TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1821.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council this day declaring His intention of going out of the kingdom for a short time, was pleased to nominate the following persons to be Lords Justices for the administration of the Government during His Majesty's absence :

His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York,
Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury,
John Earl of Eldon, Lord Chancellor,
Dudley Earl of Harrowby, Lord President,
John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Privy Seal,
James Duke of Montrose, Master of the Horse,
Arthur Duke of Wellington, Master-General of the Ordnance,
Charles Ingoldsby Marquis of Winchester, Groom of the Stole,
George James Marquis Cholmondeley, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household,
Robert Marquis of Londonderry, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
Henry Earl Bathurst, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
Charles Chetwynd Talbot Earl Talbot, Lieutenant-General and General Governor of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland,
Robert Banks Earl of Liverpool, First Commissioner of the Treasury,
Robert Viscount Melville, First Commissioner of the Admiralty,
Henry Viscount Sidmouth, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
William Lord Maryborough, Master of the Mint,
The Right Honourable Nicholas Vansittart, Chancellor of the Exchequer,
The Right Honourable Charles Bathurst, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster; and
The Right Honourable Frederick John Robinson, Treasurer of the Navy.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the twentieth day of this instant September to Thursday the twenty-ninth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

A New Great Seal for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having been prepared by His Majesty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in pursuance of a warrant to him for that purpose, under His Majesty's Royal Signature; and the same having been this day presented to His Majesty, and the old Great Seal being delivered up to His Majesty by the Right Honourable John Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the same was defaced in His Majesty's presence; and His Majesty was thereupon pleased to deliver to his Lordship the said new Seal, and to direct that the same shall be made use of for sealing all things whatever which pass the Great Seal.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by-and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war:

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases: His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His

Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest. { Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest.

To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong. { One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows,

To the officer commanding the party, two shares.

To each of the other officers, one share.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with. Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of June 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the seventh of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, loops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 10th ultimo, as Mr. Nathaniel Wild, of No. 6, Crescent, Union-Street, Whitechapel, was returning home, he was violently assaulted by some evil-disposed person or persons, with a view to committing a robbery upon his person, from the effects of which he expired in about two hours afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the assault), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. James Harris, No. 19, Whitechapel.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 3d instant, a riotous mob assembled at Queenborough, in the county of Kent, and broke open the gaol of the said borough, from whence they rescued a prisoner, named James Gaskin, confined therein for want of sureties;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Justices of the said borough, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 15th day of August last, Paul Armstrong, late of the township of Cotherston, in the north riding of the county of York, labourer; Thomas Lowe and John Currah, both of St. John's Chapel, in the county of Durham, miners, with divers other persons, to the number of forty, armed with guns, unlawfully and tumultuously assembled on certain moors in the parish of Grinton, in the said riding, with an intention mutually to assist each other by force against the authority of the law; and the said Paul Armstrong did threaten to take away the life of one Simon Peacock; and that the said Paul Armstrong also stands charged with divers crimes and misdemeanors, and divers warrants have been from time to time issued for his apprehension, which it hath hitherto been found impracticable to execute; and the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah have absconded; and that, on Thursday the 9th day of the said month of August, three persons, armed with fire arms, and one of them having his face blacked and being otherwise disguised, did assemble and appear upon an open heath or common, called Egleston Common, in the said county of Durham, contrary to the Statute in that case made and provided;

His Majesty, for the better bringing to justice the said offenders, doth hereby offer His most gracious pardon to any one of the persons so unlawfully and tumultuously assembled in the said parish of Grinton, on the 15th day of August last (except the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of them, the said Paul Armstrong, Thomas Lowe, and John Currah, or either of them; and also to any one of the three persons so assembled on Egleston Common aforesaid, on the said 9th day of August last (except the man in disguise), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said man in disguise.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall apprehend the said Paul Armstrong, and lodge him in any of His Majesty's gaols; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered to any person who shall apprehend the said person who so appeared armed and disguised on Egleston-Common, and lodge him in any of His Majesty's gaols, so that the said parties respectively may be dealt with according to law.—The above rewards to be paid immediately after the parties are lodged in gaol by Mr. Wheldon, Solicitor, at Barnard Castle, and Mr. Tomlin, Solicitor, at Richmond.

Notice is hereby given, that a final dividend of the estate and effects of Joseph Fisher, late of Denton-Holme, near the City of Carlisle, Dyer, will be made at the dwelling-house of Mr. Ralph Holmes, the King's Arms, in the said City of Carlisle, on Thursday the 25th day of October instant, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon.—The Creditors, whose debts have not been already allowed, are requested to render the particulars of the same, with the vouchers (if any) to Mr. Francis Story, at the Bank of Messrs. Forster, Carlisle, otherwise they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend.

LITTLE WOODHOUSE, IN LEEDS, AND HUNSLET.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt against Messrs. Coupland, at the house of Mrs. Greaves, the Hotel, in Leeds, on Monday the 29th day of October 1821, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon, in the following lots;

The following valuable freehold mills and estates, desirably situate at Little Woodhouse and Hunslet, near Leeds:—

Little Woodhouse.

Lot 1. A capital messuage or dwelling-house, with the wash-house, or brewhouse, near thereto, and also the lawn in front, and two gardens, and a plot of land, as staked out, lying on the east and north east sides of the said messuage; the whole containing 1A. 3R. 2P. and in the occupation of Mr. Atkinson.

