Hague, Nov. 27. The 25th Instant the States of Holland were again compleatly assembled, his Highness the Prince of Orange being present in their Assembly. Our Letters from France give us an account, That the Swedish Minister at that Court having, in a late Audienc^e he had of the King, pressed his Majesty to give order for the Payment of the Arrears of Subsidies due from his Majesty to the Crown of Sweden, the King had Answered, That he had a General Discharge from the King of Sweden; which the said Minister seeming surprized at, the King had added he would shew it him, and then took out of his Pocket the Copy of the Alliance lately concluded between the Emperor and the King of Sweden.

Paris, Nov. 25. The last Week the Marquis de Boufflers, upon an Order he received from the King, parted from hence in great haste, and it's said is gone for Luxembourg: and we are informed that Orders have been sent to the French Troops in those Quarters to take the same Posts they had during the Blockade of Luxembourg the last year, and that the Inhabitants of the County of Chimay have been forbid upon very severe Penalties to carry any Provisions to Luxembourg. At Thoulon four Men of War are fitting out, who are to relieve the Ships commanded by the Chevalier de Lery, which Monsieur du Quesne left before Argiers.

London, November 22. On Sunday Night a dreadfull Fire broke out in Cinnamon-Lane in Wapping, occasioned by the carelessness of an idle Fellow, which burnt so furiously, the Wind blowing very hard at South West, that notwithstanding the great Care and extraordinary Endeavours that were used, it consumed many hundred Houses, and was not quite overcome and extinguished till Monday at Night.

Whitehal, Novemb. 22. His Grace the Duke of Hamilton, having on the 25th of September last, in a Chapter then held at Whitehal by the Sovereign and six of the Knights Companions, been elected into the Society of the most Noble Order of the Garter; the said Election was signified to him by the Chancellor of the Garter. On the second Instant, his Grace arrived here from Scotland, and on the 4th in a Chapter held at Whitehal, having first received the Honour of Knighthood, he was invested with the Garter and Lesser George; and Yesterday he was honourably Installed at Windsor, the Duke of Ormond and the Duke of Grafton being the Sovereigns Commissioners for the performance of that Ceremony, and the Duke of Richmond, the Earl of Darby, the Earl of Denbeigh, with divers other Persons of great Honour, assisting therat; who were afterwards most nobly entertained at a great and splendid Feast.
