

Carlton-House, September 17, 1821.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on Richard Birnie, Esq Chief Magistrate at the Public Office, Bow-street.

Whitehall, September 25, 1821.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Rear-Admiral Sir John-Poo Beresford, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insigia of a Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which His Majesty the King of Portugal hath been pleased to confer upon that Officer, in testimony of his distinguished services before the enemy:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Commissions in the Derbyshire Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Derby.

Cornet William Smith to be Lieutenant. Dated 17th September 1821.

Cornet John Webb to be ditto, vice Balguy, resigned. Dated as above.

Charles Arkwright, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Webb, promoted. Dated as above.

John Henry Smith, Gent. to be ditto, vice Smith, promoted. Dated as above.

Whitehall, September 15, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a great body of men, to the number of fifty or more, armed with pistols, cutlasses, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea shore at Marsh Bay, near Margate, about two o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 2d of September instant, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of foreign spirits and other prohibited and uncustomed goods, and who, on being opposed by an Officer and several seamen belonging to His Majesty's ship Severn, employed on the preventive service, maliciously and feloniously attacked and fired at them, and severely wounded the Officer and one of the seamen;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders (except the person or persons who actually wounded the said Officer and seaman), who shall discover his or their accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 10th ultimo, as Mr. Nathaniel Wild, of No. 6, Crescent, Union-Street, Whitechapel, was returning home, he was violently assaulted by some evil-disposed person or persons, with a view to committing a robbery upon his person, from the effects of which he expired in about two hours afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the assault), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. James Harris, No. 19, Whitechapel.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 3d instant, a riotous mob assembled at Queenborough, in the county of Kent, and broke open the gaol of the said borough, from whence they rescued a prisoner, named James Gaskin, confined therein for want of sureties;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Justices of the said borough, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
