PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

A New Great Seal for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having been prepared by His Majesty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in pursuance of a warrant to him for that purpose, under His Majesty's Royal Signature; and the same having been this day presented to His Majesty, and the old Great Seal being delivered up to His Majesty by the Right Honourable John Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the same was defaced in His Majesty's presence; and His Majesty was thereupon pleased to deliver to his Lordship the said new Seal, and to direct that the same shall be made use of for sealing all things whatever which pass the Great Seal.

[1882]

C. C. Greville.

War-Office, 17th September 1821.

MEMORANDUM.

The King has been pleased to remove Major-General Sir Robert Thomas Wilson from His Majesty's service.

Commission in the Dumbartonshire Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Dumbarton.

George Swan, Gent. to be Surgeon. Dated 23d October 1820.

Whitehall, September 15, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a great body of men, to the number of fifty or more, armed with pistols, cutlasses, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea shore at Marsh Bay, near Margate, about two o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 2d of September instant, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of foreign spirits and other prohibited and uncustomed goods, and who, on being opposed by an Officer and several seamen belonging to His Majesty's ship Severn, employed on the preventive service, maliciously and feloniously attacked and fired at them, and severely wounded the Officer and one of the seamen;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders (except the person or persons who actually wounded the said Officer and seaman), who shall discover his or their accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 18, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, enlarge, alter, explain, and amend the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and for authority for the Trustees of the said docks to build additional graving or repairing docks at the north end of the town and parish of Liverpool; and also to build and provide basins, slips, piers, and other accommodations in the said town and parish of Liverpool for vessels, ferry and other boats and craft navigated by steam or otherwise; and for authority to charge a tonnage or other rate upon such vessels, boats, and craft for the use of the same accommodations; and for power to make additional laws, rules, and regulations for the management of all such vessels, and of the ferry and all other boats and craft plying for hire upon the River Mersey; and also for the regulation of all porters and other persons attending and plying for hire at the stairs, slips, piers, or basins now established, or hereafter to be made within the port of Liverpool, or at packets or other vessels arriving at or departing from Liverpool; and for further powers for the regulation and removal of vessels in the docks or basins; and for authority to Justices of the Peace to award compensation for damage done to vessels in the port of Liverpool, or in the docks or basins, or to the floating-light-vessel, or to any of the buoys, mooring-chains, or marks in the said docks or harbour of Liverpool, or the tackle belonging to the same; and also for power to fix certain rates or remuneration for riggers and boatmen, and others attending vessels in the River Mersey and in the said docks, and for taking up anchors, and to authorise Justices to settle disputes concerning the same; and for authority to regulate returns for over entries of goods at the Dock-Office, and the time within which the same may be made; and also to make further regulations for the transfers of assignments of the rates and duties granted by the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, by registering the same at the Dock-Office; and for empowering the said Trustees to raise the further sum of £200,000, for carrying into effect the said several works and other improvements in the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and also for authority to light and maintain out of the present light dues, a light-house, to be erected by the Corporation of Liverpool near the Rock Point, at the north west entrance of the River Mersey, in the port of Liverpool; and for power to establish a communication by telegraph or otherwise with the port of Liverpool, either from Holyhead in Anglesea, or Hoylake in Cheshire, as may be most expedient; and for authority to purchase and pay for, or to rent and hire such lands, houses, or buildings as may be necessary for the same; and for further powers to purchase or rent land near the said docks, in the town and parish of Liverpool aforesaid, for the purpose of depositing timber and other goods until the same are measured and passed by the Revenue Officers; and also for powers to make bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the manner of using the same, with authority to receive a rent, or to fix and receive a rate or other charge for the use thereof; and also for further provisions for the more effectual punishment of pilfering upon the docks' quays; and generally to amend and render more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and to make such further regulations, and to give such further powers as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid.—September 13, 1821.

Thomas Foster, Solicitor to the said Trustees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Navigation from the Trent to the Mersey, to make a navigable tunnel or cut of canal through a certain hill, called Harecastle-Hill, and from and out of their said navigation, in the township of Chatterley, in the parish of Wolstanton, in the county of Stafford, into their said navigation in the township of Ravensclough, in the said parish, and which navigable tunnel or cut or canal will pass in and through the said parish of Wolstanton, and the said townships of Chatterley and Ravensclough; and also to enable the said Company to make a reservoir, for the supply of their canals with water, in a certain valley, called Knipersley Valley, in the parish of Biddulph, and in the township of Bemersley, in the parish of Norton-on-the-Moors, all in the said county of Stafford; and also to enable the said Company to extend and enlarge a certain trench or gutter from such part of the reservoir of the said Company in Rudyerd-Vale, as lies in the township of Rushton James, in the parish of Leek, in the said county of Stafford, into the river Dane, in the township of Wincle, in the parish of Prestbury, in the county of Chester, and which trench or gutter passes in and through the said township of Rushton James, and the townships of Rushton Spencer and Heaton, in the said parish of Leek, and the said township of Wincle, in the said parish of Prestbury; and also to amend and enlarge the powers of the several Acts passed for making a navigable canal from the Trent to the Mersey, and other canals connected therewith.

