

medals to be sent to this town, for the purpose of being deposited in the foundation stone of the Free Church, which, in honour of your Majesty, was laid on the day of your Coronation; and in commemoration thereof dedicated to Saint George.

That the Crown now placed on the brow of your Majesty may shine with unsullied lustre, and be resigned only for one of higher glory, is the fervent prayer of us your Majesty's loyal subjects.

By order of the Master, Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company of Cutlers' within Hallamshire, in the county of York, at their Common-Hall assembled, in Sheffield aforesaid, this 27th day of July 1821,
J. O. Skelton, Master-Cutler.

By order of the Town Collector and his Assistants, at a Meeting held in Sheffield aforesaid, this 27th day of July 1821, Robt. Turner, Town-Collector.

By order of the twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty, at a Meeting held in Sheffield aforesaid, this 27th day of July 1821,
James Drabble, Capital-Burgess.

[Transmitted by J. O. Skelton, Esq.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of Manchester and Salford and their Vicinity, who have recently been engaged in celebrating the auspicious event of your Majesty's Coronation, are anxious to offer to your Majesty the homage of our warm and unfeigned congratulations on an occasion so interesting to all, and which has been commemorated in these towns with extraordinary splendour and magnificence, and what your Majesty will still more highly appreciate, with a display of zeal and unanimity of genuine loyalty and good feeling, beyond all former example.

The high and impressive solemnity in which your Majesty has publicly recognised the Laws and Constitution of the Empire to be the fundamental principals of your Majesty's reign, is an occasion which might well call forth a correspondent avowal of duty and allegiance from your people, and we cannot terminate the celebration of this august event, in a manner more entirely in unison with our own feelings, or more gratifying, we trust, to those of your Majesty, than by thus respectfully conveying to the Throne our cordial and united assurance that the best and warmest wishes of our hearts are centred in this hope—That your Majesty may be blessed with a long and a prosperous reign, and that the Crown which has been placed upon your royal brow may be preserved to yourself and your illustrious Line, in the same unsullied purity and exalted renown, with which it sat so long and so gloriously upon the head of your venerated Sire.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild this day assembled, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to express our loyal, sincere, and heartfelt congratulations on the happy celebration of the august ceremony of your Majesty's Royal Coronation: which we cannot but view as a solemn ratification, before God and the nation, of the high duties to the performance of which your Majesty had become pledged upon your Majesty's accession to the Imperial Crown of these realms.

Deeply sensible of the many inestimable benefits, which as a nation, we have heretofore experienced under the mild and paternal sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick; we confidently anticipate, under your Majesty's auspicious reign, a continuance of the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and of all those other invaluable immunities and privileges which we so happily enjoy under our glorious and envied Constitution.

Humbly beseeching Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, "to grant the King a long life," we fervently pray that your Majesty, crowned with length of days, and in the full enjoyment of all the blessings of health, peace, and prosperity, may long and gloriously reign over a free, loyal, and grateful people:

Given under our common seal at Berwick-upon-Tweed, the 26th day of July, in the second year of your Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1821.

Any. Compton, Mayor.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States
