

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Worcester, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on the celebration of that august solemnity which confirms the bond of union between your Majesty and a free and happy people.

We desire to express our thanks to your Majesty for having thus pledged yourself to the maintenance of those venerated laws under which this kingdom has attained so high a pitch of glory and happiness, and which it is our earnest wish to unite with your Majesty in transmitting unimpaired to posterity.

We are sensible that your Majesty's just and equal attachment to the prerogative of the Crown and the rights of the people, affords the surest pledge of the continuance of those blessings which this kingdom has so long enjoyed; and under this conviction we earnestly hope that your Majesty's reign may be of long duration, contributing alike to your own glory and the happiness of your people.

Given under our common seal, this 27th day of August, and in the year of our Lord 1821.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Coventry.]

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on occasion of the august ceremony in which your Majesty has received the imperial Crown of these realms.

Permit us, Sire, to express the satisfaction we experience from your Majesty having thus solemnly recognized and promised to maintain that Constitution and those Laws which are so justly dear to your Majesty's subjects, which have so long been the source of happiness and glory to the Monarch and the people of these realms, and which, under your Majesty's gracious protection, it will be our pride and pleasure to support and obey.

We further beg leave to renew our assurances of attachment to your Majesty's royal Person and illustrious House, and to offer our fervent prayer that Almighty God will vouchsafe to your Majesty a long and truly glorious reign, distinguished by the blessings of peace, by the extension and diffusion of valuable knowledge, by the improvement of the arts and sciences, of agriculture, manufactures, and commerce, as well as by the cordial union and firm allegiance of all your Majesty's faithful subjects.

For and in behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham,
G. F. Muntz, High Bailiff.

[Transmitted by G. F. Muntz, High Bailiff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Apothecaries or Guild of Saint Luke Dublin, have ever felt the blest advantage of addressing the royal ear, and of impressing on our Monarch's mind the undeviating loyalty that swells and warms our breasts. On this occasion, Sire, this blessing is far enhanced to us by your gracious condescension in visiting this part of your Majesty's Dominions.

We implore your Majesty to accept the homage of our heartfelt gratitude and deep devotion for this transcendent mark of royal favour.

And that Divine Providence may long continue to us the happy reign of your Majesty, and endow you, Royal Sir, with every blessing; will ever be the fervent prayer of your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

In testimony whereof the common seal of said Guild is hereunto affixed.

Richard Barker, Master.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Perth, in Scotland, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and the other Members of the Town Council of the City of Perth, in Council assembled, humbly beg permission to approach the Throne with our cordial and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation as the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland. We have beheld with peculiar pleasure the great ability displayed by your Majesty for holding the reins of Government, and we look forward with hope and confidence to your future reign as distinguished by your patriotic attention to the Laws and Constitution of these kingdoms.

Permit us to offer our strongest assurances of unalterable attachment to your sacred Person and Government, and to pledge ourselves that nothing shall be wanting on our part to cultivate among all under our influence such sentiments as become faithful and loyal subjects.

That your Majesty enjoy a long and prosperous reign over a powerful, free and loyal people, and that a descendent of the illustrious House of Brunswick to the latest posterity may sit upon the Throne of this Great Empire is our fervent prayer.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council, by me, Lord Provost of the city and royal Burgh of Perth, this 18th day of August 1821, and the city seal appended.

Robert Ross.
