Dublin-Castle, August 27, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 17th instant, the Cloth Factory belonging to Messrs. Samuel and William Humphries, situate in the town of Frome, in the county of Somerset, was wilfully set on fire, and the same, together with the steam engine and machinery, and a quantity of wool, were totally destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said Factory), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Samuel and William Humphries, and a further reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS by the inhabitants of the said town of Frome, to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Thursday the 23d instant, or early on the following morning, Edward Sell, a private watchman, in the employ of Thomas Hale, Esq. of Hornsey-lane, in the county of Middlesex, was inhumanly murdered;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Hale, and a further sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS by the inhabitants of the parish of Highgate, to be paid on conviction by the Rev. Dr. Owen, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall make such discovery as aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed,
