TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1821.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Members of the Council and Assembly of your Majesty's Island of Dominica, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with assurances of our most unfeigned loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and of our ardent attachment to the Constitution of Great Britain, our beloved and venerated mother country.

At any other moment we should perhaps have been contented to suffer our opinions to be judged by our actions, satisfied of its being apparent to every impartial observer, that amidst all the vicissitudes of prosperous and adverse fortune, which no portion of your Majesty's widely extended dominions has more experienced than this unfortunate Colony, our warmest sentiments of loyalty and fidelity to our King, and of affection to our parent State, have ever remained inviolate and inflexible; but when we perceive attempts to create disaffection to your Majesty's wise and equitable Government, and to overturn that inimitable fabric, which has long been the just pride and boast of our own country, and the admiration and envy of surrounding nations, we should deem ourselves unworthy of the name of Britons, if we did not unequivocally declare our utter abhorrence of such proceedings, and proclaim to the world our firm determination to support and defend to our latest breath our King and Constitution.

That it may please the Almighty Disposer of all events to bless your Majesty with a long and prosperous reign, and to shower down on your Majesty every good which can render your life happy, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's loyal, faithful and dutiful subjects, the Council and Assembly of the Island of Dominica.

A. Glover, President of the Council.
Dominica, 12th May 1821

[Presented by Mr. Colquhoun.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, affectionate, and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Council, Associated Trades, and other Inhabitants of the Burgh of Maybole assembled, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with our sincere congratulations on the august Ceremonial which confirms the bond of union between your Majesty and a free and loyal people.

On an occasion so joyful to the subjects of your empire, we beg leave to express the sentiments of unfeigned attachment which we feel to your Majesty, whose energy and firmness in maintaining the sound principles of our invaluable Constitution throughout an eventful period, and whose paternal solicitude uniformly displayed for the rights, interests, and happiness of your people, call forth our highest gratitude and admiration.

Deeply convinced that our prosperity and happiness depend upon the preservation of that Constitution, and the continuance of those rights and privileges which we enjoy under the mild administration of your Majesty's Government, we beg leave to tender to your Majesty the most heartfelt assurance of our readiness, at all times, to support and defend that Constitution, and your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

That your Majesty's reign may be prolonged throughout a long series of years, and may continue to be attended by peace, happiness and glory, is the sincere wish of your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Council, Associated Trades, and other Inhabitants of this Burgh.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, at Maybole, this 19th day of July 1821 years.

William Hannay, Senior Magistrate.

[Presented by the Earl of Cassillis.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly presume to congratulate your Majesty on the celebration of the Royal solemnity of your Majesty's Coronation.

Permit us, Sire, on this auspicious occasion, to renew to your Majesty the assurance of our most faithful allegiance, and to express our confident belief that your Majesty's ancient Town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne will be found second to none in loyalty to the Throne and obedience to the laws.

We are sensible that your Majesty's just and equal attachment to the prerogative of the Sovereign, and the rights of the subject, affords a sure pledge of the continuance of those blessings which we now enjoy under the protection of a temperate and firm Government, and we will never cease to pray for the long duration of your Majesty's reign, and that it may be always abounding in happiness to your Majesty and in prosperity to your people.

Given under the seal of our Corporation, this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1821.

Geo. Forster, Mayor

[Presented by Lord Stowell.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Borough of Hertford, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with our most dutiful and sincere congratulations on the conclusion of the august ceremony in which you have received the Crown of these realms.

We desire to express our most grateful thanks to your Majesty for having thus solemnly promised to continue to maintain those laws and customs which have for ages been the glory of our ancestors, and which it will be our pride and happiness, under your revered authority, to obey and preserve.

We further beg leave on this occasion to renew our assurances of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and to express our most fervent hopes that your Majesty may live to enjoy a long and glorious reign, distinguished by the blessings of peace, by the increasing prosperity of your dominions, and the fidelity and affection of your admiring subjects.

W. E. Squire, Mayor.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants and Common Council of the Borough of Colchester beg leave to approach your Majesty, as well to express our zealous attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person as to renew our faithful allegiance to the crown of these realms.

Upon the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your native country, our hearts were overwhelmed with regret at the demise of your Royal Father, whose virtues we shall ever embalm in our most pious recollections; but it was a source of sincere consolation to us to reflect on the undeviating firmness with which your filial solicitude continued to uphold the measures and to retain in your Councils the faithful services of those statesmen, by the result of whose sound and able policy your Majesty has not only subdued the menacing efforts of foreign hostility, but, amidst the desolation of surrounding Empires, has preserved inviolate and entire the venerable fabric of our Constitution, and secured to us the peaceful enjoyment of our religion and laws.

Whilst we hail as an epoch of constitutional importance the august solemnity by which your Majesty has guaranteed to your people their liberties and rights; we embrace it also as an event so consecrated to loyalty and joy, that, amidst the countless voices of your subjects who participate in the same feelings, we hasten to unite our dutious accents to the general congratulation; and, yielding to no portion of your Majesty's kingdom in our fealty to our Sovereign and resolution to support the prerogative of the crown, we implore the Almighty Arbiter of human destinies that your Majesty may be long preserved in the possession of your hereditary diadem, confidently anticipating that the annals of your Majesty's reign, already as illustrious for the victories of your arms as the wisdom of your Councils, will also record the exercise of every Royal virtue, and that posterity will recognize in your Majesty a Monarch enshrined in the affections of his subjects, and in the people submitted to your mild and paternal sceptre, a nation enlightened, happy and free.

In testimony whereof, we, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants and Common Council of the said Borough, have caused to be affixed our common seal, the 27th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1821.

