THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere congratulations on the happy issue of the great constitutional solemnity, by which your Majesty has been formally invested with the crown and sceptre of these realms.

We regard with the most lively gratitude the sacred pledge which, in the ceremonial of your Coronation, your Majesty has given, that you will continue to rule us according to the revered laws and usages of our beloved country; and that you will preserve inviolated to us, and to our children, our invaluable Constitution in Church and State, and all the liberties and privileges which have rendered us, as a powerful and enlightened nation, the envy of the world.

Yielding to none within the British empire in ardent attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, in faithful allegiance to your Crown; and in zeal for the support of your Government, we have much satisfaction, on this joyful occasion, in assuring your Majesty, that the same loyal sentiments pervade the great body of our citizens; and that we anticipate with gladness, a long period of national prosperity under a King who, experience has taught us to know, is disposed and able alike to repel foreign aggression and to promote domestic bliss.

That God may long preserve your Majesty in the soundest health to realize our hopes, that you may ever reign in the hearts of a loyal and a happy people, and that your Crown may descend in your illustrious House to our latest posterity, are the most earnest wishes of, may it please your Majesty, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in name and by appointment of the said Magistrates and City Council, in Council assembled, and the city seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 7th day of August 1821 years, by Gavin Hadden, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost.]

Permit us, at the same time, to offer our warmest acknowledgements for your Majesty's most gracious condescension, in directing two of the Coronation
