SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1821.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRÉSENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council this day declaring His intention of going out of the kingdom for a short time, was pleased to nominate the following persons to be Lords Justices for the administration of the Government during His Majesty's absence :

His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York,
Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury,
John Earl of Eldon, Lord Chancellor,
Dudley Earl of Harrowby, Lord President,
John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Privy Seal,
James Duke of Montrose, Master of the Horse,
Arthur Duke of Wellington, Master-General of the Ordnance,
Charles Ingoldsby Marquis of Winchester, Groom of the Stole,
George James Marquis Cholmondeley, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household,
Robert Marquis of Londonderry, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
Henry Earl Bathurst, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
Charles Chetwynd Talbot Earl Talbot, Lieutenant-General and General Governor of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland,
Robert Banks Earl of Liverpool, First Commissioner of the Treasury,
Robert Viscount Melville, First Commissioner of the Admiralty,
Henry Viscount Sidmouth, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
William Lord Maryborough, Master of the Mint,
The Right Honourable Nicholas Vansittart, Chancellor of the Exchequer,
The Right Honourable Charles Bathurst, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster; and
The Right Honourable Frederick John Robinson, Treasurer of the Navy.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRÉSENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the twentieth day of this instant September to Thursday the twenty-ninth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRÉSENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

A New Great Seal for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having been prepared by His Majesty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in pursuance of a warrant to him for that purpose, under His Majesty's Royal Signature; and the same having been this day presented to His Majesty, and the old Great Seal being delivered up to His Majesty by the Right Honourable John Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the same was defaced in His Majesty's presence; and His Majesty was thereupon pleased to deliver to his Lordship the said new Seal, and to direct that the same shall be made use of for sealing all things whatever which pass the Great Seal.

C. C. Greville.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Worcester, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on the celebration of that august solemnity which confirms the bond of union between your Majesty and a free and happy people.

We desire to express our thanks to your Majesty for having thus pledged yourself to the maintenance of those venerated laws under which this kingdom has attained so high a pitch of glory and happiness, and which it is our earnest wish to unite with your Majesty in transmitting unimpaired to posterity.

We are sensible that your Majesty's just and equal attachment to the prerogative of the Crown and the rights of the people, affords the surest pledge of the continuance of those blessings which this kingdom has so long enjoyed; and under this conviction we earnestly hope that your Majesty's reign may be of long duration, contributing alike to your own glory and the happiness of your people.

Given under our common seal, this 27th day of August, and in the year of our Lord 1821.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Coventry.]

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on occasion of the august ceremony in which your Majesty has received the imperial Crown of these realms.

Permit us, Sire, to express the satisfaction we experience from your Majesty having thus solemnly recognized and promised to maintain that Constitution and those Laws which are so justly dear to your Majesty's subjects, which have so long been the source of happiness and glory to the Monarch and the people of these realms, and which, under your Majesty's gracious protection, it will be our pride and pleasure to support and obey.

We further beg leave to renew our assurances of attachment to your Majesty's royal Person and illustrious House, and to offer our fervent prayer that Almighty God will vouchsafe to your Majesty a long and truly glorious reign, distinguished by the blessings of peace, by the extension and diffusion of valuable knowledge, by the improvement of the arts and sciences, of agriculture, manufactures, and commerce, as well as by the cordial union and firm allegiance of all your Majesty's faithful subjects.

For and in behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham,
G. F. Muntz, High Bailiff.

[Transmitted by G. F. Muntz, High Bailiff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Apothecaries or Guild of Saint Luke Dublin, have ever felt the blest advantage of addressing the royal ear, and of impressing on our Monarch's mind the undeviating loyalty that swells and warms our breasts. On this occasion, Sire, this blessing is far enhanced to us by your gracious condescension in visiting this part of your Majesty's Dominions.

We implore your Majesty to accept the homage of our heartfelt gratitude and deep devotion for this transcendent mark of royal favour.

