

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 15th day of August last, Paul Armstrong, late of the township of Cotherton, in the north riding of the county of York, labourer; Thomas Lowe and John Currah, both of St. John's Chapel, in the county of Durham, miners, with divers other persons, to the number of forty, armed with guns, unlawfully and tumultuously assembled on certain moors in the parish of Grinton, in the said riding, with an intention mutually to assist each other by force against the authority of the law; and the said Paul Armstrong did threaten to take away the life of one Simon Peacock; and that the said Paul Armstrong also stands charged with divers crimes and misdemeanors, and divers warrants have been from time to time issued for his apprehension, which it hath hitherto been found impracticable to execute; and the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah have absconded; and that, on Thursday the 9th day of the said month of August, three persons, armed with fire arms, and one of them having his face blacked and being otherwise disguised, did assemble and appear upon an open heath or common, called Egleston Common, in the said county of Durham, contrary to the Statute in that case made and provided;

His Majesty, for the better bringing to justice the said offenders, doth hereby offer His most gracious pardon to any one of the persons so unlawfully and tumultuously assembled in the said parish of Grinton, on the 15th day of August last (except the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of them, the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah, or either of them; and also to any one of the three persons so assembled on Egleston Common aforesaid, on the said 9th day of August last (except the man in disguise), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said man in disguise.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall apprehend the said Paul Armstrong, and lodge him in any of His Majesty's gaols; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered to any person who shall apprehend the said person who so appeared armed and disguised on Egleston-Common, and lodge him in any of His Majesty's gaols, so that the said parties respectively may be dealt with according to law.—The above rewards to be paid immediately after the parties are lodged in gaol by Mr. Wheldon, Solicitor, at Barnard Castle, and Mr. Tomlin, Solicitor, at Richmond.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, to contract with any person or persons, or any water or other company, or water or other companies, for the supply of the inhabitants of the said parish with water, and to make a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, on the said inhabitants, for defraying the expence thereof, under and subject to certain regulations to be therein prescribed; and also in case the same shall be expedient to enable the said Vestrymen to supply the said inhabitants with water by engines, reservoirs, wells, pumps, pipes, and other works, leading through or being in the several streets, squares, lanes, passages, and public places, in the said parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, and to communicate with the River Thames, by a pipe or pipes, through the several parishes of Saint Luke, Chelsea, and Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Saint George, Hanover-Square, Saint John the Evangelist, and Saint Margaret, in the city and liberty of Westminster and county of Middlesex, and Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, or any of them; and also to make a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, on the said inhabitants for defraying the expence of the same, under and subjects to certain regulations to be therein prescribed; and also for the better protection of the pavements of the said parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone.—Dated this 4th day of August 1821.

James Hugo Greenwell, Clerk to the Vestrymen of Saint Mary-le-Bone.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament to remove any doubts which may exist as to the several or any of the chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, called Lincoln's-Inn, Lincoln's-Inn-Old-Square, Lincoln's-Inn-Old-Buildings, Serle's-Court, Lincoln's-Inn-New-Square, the Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn, Lincoln's-Inn-Gardens, and all other buildings and premises, situate in or forming any part of Lincoln's-Inn, in the county of Middlesex; and also as to the several or any of the chambers, lands, tenements, and premises, called Furnival's-Inn, situate in the said county of Middlesex, or in the city of London, being or forming part of any parish or parishes, liberty or liberties, and as to the occupiers of such chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, or any of them, being liable to the payment of any rate or rates for the relief or maintenance of the poor, or for watching, lighting, paving, or any other rate or rates which may be assessed or made in any parish or parishes, liberty or liberties, or being liable to serve any office or offices, in any parish or parishes, liberty or liberties, by reason of being occupiers of such chambers, lands, tenements, and premises, and to declare exempt, or to exempt all the said chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, and the owners and occupiers thereof, or some of them, from the payment of such rate or rates, and the said occupiers from the service of such office or offices, and to permit, authorise, or empower the Honourable Society of Lincoln's-Inn and the owners and occupiers of the said chambers, lands, tenements, and premises, to pro-
