TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1821.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 8, 1821.

THE Remains of Her late Majesty Queen Caroline-Amelia-Elizabeth were removed from Brandenburg-House, Hammersmith, on the morning of Tuesday the 14th of August, at seven o'clock, in a hearse decorated with escutcheons and drawn by eight horses, escorted by a guard of honour, consisting of a squadron of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards, which was relieved at Romford by a like guard of the 4th Regiment of Light Dragoons, and similar reliefs took place at Chelmsford and at Colchester.

Upon the arrival of the Royal Remains at Chelmsford they were deposited in the Church under a military guard. On Wednesday morning the procession moved and halted the following night at Colchester, where the Royal Body was placed in the Church under a military guard, and on the following morning the procession again advanced and arrived at Harwich at twelve o'clock, when the Royal Remains were conveyed on board the Glasgow frigate, attended by John Calvert, Esq. Secretary to the Lord Chamberlain, and Sir George Nayler, Clarenceux King of Arms. The colours at Harwich and at Landguard Fort were hoisted at half-mast, and minute guns were fired from the Fort as soon as the body was placed in the boats, and continued until the firing was taken up by the Glasgow frigate and the remainder of the squadron appointed for this service. The persons who were to accompany the Royal Remains embarked on board the Glasgow and other ships, and on the following morning the squadron sailed for the Continent.

On the arrival of the Royal Remains at Stade, on Monday the 20th August, they were deposited in the Church during the night. The procession moved the next morning and halted that night at Buxtehude, on Wednesday night at Soltau, and on Thursday night at Celle, Her Majesty's Remains being placed in the principal Church of these respective places during the night.

The procession arrived at Brunswick on Friday evening, at eleven o'clock, and advanced to the Cathedral Church of St. Blaise, where Her Majesty's Remains were deposited, with the customary solemnities, in the vault of the Ducal Family of Brunswick, in pursuance of Her Majesty's wish, expressed in one of the codicils to her will.

[ 1842 ]

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, September 10, 1821.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Worthington, of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Dublin-Castle, August 31, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Thursday the 23d instant, or early on the following morning, Edward Sell, a private watchman, in the employ of Thomas Hale, Esq. of Hornsey-lane, in the county of Middlesex, was inhumanly murdered;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice, or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Hale, and a further sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS by the inhabitants of the parish of Highgate, to be paid on conviction by the Rev. Dr. Owen, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall make such discovery as aforesaid.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for embanking, inclosing, draining, allotting and dividing all those several marshes and waste-lands or tracts of commonable and other lands and pasture situate in the several Parishes of Heanton, Punchardon and Branton, in the County of Devon, called or commonly known by the several names of Wrafenton-Marsh, otherwise Wrafton-Marsh, Horsey-Island, Broad Sands, Vellator, and such parts of Branton-Marsh as lie between the present embankment thereof and the River Taw and Branton River; and also all other lands, rivers and sands lying between the present embankment of Branton-Marsh and the inclosed lands in the Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Branton aforesaid; and also for stopping up and diverting the said Branton River and the navigation thereof, which said Branton River is situated in the several Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Branton aforesaid, or one of them, or lies between or divides the said Parishes, and for diverting, changing or altering the course of the waters of the said Branton River; and also for digging, cutting, making and maintaining a canal from the north sluice of the present embankment of Branton-Marsh, or from some place near thereto through the said several marshes and waste-lands or tracts of commonable and other lands and pasture, and the said other lands, rivers, sands and premises to or near to the tideway at Broad-Pill; and also for diverting certain brooks or streams of water called or known by the several names of, Braunton Brook and Wrafton Brook, in the Parishes of Braunton and Heanton Punchardon, aforesaid; and also for making and maintaining, such other canals, diverting such other rivers, streams and brooks, and erecting such sluices, bridges, aqueducts, reservoirs, culverts and other works, and for doing such other matters and things as may be necessary or be deemed advisable for carrying the said embankment, inclosure, drainage and other objects of the said Bill into complete effect.—Dated this 30th day of August in the year of our Lord 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session of Parliament for a Bill to authorise the making of bye-laws, rules and regulations for governing vessels and craft resorting to the Town and Port of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and using any of the docks, basins or creeks belonging to the Corporation of Liverpool, and for establishing a wholesale and retail fish-market within the said Town, and for making bye-laws, rules and regulations respecting the same; and also for the better regulation of all defective balances, weights and measures within the said Town.—Dated this 8th day of September 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session of Parliament for a Bill to authorise the erection of a new church on the east side of Berry-Street, in the Town and Parish of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, intended to be called Saint Luke's Church; also for reviving, amending and enlarging so much of an Act passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for building a Church in the Town of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and for enlightening and cleansing the streets of the said Town and for keeping and maintaining a nightly watch there," as relates to the church therein-mentioned.—Dated this 9th day of September 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also of an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of the twenty-sixth year of His present Majesty for making and keeping in repair certain roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend and amend the powers of three Acts of His present Majesty's reign for building the Waterloo Bridge and making roads communicating therewith, and to authorise the relinquishment of the repairing, lighting and watching of the roads on the south side of the bridge to the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, acting under two several Acts of His present Majesty's reign for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads," so far as the powers and provisions of the last mentioned Act relate to the repairing, managing, watching and lighting of the roads by the same Act authorised to be relinquished, and which said several roads pass through the said several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the said County of Surrey. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, an increase and alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said Acts, or one of them, to be collected; and also a toll or tolls in addition thereto to defray the expence of watering the said several roads is or are intended to be proposed. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, provision is intended to be made for raising money beyond the said several tolls by a proportionate rate or assessment upon the several owners or occupiers of premises adjoining or near to the said several roads towards defraying the expence of watching and lighting the said roads.—Dated this 10th day of September 1821, by order,

West India Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue or extend, for a term to be limited, all the rights, powers, privileges and authorities granted to or vested in the West India Dock Company for a term of twenty-one years, in and by an Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rendering more commodious and for better regulating the Port of London;" and also in and by a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for rendering more commodious and for better regulating the Port of London, so far as the same relates to the concerns of the West India Dock Company thereby established, and for extending to other objects the compensations directed to be made by the said Act;" and for the better enabling the said West India Dock Company to execute the powers and duties vested in them by the said Acts.