And that Divine Providence may long continue to us the happy reign of your Majesty, and endow you, Royal Sir, with every blessing; will ever be the fervent prayer of your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

In testimony whereof the common seal of said Guild is hereunto affixed.

Richard Barker, Master.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Perth, in Scotland, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and the other Members of the Town Council of the City of Perth, in Council assembled, humbly beg permission to approach the Throne with our cordial and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation as the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland. We have beheld with peculiar pleasure the great ability displayed by your Majesty for holding the reins of Government, and we look forward with hope and confidence to your future reign as distinguished by your patriotic attention to the Laws and Constitution of these kingdoms.

Permit us to offer our strongest assurances of unalterable attachment to your sacred Person and Government, and to pledge ourselves that nothing shall be wanting on our part to cultivate among all under our influence such sentiments as become faithful and loyal subjects.

That your Majesty enjoy a long and prosperous reign over a powerful, free and loyal people, and that a descendent of the illustrious House of Brunswick to the latest posterity may sit upon the Throne of this Great Empire is our fervent prayer.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council, by me, Lord Provost of the city and royal Burgh of Perth, this 18th day of August 1821, and the city seal appended.

Robert Ross.

[Transmitted by H. Lindsay, Esq. M. P. for Perth.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Provincial Grand Master, Masters, Wardens, and Brethren of the Lodges of the Province of Ayr, in Conclave assembled, approach your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late august Coronation, which solemnly sealed the Constitutional compact between King and people,

As Masons and Brethern of an Order in which due subordination is a vital principle, and to the observance of which we are bound by the most sacred obligations, it is our peculiar duty to feel and to acknowledge our respectful and dutiful submission to our illustrious Grand Master, and the patron of our Order, and such sentiments we shall ever cherish and maintain.

But as subjects, we offer to your Majesty our warmest declarations of faithful and loyal attachment to your Royal Person, and beg permission to express the delight which we, and every good subject, must feel, when we see a benign and patriotic Sovereign seated on a Throne of justice and mercy.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may long reign in health and prosperity over a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

In the name and by the authority of the Provincial Conclave, constituted by the assemblage of twenty-five Lodges, Alexander Boswell, Master of Mother Kilwinning, Provincial Grand Master of Ayrshire.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Coventry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, in the county-palatine of Chester, most humbly address your Majesty to renew to your Majesty the assurance of our unfeigned attachment and loyalty, and to offer our heartfelt congratulations on the important and happy event of your Majesty's Coronation.

In celebrating this national and royal solemnity, and paying to the Throne their grateful homage, all ranks of your Majesty's subjects in this Town and Neighbourhood evinced one general spirit of enthusiastic loyalty and patriotism, and a zealous and unanimous devotion to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We acknowledge with feelings of admiration and gratitude, the prosperity and blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal sway; and we fervently pray that the Crown which has been so auspiciously placed upon your royal head, may adorn it through a long and illustrious reign of uninterrupted happiness over a free, a loyal, and a grateful people.

On behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, and pursuant to the resolutions of a meeting numerously attended,
Thomas Robinson, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Viscount Bulkeley.]

To His Majesty George the Fourth, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Common Council, Magistrates, Clergymen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Borough of Carmarthen, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of respect, gratitude, and love to which no language can do justice, and to express our most loyal and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's most gracious visit to your ancient and loyal Town of Carmarthen, and that we cannot anticipate your Majesty's departure without feelings of the deepest regret.

We trust that your Majesty will graciously accept this our earnest of our dutiful and inviolable attachment to your Sacred Person, Crown, and Government.

Jn. Hughes, Mayor.

 The Index to the London Gazette, for the first six months of the year 1821, is now ready for delivery.