Navigation-Office, Stone, Staffordshire,
September 10, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, and obtain an Act or Acts for confirming a certain charter or letters patent granted to the borough of Maldon, in the county of Essex, and the Burgesses of the same, on the 8th day of October, in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and the several customs, tolls, liberties, rights, jurisdictions, and franchises therein or in any former charter mentioned, granted, confined, and restored; also for granting, confirming, altering, and regulating the tolls on corn, coals, and merchandize, and other dues of the Corporation of Maldon, in and upon the rivers Chelmer and Blackwater, and elsewhere, within the said borough and port, for regulating the Oyster and float fishery therein; and for the repairing, amending, and improving of the harbour, haven port, hithe, wharfs, beacons, rivers, and channels of the said borough, and the two bridges and causeway within the boundaries and precincts thereof.

Wm. Lawrence.

Maldon, September 6, 1821:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for making a canal from Mrs. Kymer's canal, in the borough of Kidwelly, in the county of Carmarthen, to the River Towy, in the parish of St. Ishmaels, in the same county.—Dated this 6th day of September 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act to repeal or to amend, or to vary and enlarge, as far only as regards the supplying the town and port of Liverpool with water, all or any of the powers of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for opening, making, widening and altering certain streets, passages and places within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, for supplying the said town with good and wholesome water, for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein, for appointing additional market-places, and for extending so much of the powers of an Act of the second year of His late Majesty, as relates to hackney coachmen, chairmen, carters and porters to a certain distance beyond the liberties of the said town; " or to incorporate certain persons being subscribers to and proprietors of certain works in the town of Liverpool, called the Liverpool Corporation Water Works, and to grant to such persons and their successors and assigns certain powers and authorities for better supplying the said town and port of Liverpool with water; and also for supplying the townships of Everton, West Derby and Toxteth Park, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, with fresh and wholesome water, and for powers of digging for, or collecting springs in any lands or grounds in the parishes or several townships of Liverpool, West Derby, and Toxteth Park, and for making and erecting any reservoirs, engines or buildings for raising water in the said several parishes or townships of Liverpool, West Derby and Toxteth Park, and for laying pipes, mains, troughs, aqueducts or other things, in the said several parishes or townships of Liverpool, Everton, West Derby and Toxteth Park, that may be necessary for supplying the said several parishes or townships of Liverpool, Everton, West Derby and Toxteth Park, and the shipping resorting to the port of Liverpool, and township of Toxteth Park, with good and wholesome water.

Henry Agard, Manager and Chief Clerk to the said Works.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a bill for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham canal navigation, to make reservoir or reservoirs for the use and supply of the said canal with water, and to make proper aqueducts, feeders and leaders for conveying the surplus water from the said canal into and from the said reservoir and reservoirs, for the purpose of supplying the said canal and reservoir and reservoirs or any of them with water, and from the rivers Arrow and Rea, or one of them into the said canal and reservoir and reservoirs, which said reservoirs, aqueducts, feeders and leaders are intended to be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes of Edgbaston, Harborne, Northfield, King's Norton and Alvechurch, in the counties of Warwick, Stafford and Worcester, some or one of them, and to alter, explain and amend five several Acts of Parliament passed in the thirty-first, thirty-eighth, forty-fourth, forty-eighth and fifty-fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to the said Worcester and Birmingham canal, or any of them, in which said bill provision is intended to be made for altering and increasing the existing tolls, rates or duties authorized by the said Acts, or any of them to be collected.

Benjamin Parker, Spurrier, Ingleby and Spurrier, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for embanking, inclosing, draining, allotting and dividing all those several marshes and waste-lands or tracts of commonable and other lands and pasture situate in the several Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Braunton, in the County of Devon, called or commonly known by the several names of Wrafton-Marsh, otherwise Wrafton-Marsh, Horsey-Island, Broad Sands, Vellator, and such parts of Braunton-Marsh as lie between the present embankment thereof and the River Taw and Braunton River; and also all other lands, rivers and sands lying between the present embankment of Braunton-Marsh and the inclosed lands in the Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Braunton aforesaid; and also for stopping up and diverting the said Braunton River and the navigation thereof, which said Braunton River is situated in the several Parishes of Heanton Punchardon and Braunton aforesaid, or one of them, or lies between or divides the said Parishes, and for diverting, changing or altering the course of the waters of the said Braunton River; and also for digging, cutting, making and maintaining a canal from the north sluice of the present embankment of Braunton-Marsh, or from some place near thereto through the said several marshes and waste-lands or tracts of commonable and other lands and pasture, and the said other lands, rivers, sands and premises to or near to the tideway at Broad-Pill; and also for diverting certain brooks or streams of water called or known by the several names of Braunton Brook and Wrafton Brook, in the Parishes of Braunton and Heanton Punchardon aforesaid; and also for making and maintaining such other canals, diverting such other rivers, streams and brooks, and erecting such sluices, bridges, aqueducts, reservoirs, culverts and other works, and for doing such other matters and things as may be necessary or be deemed advisable for carrying the said embankment, inclosure, drainage and other objects of the said Bill into complete effect.—Dated this 30th day of August in the year of our Lord 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session of Parliament for a Bill to authorise the making of bye-laws, rules and regulations for governing vessels and craft resorting to the Town and Port of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and using any of the docks, basins or creeks belonging to the Corporation of Liverpool, and for establishing a wholesale and retail fish-market within the said Town, and for making bye-laws, rules and regulations respecting the same; and also for the better regulation of all defective balances, weights and measures within the said Town.—Dated this 8th day of September 1821.

