

gratulate your Majesty on the celebration of the Royal solemnity of your Majesty's Coronation.

Permit us, Sire, on this auspicious occasion, to renew to your Majesty the assurance of our most faithful allegiance, and to express our confident belief that your Majesty's ancient Town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne will be found second to none in loyalty to the Throne and obedience to the laws.

We are sensible that your Majesty's just and equal attachment to the prerogative of the Sovereign, and the rights of the subject, affords a sure pledge of the continuance of those blessings which we now enjoy under the protection of a temperate and firm Government, and we will never cease to pray for the long duration of your Majesty's reign, and that it may be always abounding in happiness to your Majesty and in prosperity to your people.

Given under the seal of our Corporation, this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1821.

Geo. Forster, Mayor

[Presented by Lord Stowell.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Borough of Hertford, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with our most dutiful and sincere congratulations on the conclusion of the august ceremony in which you have received the Crown of these realms.

We desire to express our most grateful thanks to your Majesty for having thus solemnly promised to continue to maintain those laws and customs which have for ages been the glory of our ancestors, and which it will be our pride and happiness, under your revered authority, to obey and preserve.

We further beg leave on this occasion to renew our assurances of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and to express our most fervent hopes that your Majesty may live to enjoy a long and glorious reign, distinguished by the blessings of peace, by the increasing prosperity of your dominions, and the fidelity and affection of your admiring subjects.

W. E. Squire, Mayor.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants and Common Council of the Borough of Colchester beg leave to approach your Majesty, as well to express our zealous attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person as to renew our faithful allegiance to the crown of these realms.

Upon the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your native country, our hearts were overwhelmed with regret at the demise of your Royal Father, whose virtues we shall ever embalm in our most pious recollections; but it was a source of sincere consolation to us to reflect on the undeviating firmness with which your filial solicitude continued to uphold the measures and to retain in your Councils the faithful services of those statesmen, by the result of whose sound and able policy your Majesty has not only subdued the menacing efforts of foreign hostility, but, amidst the desolation of surrounding Empires, has preserved inviolate and entire the venerable fabric of our Constitution, and secured to us the peaceful enjoyment of our religion and laws.

Whilst we hail as an epoch of constitutional importance the august solemnity by which your Majesty has guaranteed to your people their liberties and rights; we embrace it also as an event so consecrated to loyalty and joy, that, amidst the countless voices of your subjects who participate in the same feelings, we hasten to unite our dutious accents to the general congratulation; and, yielding to no portion of your Majesty's kingdom in our fealty to our Sovereign and resolution to support the prerogative of the crown, we implore the Almighty Arbiter of human destinies that your Majesty may be long preserved in the possession of your hereditary diadem, confidently anticipating that the annals of your Majesty's reign, already as illustrious for the victories of your arms as the wisdom of your Councils, will also record the exercise of every Royal virtue, and that posterity will recognize in your Majesty a Monarch enshrined in the affections of his subjects, and in the people submitted to your mild and paternal sceptre, a nation enlightened, happy and free.

In testimony whereof, we, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants and Common Council of the said Borough, have caused to be affixed our common seal, the 27th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1821.

[Delivered by John Round, Esq. High Steward, and William Gordon Kelly, Esq. Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Stratford-upon-Avon, and its Vicinity.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses and other Inhabitants of Stratford-upon-Avon, and its Vicinity, humbly beg leave to reiterate to your Majesty the assurances of our loyalty and attachment to your Person, and of our fidelity to the British Constitution.

Blest as we are in living under the protection of those laws which are the admiration of the world, we should deem ourselves unworthy the name of Britons, if we did not pay to their head that homage which is alike our duty and our privilege, and if we did not seize every opportunity of declaring to your Majesty and to the country, our firm