Whitehall, September 15, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that a great body of men, to the number of fifty or more, armed with pistols, cutlasses, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea-shore at Marsh Bay, near Margate, about two o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 2d of September instant, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of foreign spirits and other prohibited and uncustomed goods, and who, on being opposed by an Officer and several seamen belonging to His Majesty's ship Severn, employed on the preventive service, maliciously and feloniously attacked and fired at them, and severely wounded the Officer and one of the seamen;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders (except the person or persons who actually wounded the said Officer and seaman), who shall discover his or their accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 10th ultimo, as Mr. Nathaniel Wild, of No. 6, Crescent, Union-Street, Whitechapel, was returning home, he was violently assaulted by some evil-disposed person or persons, with a view to committing a robbery upon his person, from the effects of which he expired in about two hours afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the assault), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. James Harris, No. 19, Whitechapel.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 3d instant, a riotous mob assembled at Queenborough, in the county of Kent, and broke open the gaol of the said borough, from whence they rescued a prisoner, named James Gaskin, confined therein for want of securities;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Justices of the said borough, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 15th day of August last, Paul Armstrong, late of the township of Cotherston, in the north riding of the county of York, labourer; Thomas Lowe and John Currah, both of St. John's Chapel, in the county of Durham, miners, with divers other persons, to the number of forty, armed with guns, unlawfully and tumultuously assembled on certain moors in the parish of Grinton, in the said riding, with an intention mutually to assist each other by force against the authority of the law; and the said Paul Armstrong did threaten to take away the life of one Simon Peacock; and that the said Paul Armstrong also stands charged with divers crimes and misdemeanors, and divers warrants have been from time to time issued for his apprehension, which it hath hitherto been found impracticable to execute; and the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah have absconded; and that, on Thursday the 9th day of the said month of August, three persons, armed with fire arms, and one of them having his face blacked and being otherwise disguised, did assemble and appear upon an open heath or common, called Egleston Common, in the said county of Durham, contrary to the Statute in that case made and provided;

His Majesty, for the better bringing to justice the said offenders, doth hereby offer His most gracious pardon to any one of the persons so unlawfully and tumultuously assembled in the said parish of Grinton, on the 15th day of August last (except the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of them, the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah, or either of them; and also to any one of the three persons so assembled on Egleston Common aforesaid, on the said 9th day of August last (except the man in disguise), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said man in disguise.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall apprehend the said Paul Armstrong, and lodge him in any of His Majesty's gaols; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered to any person who shall apprehend the said person who so appeared armed and disguised on Egleston-Common, and lodge him in any of His Majesty's gaols, so that the said parties respectively may be dealt with according to law.—The above rewards to be paid immediately after the parties are lodged in gaol by Mr. Wheldon, Solicitor, at Barnard Castle, and Mr. Tomlin, Solicitor, at Richmond.

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 18, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

By order of the Commissioners,

Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, to contract with any person or persons, or any water or other company, or water or other companies, for the supply of the inhabitants of the said parish with water, and to make a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, on the said inhabitants, for defraying the expence thereof, under and subject to certain regulations to be therein prescribed; and also in case the same shall be expedient to enable the said Vestrymen to supply the said inhabitants with water by engines, reservoirs, wells, pumps, pipes, and other works, leading through or being in the several streets, squares, lanes, passages, and public places, in the said parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, and to communicate with the River Thames, by a pipe or pipes, through the several parishes of Saint Luke, Chelsea, and Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Saint George, Hanover-Square, Saint John the Evangelist, and Saint Margaret, in the city and liberty of Westminster and county of Middlesex, and Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, or any of them; and also to make a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, on the said inhabitants for defraying the expence of the same, under and subjects to certain regulations to be therein prescribed; and also for the better protection of the pavements of the said parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone.—Dated this 4th day of August 1821.