[Delivered by John Round, Esq. High Steward, and William Gordon Kelly, Esq. Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Stratford-upon-Avon, and its Vicinity.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses and other Inhabitants of Stratford-upon-Avon, and its Vicinity, humbly beg leave to reiterate to your Majesty the assurances of our loyalty and attachment to your Person, and of our fidelity to the British Constitution.

Blest as we are in living under the protection of those laws which are the admiration of the world, we should deem ourselves unworthy the name of Britons, if we did not pay to their head that homage which is alike our duty and our privilege, and if we did not seize every opportunity of declaring to your Majesty and to the country, our firm determination to deliver down unimpaired to posterity the character for loyalty and devotedness to their Sovereign, for which the Inhabitants of this ancient Borough have always been celebrated, but we feel ourselves particularly called upon to repeat it at a time when your Majesty has in the face of the nation solemnly engaged to support the Constitution of our Forefathers.

Long may your Majesty live to do so, and long may you sway the sceptre of these realms, the honoured and beloved Sovereign of a loyal and happy people.

Wm. Geo. Morris, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Earl Whitworth.]

To His Most Gracious and Sacred Majesty George the Fourth, King of Great Britain and Ireland, and illustrious Patron of the Ancient Order of St. John's Masonry for Scotland.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of the Annan Caledonian Lodge, No. 241, holding and constituted by charter from the Grand Lodge of Scotland, beg leave most humbly and fraternally to approach your Majesty's Royal Person and Throne in testimony of our sincere and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's government, and of our thankfulness to Divine Providence for the manifold blessings which we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, have enjoyed during the reign of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

In expressing to your Majesty our genuine sense of these blessings, great as they are, and highly soever as they may have been felt and appreciated; yet we can hardly find language adequate to express our deep and heartfelt gratitude at your Majesty's Royal condescension in becoming the Patron of the ancient order of St. John's Masonry for Scotland, an honour higher, and a condescension greater than any of your Royal Predecessors ever conferred, and which tends more and more to cement that union, loyalty, attachment and fraternal affection between your Royal Majesty's Person, and the ancient fraternity of Masonry, than was ever effected by any Sovereign in any era of British history.

For these reasons, and in full Lodge assembled, to celebrate the auspicious evening of your Royal Coronation day, we most humbly beg leave to present our most sincere wishes for the prosperity and stability of your Majesty's Person and Government, and fervently pray that your Majesty may long and happily sway the British Sceptre, that your Majesty's subjects of every denomination from the noble Peer to the humble peasant, may enjoy from the cornu copia of your great and magnificent Empire, the blessings of domestic peace, and that degree of happiness and prosperity which naturally springs from, and arises out of the construction of our unparalleled and glorious Constitution.

Signed and Sealed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence in full Lodge assembled, this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1821, and of light 5821.

G. D. Rome, R. W. M.

| 100 | Total of claims liquidated, rejected, &c. under Convention No. 7, amounting to | 6,585,836 14 | 279,979 0 | 153,990 0 | |

The Commissioners notify, that since May 1819, the date of the Act of 59, Geo: 3, cap. 31, they have liquidated Claims, under Convention No. 7, to the amount of 1,966,950 francs annual rente, and that they have delivered their certificates for 55 per cent. thereon, making a rente of 1,095,447 francs, besides a farther rente for the accumulated interest since the 22d March 1816, according to the respective dates of the liquidation of the said Claims. They farther notify that there remain adjudicated 457 Claims, amounting to about 61,445,000 livres, which said Claims if they should eventually be substantiated by the proper evidence, and be found entitled to a payment in full of the amount claimed, would require a rente of 4,008,154 francs, whereof 55 per cent. would be 2,204,484 francs.

The Commissioners farther notify, that there remains in their hands a rente of 1,972,156 francs, applicable to the payment of arrears up to the 22d March 1816, together with another rente arising from the accumulated interest since the said 22d March 1816, and applicable to the payment of the sums due on such award for the said interest for the period above-mentioned.

It therefore results that in the event of a payment in full being awarded to the Claimants, whose Claims are still unliquidated, there would not be sufficient to pay 55 per cent. thereon by the amount below:

| | Francs Rente. | Interest. |
|--|---------------|--|
| Annual rente required to pay 55 per cent. on unadjudicated Claims as above | 2,204,484 0 | This rente increasing from successive accumulations cannot be precisely ascertained. |
| Annual rente in hand | 1,972,156 0 | |
| Deficit | 232,328 0 | |

The said Claims so remaining unadjudicated are still as to the great majority thereof unfurnished with the evidence necessary to enable the Commissioners to decide as to what precise sum may ultimately be due thereon, and very many of the Claimants have requested farther time for the purpose of endeavouring to procure such documents, and the Board are accordingly unable, at present, to proceed to the final adjudication of such Claims.

But whereas the Commissioners, after repeated examination of the whole of the said unadjudicated Claims (as far as such examination can be made in the present state of proof), are convinced that for various causes awards of rejection, in whole or in part, must ultimately be made for such portion of the said unadjudicated Claims as will authorise the Board to divide among the persons, in whose favour awards of liquidation have already been made, a farther dividend of 193,712 francs rente per annum, being 10 per cent. in addition to the 55 per cent. already paid, together with a farther proportionate dividend of the fund for the payment of interest as aforesaid; the Board resolve that, in anticipation of such rejection of many of the said unadjudicated Claims, in whole or in part as aforesaid, they will proceed to deliver to the respective Claimants, under Convention No. 7, in whose favour awards have already been made, certificates for the farther sum of 10 per cent. being a payment at present of 65 per cent. on the amount awarded to them respectively, and also a like dividend of 10 per cent. on the accumulated interest.

The Commissioners accordingly notify that such certificates will be ready for delivery at this Office on the 9th day of August next.

The Commissioners have also liquidated the following Claims,
