Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 14, 1821.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning, on Wednesday next the 15th instant, for Her late Majesty Queen Caroline-Amelia-Elizabeth, viz.

The Ladies to wear black bombazines, plain muslin or long lawn linen, crape hoods, shamoy shoes and gloves, and crape fans.

Undress—Dark Norwich crape.

The Gentlemen to wear black cloth, without buttons on the sleeves and pockets, plain muslin or long lawn cravats and weepers, shamoy shoes and gloves, crape hatbands, and black swords and buckles.

Undress—Dark grey frocks.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

War-Office, 14th August 1821.

GARRISONS.

Colonel Sir John Colborne, K. C. B. of the 52d Foot, to be Lieutenant-Governor of Guernsey. Dated 23d July 1821.

Commission in the Royal Carmarthen Fusileers, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Carmarthen.

The Right Honourable Lord Dynevor to be Colonel, vice the Right Honourable Lord Cawdor, deceased. Dated 30th July 1821.

Commission in the Warwickshire Regular Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick.

George Henry Arnold, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 1st August 1821.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of the 7th instant.

Dogmersfield Yeomanry Cavalry.

For Bingham Baring, Gent. to be Cornet, vice St. John, deceased,

Read Bingham Baring, Gent. to be Cornet, vice St. John, resigned.

Whitehall, August 13, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock on the night of Sunday the 22d ultimo, some evil disposed person or persons, did wilfully and maliciously set fire to the barn and out buildings of Mr. W. Fyson, of Exning, in the county of Suffolk, which was consumed, together with a stack of straw;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and out buildings), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, such reward to be paid by Mr. W. Isaacson, Solicitor, Mildenhall.

Navy-Office, August 6, 1821.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June 1821, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 16th, 17th, 20th, 21st, and 22d instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 23d and 24th instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by the Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1821, will commence paying on the 13th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

CONTRACTS FOR MARINE CLOTHING, SHIRTS, AND SHOES.

Navy-Office, July 25, 1821.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 15th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying all or any of the following articles, viz.

Clothing for the Royal Marines,
Shirts for ditto,
Shoes for ditto;

to be delivered at His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich.

Patterns of the articles, and forms of the tenders, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the following sums, for the due performance of the contracts, viz.

For the contract for the clothing, £2000.

Shirts, £500.

Shoes, £500.

G. Smith.

Navy-Office, August 13, 1821.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, Commissioner Cunningham will be ready, at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, to receive tenders from such persons as may be willing to hire for a certain sum,

The privilege of selling Ale, Beer, Porter, Bread, Cheese, and other small articles, in the Tap-Room in His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich; subject to the regulations and conditions which may be known by applying at the Commissioner's Office, in the said Yard.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock on the said 13th of September next; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

G. Smith.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
August 14, 1821.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £75 and under £76 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.
Matt. Winter, Secretary

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
June 2, 1821.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 8th day of December next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, that is to say,

Chesterhill Farm, in the parish of Balmbrongh, for fifteen years, to commence upon the 12th day of May 1822, and Whittonstall Hall Farm, in the parish of Bywell Saint Peter, for eight years, to commence upon the said 12th day of May 1822, both in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous to take either of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to Edward Hawke Locker, Esq. Secretary to Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 7th day of December next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

In the present and all future letting by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Nicholas Weatherly, of Belford, will shew Chesterhill Farm, and Mr. William Shipley, of Dilston, will shew Whittonstall Hall Farm, and Messrs. Waules and Brandling, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.