Statham, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session of Parliament for a Bill to authorise the erection of a new church on the east side of Berry-Street, in the Town and Parish of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, intended to be called Saint Luke's Church; also for reviving, amending and enlarging so much of an Act passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for building a Church in the Town of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and for enlightening and cleansing the streets of the said Town and for keeping and maintaining a nightly watch there," as relates to the church therein-mentioned.—Dated this 9th day of September 1821.

Statham, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also of an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of the twenty-sixth year of His present Majesty for making and keeping in repair certain roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend and amend the powers of three Acts of His present Majesty's reign for building the Waterloo Bridge and making roads communicating therewith, and to authorise the relinquishment of the repairing, lighting and watching of the roads on the south side of the bridge to the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, acting under two several Acts of His present Majesty's reign for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads," so far as the powers and provisions of the last mentioned Act relate to the repairing, managing, watching and lighting of the roads by the same Act authorised to be relinquished, and which said several roads pass through the said several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the said County of Surrey. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, an increase and alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said Acts, or one of them, to be collected; and also a toll or tolls in addition thereto to defray the expence of watering the said several roads is or are intended to be proposed. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, provision is intended to be made for raising money beyond the said several tolls by a proportionate rate or assessment upon the several owners or occupiers of premises adjoining or near to the said several roads towards defraying the expence of watching and lighting the said roads.—Dated this 10th day of September 1821, by order,

Sam. Welchman, Solicitor.

Guildhall, London, August, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to alter and amend or repeal an Act passed in the 29th year of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to improve, widen and enlarge the passage over and through London Bridge," so far as the same relates to the London Bridge Water-Works, and for effectually removing all obstructions to the navigation of the river Thames at or near London Bridge; also for an Act for taking down the present bridge over the river Thames, leading from the Parish of Saint Magnus the Martyr, in the City of London, to the Parish of Saint Olave, in the Borough of Southwark, and County of Surrey, called London Bridge, and rebuilding the same on the present site thereof, or for building a new bridge instead thereof in some more convenient situation near or adjoining thereto; and for widening and improving the avenues to the said intended new bridge if built on the site of the present bridge, or for making proper and convenient avenues and approaches to such new bridge if built in another situation, which said proposed new bridge and the avenues and approaches to be made, widened and improved, as before mentioned, are situate, or are intended to be situated, in the said Parishes of Saint Magnus and Saint Olave, and in the several Parishes of Saint Michael, Crooked-Lane, Saint George, Botolph-Lane, Saint Botolph, Billingsgate, and Saint Margaret, New-Fish-Street, in the City of London, and in the Parishes of Saint Saviour and Saint Thomas, in the Borough of Southwark aforesaid, or in some of the said Parishes; and to authorise the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to levy tolls upon all foot-passengers, horses, carriages and cattle passing over the said bridge; and also upon all hoys, barges, vessels, lighters or other craft passing under the said bridge; and to borrow money upon the credit of the said tolls (in aid of the money to be raised on the bridge house estates), for rebuilding the said bridge and effecting these several purposes before-mentioned; and to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons in like aid to borrow money for those purposes upon the credit of and to be charged upon and repaid out of the fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, granted and continued by several Acts made in the fifth and sixth years of King William and Queen Mary, the twenty-first year of King George the Second, and the seventh and forty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third; or to borrow or raise such sum of money as shall be required (in aid as aforesaid), for those purposes upon or by any or either of the means before stated: also for an Act to authorise the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to levy tolls upon all horses, carriages and cattle passing over Blackfriars Bridge, and to borrow money upon the credit of the said tolls for the repairing and maintaining Blackfriars Bridge aforesaid; or to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons to borrow a certain sum for those purposes upon the credit of and to be charged upon and repaid out of the said fund, commonly called the Orphan's Fund, granted and continued by several Acts made in the fifth and sixth years of King William and Queen Mary, the twenty-first year of King George the Second, and the seventh and forty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third; and also to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act made in the twenty-ninth year of King George the Second, and another Act made in the seventh year of His late Majesty King George the Third for building and completing Blackfriars Bridge aforesaid, and which said last mentioned bridge is situate in the Parish of Saint Anne, Blackfriars, in the City of London, and abuts at the south end thereof on the Parish of Christchurch, in the County of Surrey.