Lot 2. Another capital messuage or dwelling-house, with the lawn in front and gardens adjoining, and an entire yard.

behind the same, with the stables and other conveniences therein, in the occupation of Mr. George Thackrey; and all those other stables, coach-house, and other convenient out-buildings adjoining westward upon the said back-yard, in the occupation of Mr. Atkinson; and a parcel of land, being part of the field lying behind the said messuage, as now staked out, in the occupation of Mr. Edward Baines; the whole containing 1A. 3R. 21P.

Lot 3. Part of two closes of land, as staked out, adjoining westward upon the last lot, and containing 2A.

Lot 4. Other part of the same closes, as staked out, adjoining westward upon lot 3, and containing 2A. 1R. 0P.

Lot 5. Part of two other closes, as also staked out, with the reservoir and summer-house standing therein, adjoining westward upon lot 4, and containing 2A. 1R. 0P.

Lot 6. Another parcel of land, as staked out, adjoining westward upon lot 5, and containing 2A. 1R. 0P.

Lot 7. Another parcel of land, as staked out, adjoining westward upon lot 6, and containing 2A. 1R. 20P.

Lot 8. Another parcel of land, as staked out, adjoining westward upon the last lot, and containing 2A. 1R. 0P.

N. B. The whole of the above estate is pleasantly situated, and adjoins upon the road leading between Little Woodhouse and Woodhouse-Moor; and the six last mentioned lots are most desirable situations for building upon.

Hunslet.

Lot 1. All that mill, occupied by Mr. John Good as a scribbling and fulling-mill, being three stories and attic high, 13 yards in length and 12 yards in breadth within the walls, or thereabouts, situate on the banks of the River Aire, with the counting-house, dye-house, dry-house, press-shop, and warehouses adjoining, or near thereto; and a piece of ground, used as a tenter garth, together with a steam engine in the mill of 16 horses power, two boilers, eight iron shafts, two fallers, one driver, pillars, drums, and going-geer, thereto belonging.

Also all those two messuages or dwelling-houses, with a garden, situate within the said tenter garth, one of them in the occupation of Mr. John Good, and the other of Joseph Roberts.

This lot is bounded on the north by Mr. Farrar's estate, on the east by the River Aire and a small part of lot 2, on the south by lot 2, and on the west by the turnpike road from Leeds to Wakefield, and contains in the whole 4624 square yards, or thereabouts.

The owner of lot 2 is to have a right of foot, horse, and carriage road, for all purposes, over the south side of this lot, as marked on the plan.

Lot 2. All that other mill on the banks of the River Aire, now or late occupied by Messrs. Coupland as a cotton-mill, being four stories and attic high, 123 feet in length, and 29 feet in breadth, within the walls, and exclusive of the engine-house, with the counting-house, gass-house, shops, warehouse, and other outbuildings, yard, and vacant ground thereto adjoining and belonging; together with a steam engine in the mill of 40 horses power, two boilers, and the shafts, pillars, drums, and going-geer, thereto belonging.

Also four cottages, situate within the yard, and adjoining the turnpike road from Leeds to Wakefield, now in the occupation of William Clabor, Thomas Thackrah, John Parker, and Thomas Procter.

This lot is bounded on the north by lot 1, on the east by the River Aire, on the south and part of the west by lot 3, and on the remainder of the west by the turnpike road from Leeds to Wakefield, and contains in the whole 2663 square yards, or thereabouts.

This lot has a right of road over the south side of lot 1, as above-mentioned.

Lot 3. All that other mill, situate between the Leeds and Wakefield turnpike road and the River Aire, now or late also occupied by Messrs. Coupland as a cotton-mill, being three stories and attic high, and consisting of two buildings adjoining each other, one of them 45 feet and a half in length, and 25 feet and a half in breadth, within the walls, and the other of them 53 feet and a half in length, and 27 feet in breadth, with the shop, warehouse, stable, yard, and vacant ground, adjoining thereto; together with a steam engine in the mill, of 16 horses power, and one boiler, and the pillars, shafts, drums, and going-geer, belonging thereto.

Also all that messuage or dwelling-house, immediately adjoining to the last mentioned mill, and lying between it and the River Aire, now occupied by Messrs. Coupland, and suitable for a respectable family.

Also two cottages adjoining the turnpike road from Leeds to Wakefield, and now in the occupations of William Edmondson and Jonathan Scott.

This lot is bounded on the north west by lot 2, on the north east by the River Aire, and on the south and south east by a beck running into the River Aire, and by the turnpike road leading from Leeds to Wakefield, and contains in the whole 2137 square yards, or thereabouts.

Lot 4. All that close of land, in Hunslet aforesaid, situate on the west side of the turnpike road, between Leeds and Wakefield, containing 3A. or thereabouts, known by the name of Lucy Close, or East Close, in the possession of Messrs. Coupland.

N. B. The purchaser of each lot at Hunslet will have the option of taking the machinery in the mill belonging to such lot, as it now stands, at a fair valuation.

Plans of all the above lots may be seen at the New's-Rooms, the Hotel, the White Horse, the Bull and Mouth, and the Golden Lion, all in Leeds; and at the Offices of Messrs. Tottie, Richardson, and Gaunt; Messrs. Atkinson, Bolland, and Atkinson, and Messrs. Coupland and Shaw, also in Leeds, where any further information may be had.

To view the lands at Little Woodhouse application may be made to Mr. William Holmes, of the Leylands; and to view the premises at Hunslet application may be made to Messrs. Coupland, at those premises.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to define the objectives and goals of the project. This helps to clarify what needs to be achieved and provides a clear direction for the team.

3. The third step is to develop a plan or strategy to address the problem. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources needed to complete each task.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the strategy into action and monitoring progress to ensure that the project is on track.

5. The final step is to evaluate the results of the project. This involves assessing the outcomes against the objectives and goals and identifying any areas for improvement.