James Hugo Greenwell, Clerk to the Vestrymen of Saint Mary-le-Bone.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament to remove any doubts which may exist as to the several or any of the chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, called Lincoln's-Inn, Lincoln's-Inn-Old-Square, Lincoln's-Inn-Old-Buildings, Serle's-Court, Lincoln's-Inn-New-Square, the Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn, Lincoln's-Inn-Gardens, and all other buildings and premises, situate in or forming any part of Lincoln's-Inn, in the county of Middlesex; and also as to the several or any of the chambers, lands, tenements, and premises, called Furnival's-Inn, situate in the said county of Middlesex, or in the city of London, being or forming part of any parish or parishes, liberty or liberties, and as to the occupiers of such chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, or any of them, being liable to the payment of any rate or rates for the relief or maintenance of the poor, or for watching, lighting, paving, or any other rate or rates which may be assessed or made in any parish or parishes, liberty or liberties, or being liable to serve any office or offices, in any parish or parishes, liberty or liberties, by reason of being occupiers of such chambers, lands, tenements, and premises, and to declare exempt, or to exempt all the said chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, and the owners and occupiers thereof, or some of them, from the payment of such rate or rates, and the said occupiers from the service of such office or offices, and to permit, authorise, or empower the Honourable Society of Lincoln's-Inn and the owners and occupiers of the said chambers, lands, tenements, and premises, to provide for the relief and maintenance of the poor, and for the watching, lighting, and paving and maintaining of the several squares, courts, roads, paths, and passages, within the limits of the said premises, in the same manner as the said Society and the former owners and occupiers of chambers and buildings in Lincoln's-Inn and Furnival's-Inn, have usually provided for the same, or in such other manner as to Parliament may seem meet.—September 15, 1821.

By order of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's-Inn.

Wm. Green, Salisbury-Square, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for the better paving and sewage of the town and parish of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and for raising rates for that purpose.

Wm. Statham, Town Clerk.

Edw. Blackstock, Clerk to the Surveyors of the Highways, &c.

Liverpool, September 8, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Ber-mondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also of an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of the twenty-sixth year of His present Majesty for making and keeping in repair certain roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads;" and also the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend and amend the powers of three Acts of His present Majesty's reign for building the Waterloo Bridge and making roads communicating therewith, and to authorise the relinquishment of the repairing, lighting and watching of the roads on the south side of the bridge to the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, acting under two several Acts of His present Majesty's reign for making, widening and keeping in repair certain roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said roads," so far as the powers and provisions of the last mentioned Act relate to the repairing, managing, watching and lighting of the roads by the same Act authorised to be relinquished, and which said several roads pass through the said several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the said County of Surrey. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, an increase and alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said Acts, or one of them, to be collected; and also a toll or tolls in addition thereto to defray the expence of watering the said several roads is or are intended to be proposed: and notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, provision is intended to be made for raising money beyond the said several tolls by a proportionate rate or assessment upon the several owners or occupiers of premises adjoining or near to the said several roads towards defraying the expence of watching and lighting the said roads: and notice is hereby also given, that provision is intended to be made in the said Bill for altering and diverting the course of part of the said roads, that is to say, the road called the Lambeth-Road, leading from the Obelisk, in Saint George's Fields, to or towards the land or grounds on which the house and gardens known by the name or sign of the Dog and Duck heretofore stood, by forming the said road from Crescent-Place, in Lambeth-Road aforesaid, rather more to the south east, to join and communicate with another part of the said road opposite or nearly opposite to the front of the New Bethlehem Hospital, in the parish of Saint George, Southwark, and county of Surrey aforesaid.—Dated this 19th day of September 1821.

By order,

Sam. Welchman, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a turnpike road from Peckham, in the parish of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, to the Kent-Road, in the same parish and county, the whole of which said intended road is within the said parish and county; and for making and maintaining all necessary footpaths, sewers, drains, and bridges thereto, particularly a bridge over the Grand Surrey Canal, with approaches thereto, and levying tolls; and for lighting and watching Bowyer-lane and the New Road from Kennington to Camberwell, in the several parishes of Lambeth and Camberwell, in the said county of Surrey, and other roads, streets, and places within the said parish of Camberwell, not already lighted or watched under any existing Act or Acts of Parliament.—September 6, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for leave to bring in a bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, watering and watching such streets and other public places within that part of the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, which lies on the north and south sides of the New-Road leading from Paddington to Islington, called Somer's Town, and is now actually leased to Jacob Leroux, Esq., for building upon, or that may be hereafter leased for the like purpose; and for preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," and in which said bill, provision is intended to be made for altering and increasing certain rates and duties authorised to be levied by the said Act.—Dated the 15th day of September, 1821.

