SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere congratulations on the happy issue of the great constitutional solemnity, by which your Majesty has been formally invested with the crown and sceptre of these realms.

We regard with the most lively gratitude the sacred pledge which, in the ceremonial of your Coronation, your Majesty has given, that you will continue to rule us according to the revered laws and usages of our beloved country; and that you will preserve inviolated to us, and to our children, our invaluable Constitution in Church and State, and all the liberties and privileges which have rendered us, as a powerful and enlightened nation, the envy of the world.

Yielding to none within the British empire in ardent attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, in faithful allegiance to your Crown; and in zeal for the support of your Government, we have much satisfaction, on this joyful occasion, in assuring your Majesty, that the same loyal sentiments pervade the great body of our citizens; and that we anticipate with gladness, a long period of national prosperity under a King who, experience has taught us to know, is disposed and able alike to repel foreign aggression and to promote domestic bliss.

That God may long preserve your Majesty in the soundest health to realize our hopes, that you may ever reign in the hearts of a loyal and a happy people, and that your Crown may descend in your illustrious House to our latest posterity, are the most earnest wishes of, may it please your Majesty, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in name and by appointment of the said Magistrates and City Council, in Council assembled, and the city seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 7th day of August 1821 years, by Gavin Hadden, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants, and Commonalty of the Company of Cutlers, in Hallamshire, the Town Collector and his Assistants, the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty, and the undersigned Magistrates, Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the county of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants, and Commonalty of the Company of Cutlers, in Hallamshire, the Town Collector and his Assistants, the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty, and the undersigned Magistrates, Clergy, Gentleman, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the county of York, most humbly approach your Majesty, with the tender of our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation; the celebration of which, happily, united all classes of your Majesty's subjects in doing honour to your Majesty and the Throne which, providentially for your people, is the undisputed inheritance of your Majesty and your august Family.

Permit us, at the same time, to offer our warmest acknowledgements for your Majesty's most gracious condescension, in directing two of the Coronation medals to be sent to this town, for the purpose of being deposited in the foundation stone of the Free Church, which, in honour of your Majesty, was laid on the day of your Coronation; and in commemoration thereof dedicated to Saint George.

That the Crown now placed on the brow of your Majesty may shine with unsullied lustre, and be resigned only for one of higher glory, is the fervent prayer of us your Majesty's loyal subjects.

By order of the Master, Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company of Cutlers' within Hallamshire, in the county of York, at their Common-Hall assembled, in Sheffield aforesaid, this 27th day of July 1821,
J. O. Skelton, Master-Cutler.

By order of the Town Collector and his Assistants, at a Meeting held in Sheffield aforesaid, this 27th day of July 1821, Robt. Turner, Town-Collector.

By order of the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty, at a Meeting held in Sheffield aforesaid, this 27th day of July 1821,
James Drabble, Capital-Burgess.

[Transmitted by J. O. Skelton, Esq.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of Manchester and Salford and their Vicinity, who have recently been engaged in celebrating the auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation, are anxious to offer to your Majesty the homage of our warm and unfeigned congratulations on an occasion so interesting to all, and which has been commemorated in these towns with extraordinary splendour and magnificence, and what your Majesty will still more highly appreciate, with a display of zeal and unanimity of genuine loyalty and good feeling, beyond all former example.

The high and impressive solemnity in which your Majesty has publicly recognised the Laws and Constitution of the Empire to be the fundamental principals of your Majesty's reign, is an occasion which might well call forth a correspondent avowal of duty and allegiance from your people, and we cannot terminate the celebration of this august event, in a manner more entirely in unison with our own feelings, or more gratifying, we trust, to those of your Majesty, than by thus respectfully conveying to the Throne our cordial and united assurance that the best and warmest wishes of our hearts are centred in this hope—That your Majesty may be blessed with a long and a prosperous reign, and that the Crown which has been placed upon your royal brow may be preserved to yourself and your illustrious Line, in the same unsullied purity and exalted renown, with which it sat so long and so gloriously upon the head of your venerated Sire.

[Transmitted by the Boroughreeves and Constable.]

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild this day assembled, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to express our loyal, sincere, and heartfelt congratulations on the happy celebration of the august ceremony of your Majesty's Royal Coronation: which we cannot but view as a solemn ratification, before God and the nation, of the high duties to the performance of which your Majesty had become pledged upon your Majesty's accession to the Imperial Crown of these realms.

Deeply sensible of the many inestimable benefits, which as a nation, we have heretofore experienced under the mild and paternal sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick; we confidently anticipate, under your Majesty's auspicious reign, a continuance of the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and of all those other invaluable immunities and privileges which we so happily enjoy under our glorious and envied Constitution.

Humbly beseeching Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, "to grant the King a long life," we fervently pray that your Majesty, crowned with length of days, and in the full enjoyment of all the blessings of health, peace, and prosperity, may long and gloriously reign over a free, loyal, and grateful people:

Given under our common seal at Berwick-upon-Tweed, the 26th day of July, in the second year of your Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1821.

Any. Compton, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Charles Constable, Esq.]

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war:

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases: His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Ad-

Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest.

Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest.

To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong.

One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows,

To the officer commanding the party, two shares.

To each of the other officers, one share.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of June 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the seventh of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock on the night of Sunday the 22d ultimo, some evil disposed person or persons, did wilfully and maliciously set fire to the barn and out buildings of Mr. W. Fyson, of Exning, in the county of Suffolk, which was consumed, together with a stack of straw;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and out buildings), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, such reward to be paid by Mr. W. Isaacson, Solicitor, Mildenhall.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such ground madder should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such ground madder should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such ground madder in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 21st day of December 1820,

N. VANSITTART.

Notice to the Creditors of Archibald Cochran, of Ashkirk, sometime Merchant, in Fisherrow.

Edinburgh, August 13, 1821.

DAVID PATERSON, Accountant, in Edinburgh, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Archibald Cochran has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and that the Sheriff of Edinburgh has fixed Friday the 31st day of August current, and Friday the 21st day of September next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs. The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, on Saturday the 22d day of September next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another general meeting of the Creditors will be held, at the same place and hour, on Friday the 5th of October next, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners, examining into the state of the affairs, and proceedings under the sequestration, and giving directions to the Trustee for the recovery and disposal of the estate.

The Creditors are required to produce in the Trustee's hands their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting of 22d September next; and it is farther intimated, that unless the said productions are made between and the 29th day of April 1822, the parties neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the estate.
