SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1821.

Whitehall, October 6, 1821.

THE King arrived at Brussels on Thursday the 27th of last month, in good health. His Majesty left that city on Monday morning the 1st instant, accompanied by the Duke of Wellington and the Earl of Clancarty; and after visiting the Fields of Waterloo, slept at Sombref that night.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the joyful event of your Majesty's Coronation.

We are the more forward in repeating our professions of allegiance to your Majesty, both personally and politically, because we are sensible that this solemn recognition of the duties of a paternal and constitutional Sovereign, in compliance with forms rendered venerable by antiquity and sanctified by the solemn rites of religion, is calculated to confirm the fidelity of the good, and to renew a right spirit in the breasts of those (few we trust in number) whose attachment to our happy institutions, in Church and State, has been shaken by the arts of disaffection or infidelity.

And when we contemplate the wisdom of your Majesty's determination (in spite of efforts ever to be remembered with disapprobation and pity) to complete your public and sacred engagements for governing your people according to the Statutes of Parliament and the laws and customs of the kingdom, for causing law and justice in mercy to be executed, and for maintaining the laws of God, the true profession of the Gospel and the Protestant reformed Religion established by the law, we cannot but exult in this additional proof of your Majesty's devotion to our free and invaluable Constitution; which has for ages triumphed over all attacks, whether avowed openly, or concealed under the specious pretence of promoting public liberty.

That this Constitution may long flourish the safeguard, at once of the Prince and of the people, and the admiration of the world, is the sincere and ardent prayer of every true and loyal subject of a benevolent and gracious Monarch.

Given under our common seal, at our Guildhall, the 9th day of August 1821,

J. G. Fisher, Mayor.

[Transmitted by J. G. Fisher, Esq. Mayor.]

To His Most Gracious Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loving subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Narbeth, and its Vicinity, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's late arrival in this part of the Principality; and we beg leave to assure your Majesty that you have not, in the whole range of your dominions, a people more loyal or more devoted to their Prince and Sovereign.

Your sudden and unexpected appearance amongst us, rendered it impossible by outward demonstration to evince that heartfelt love we bore for your Majesty; and your condescending manners in your passage through this Town, has (if possible) rendered us more devoted and more united than we were before.

We beg to assure your Majesty that no efforts of ours shall be wanting to secure the peace and prosperity of the kingdom.

We pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and happy, and that the remembrance of George the Fourth may be long cherished by every honest Welshman.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving, as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of February 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Memorial from the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, in the words following, viz.

"WHEREAS by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole;" and by another Act of the present session of Parliament, to amend the said Act, it is provided, that for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; we, the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, may by our Memorial propose to your Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Northern Coast of North America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 113 degrees of West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; but has not arrived Northward, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81 degrees of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Majesty's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Majesty may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the said Acts:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of your Majesty's subjects, or to your Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle, a further sum of - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage, the further sum of - £10,000

2.—To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude - £1,000

To 85°, a further sum of - £1,000

To 87°, a further sum of - £1,000

To 88°, a further sum of - £1,000

To 89°, or beyond, a further sum of - £1,000

And if your Majesty should graciously approve these proposals, we further, with all humility, submit whether your Majesty would not be pleased, by your Order in Council, to revoke, cancel, and annul His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, for the accomplishment of certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and His Majesty doth hereby establish the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

And His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to revoke, cancel, and annul the Order in Council of the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, and the same is hereby revoked, cancelled, and annulled accordingly.