Denton and Barker, Solicitors, Gray's-Inn-Square.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for paving the several footways and channels of, and also for making, forming and gravelling the several roads, streets, squares, and other public passages and places, on certain pieces of ground and lands in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, commonly called Camden Town, and being part of the Prebendal lands of Cantlowe's, otherwise Cantlers, otherwise Kentish Town, in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, comprised in the lease granted by the Rev. Thomas Randolph, Prebendary of the said Prebend, to the Right Honourable Richard Earl Lucan, and Edward Cooke, Esq. Trustees named and appointed by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of the late King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enabling the Prebendary of Cantlowe's, in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, to grant a lease, with powers of renewal, of the Prebendal lands of Kentish Town in the county of Middlesex;" and also for wise improving and keeping in repair the said roads, streets, squares, and other public passages and places.—Dated this 15th day of September 1821.

Denton and Barker, Solicitors, Gray's-Inn-Square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, enlarge, alter, explain, and amend the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and for authority for the Trustees of the said docks to build additional graving or repairing docks at the north end of the town and parish of Liverpool; and also to build and provide basins, slips, piers, and other accommodations in the said town and parish of Liverpool for vessels, ferry and other boats and craft navigated by steam or otherwise; and for authority to charge a tonnage or other rate upon such vessels, boats, and craft for the use of the same accommodations; and for power to make additional laws, rules, and regulations for the management of all such vessels, and of the ferry and all other boats and craft plying for hire upon the River Mersey; and also for the regulation of all porters and other persons attending and plying for hire at the stairs, slips, piers, or basins now established, or hereafter to be made within the port of Liverpool, or at packets or other vessels arriving at or departing from Liverpool; and for further powers for the regulation and removal of vessels in the docks or basins; and for authority to Justices of the Peace to award compensation for damage done to vessels in the port of Liverpool, or in the docks or basins, or to the floating-light-vessel, or to any of the buoys, mooring-chains, or marks in the said docks or harbour of Liverpool, or the tackle belonging to the same; and also for power to fix certain rates or remuneration for riggers and boatmen, and others attending vessels in the River Mersey and in the said docks, and for taking up anchors, and to authorise Justices to settle disputes concerning the same; and for authority to regulate returns for over entries of goods at the Dock-Office, and the time within which the same may be made; and also to make further regulations for the transfers of assignments of the rates and duties granted by the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, by registering the same at the Dock-Office; and for empowering the said Trustees to raise the further sum of £200,000, for carrying into effect the said several works and other improvements in the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and also for authority to light and maintain out of the present light dues, a light-house, to be erected by the Corporation of Liverpool near the Rock Point, at the north west entrance of the River Mersey, in the port of Liverpool; and for power to establish a communication by telegraph or otherwise with the port of Liverpool, either from Holyhead in Anglesea, or Hoylake in Cheshire, as may be most expedient; and for authority to purchase and pay for, or to rent and hire such lands, houses, or buildings as may be necessary for the same; and for further powers to purchase or rent land near the said docks, in the town and parish of Liverpool aforesaid, for the purpose of depositing timber and other goods until the same are measured and passed by the Revenue Officers; and also for powers to make bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the manner of using the same, with authority to receive a rent, or to fix and receive a rate or other charge for the use thereof; and also for further provisions for the more effectual punishment of pilfering upon the docks' quays; and generally to amend and render more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and to make such further regulations, and to give such further powers as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid.—September 13, 1821.

Thomas Foster, Solicitor to the said Trustees.
