

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1821.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint :

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided, by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war :

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases : His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked; so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further ; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order :

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person, or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest.

Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest.

To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong.

One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows,

To the officer commanding the party, two shares.

To each of the other officers, one share.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of John Cotes, Esq. late Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Salop, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Salop, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 13th day of September 1821,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, September 15, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a great body of men, to the number of fifty or more, armed with pistols, cutlasses, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea shore at Marsh Bay, near Margate, about two o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 2d of September instant, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of foreign spirits and other prohibited and uncustomed goods, and who, on being opposed by an Officer and several seamen belonging to His Majesty's ship Severn, employed on the preventive service, maliciously and feloniously attacked and fired at them, and severely wounded the Officer and one of the seamen;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders (except the person or persons who actually wounded the said Officer and seaman), who shall discover his or their accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Admiralty-Office, September 14, 1821.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity for the relief of the widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 20th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the Pension List, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of February.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Navy.

J. W. Croker.

of Edgbaston, Harborne, Northfield; King's Norton and Alvechurch, in the counties of Warwick, Stafford and Worcester, some or one of them, and to alter, explain and amend five several Acts of Parliament passed in the thirty-first, thirty-eighth, forty-fourth, forty-eighth and fifty-fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to the said Worcester and Birmingham canal, or any of them, in which said bill provision is intended to be made for altering and increasing the existing tolls, rates or duties authorized by the said Acts, or any of them to be collected.

Benjamin Parker, Spurrier, Ingleby and Spurrier, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for embanking, inclosing, draining, allotting and dividing all those several marshes and waste-lands or tracts of commonable and other lands and pasture situate in the several Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Braunton, in the County of Devon, called or commonly known by the several names of Wrafton-Marsh, otherwise Wrafton-Marsh, Horsey-Island, Broad Sands, Vellator, and such parts of Braunton-Marsh as lie between the present embankment thereof and the River Taw and Braunton River; and also all other lands, rivers and sands lying between the present embankment of Braunton-Marsh and the inclosed lands in the Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Braunton aforesaid; and also for stopping up and diverting the said Braunton River and the navigation thereof, which said Braunton River is situated in the several Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Braunton aforesaid, or one of them, or lies between or divides the said Parishes, and for diverting, changing or altering the course of the waters of the said Braunton River; and also for digging, cutting, making and maintaining a canal from the north sluice of the present embankment of Braunton-Marsh, or from some place near thereto through the said several marshes and waste-lands, or tracts of commonable and other lands and pasture, and the said other lands, rivers, sands and premises to or near to the tideway at Broad-Pill; and also for diverting certain brooks or streams of water called or known by the several names of Braunton Brook and Wrafton Brook, in the Parishes of Braunton and Heanton Punchardon aforesaid; and also for making and maintaining such other canals, diverting such other rivers, streams and brooks, and erecting such sluices, bridges, aqueducts, reservoirs, culverts and other works, and for doing such other matters and things as may be necessary or be deemed advisable for carrying the said embankment, inclosure, drainage and other objects of the said Bill into complete effect.—Dated this 30th day of August in the year of our Lord 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session of Parliament for a Bill to authorise the making of bye-laws, rules and regulations for governing vessels and craft resorting to the Town and Port of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and using any of the docks, basins or creeks belonging to the Corporation of Liverpool, and for establishing a wholesale and retail fish-market within the said Town, and for making bye-laws, rules and regulations respecting the same; and also for the better regulation of all defective balances, weights and measures within the said Town.—Dated this 8th day of September 1821.

Statham, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session of Parliament for a Bill to authorise the erection of a new church on the east side of Berry-Street, in the Town and Parish of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, intended to be called Saint Luke's Church; also for reviving, amending and enlarging so much of an Act passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for building a Church in the Town of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and for enlightening and cleansing the streets of the said Town and for keeping and maintaining a nightly watch there." as relates to the church therein-mentioned.—Dated this 8th day of September 1821.

Statham, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also of an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of the twenty-sixth year of His present Majesty for making and keeping in repair certain roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend and amend the powers of three Acts of His present Majesty's reign for building the Waterloo Bridge and making roads communicating therewith, and to authorise the relinquishment of the repairing, lighting and watching of the roads on the south side of the bridge to the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, acting under two several Acts of His present Majesty's reign for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads," so far as the powers and provisions of the last mentioned Act relate to the repairing, managing, watching and lighting of the roads by the same Act authorised to be relinquished, and which said several roads pass through the said several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the said County of Surrey. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, provision is intended to be made for raising money beyond the said several tolls by a proportionate rate or assessment upon the several owners or occupiers of premises adjoining or near to the said several roads towards defraying the expence of watching and lighting the said roads.—Dated this 10th day of September 1821, by order, Sam. Welchman, Solicitor.

West India Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue or extend, for a term to be limited, all the rights, powers, privileges and authorities granted or vested in the West India Dock Company for a term of twenty-one years, in and by an Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rendering more commodious and for better regulating the Port of London;" and also in and by a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for rendering more commodious and for better regulating the Port of London, so far as the same relates to the concerns of the West India Dock Company thereby established, and for extending to other objects the compensations directed to be made by the said Act;" and for the better enabling the said West India Dock Company to execute the powers and duties vested in them by the said Acts.

For the oats, at	£	four	hundred pounds, avoirdupois weight.
For the hay, at	£	four	hundred and twelve pounds.
For the straw, at	£	four	hundred and twelve pounds.

The proposals may be delivered separately or jointly for two or more of the said districts, and it is expected that the contractor shall receive the stable dung which, during the period of his contract, may accumulate, making an allowance for the same, after the rate of £ horse per week.

Farther particulars may be known upon application to the officers commanding the Royal Artillery in each district, and also at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for Forage;" but no proposals can be admitted after the 21st September next, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,
R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Bank of England, September 15, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank, on Thursday next the 20th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to consider of a dividend, which will also be one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the charter.

Robert Best, Secretary.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, August 22, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.
