold house and yard, with extensive stabling and other useful buildings, upon the banks of the Thames, near Windsor-Bridge, in the occupation of Mr. William Quarterman, as tenant at will.

The estate may be viewed by application to Mr. Brinkwater, upon the farm, and particulars may be had at the Inns at Egham, Staines, and Chertsey; of Messrs. Secker and Son, Solicitors, Windsor; of Messrs. Few, Ashmore, and Hamilton, Solicitors, Henrietta-Street, Covent-Garden; of Messrs. Clarke and Grazebrook, Solicitors, Chertsey; of Mr. Long, Solicitor, Windsor; and of Daniel Smith and Son, Surveyors and Land Agents, Windsor, and Bishopsgate-Church-Yard, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Pollard against Micklethwait, before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, London;

Five original shares of 100l. each, increased by subsequent calls to 148l. each, in the Dearne and Dove Canal Navigation, in the West Riding of the County of York.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. George Taylor, Gray's-Inn-Square, Mr. Wiglesworth, Gray's-Inn-Square; Messrs. Longdill and Butterfield, Gray's-Inn-Square; Messrs. Blgrave and Walter, Symond's-Inn; and of Messrs. Few, Ashmore, and Hamilton, Henrietta-Street, Covent-Garden; and also of Messrs. Thompson and Company, Attornies at Law, at Halifax; and at the White Bear, in Barnsley, and the principal Inns in the neighbouring Towns.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Kershaw versus Collett, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

Sundry messuages and closes of land, situate at Dodsworth, in the Parish of Silkstone, in the County of York.

The time and place of sale will shortly be advertised; when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Mr. Wiglesworth, Solicitor, Gray's-Inn; of Messrs. Collett, Wimburn, and Collett, Solicitors, Chancery-Lane, London; and at the principal Inns in the neighbourhood of the estate.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Noon against Barlow, before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Public Sale Room of the Court in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London;

One undivided moiety of a farm house, outbuildings, garden and orchard and several inclosures of arable, meadow, pasture and woodland, situate at Ulcombe, near Maidstone, in the County of Kent, containing in the whole together about eighty acres, part of the estates of Thomas Weatherall, late of Cheapside, London, Draper, deceased, lately on lease to Thomas Collinson, at the net rent of 52l. 10s. 0d. a year.
