TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1821.

Whitehall, October 30, 1821.

A DISPATCH from the Marquess of Londonderry, dated Hanover, the 24th instant, was yesterday received by Lord Viscount Sidmouth, announcing that His Majesty's departure from Hanover was postponed to the 29th instant.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council this day declaring His intention of going out of the kingdom for a short time, was pleased to nominate the following persons to be Lords Justices for the administration of the Government during His Majesty's absence :

His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York,
 Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury,
 John Earl of Eldon, Lord Chancellor,
 Dudley Earl of Harrowby, Lord President,
 John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Privy Seal,
 James Duke of Montrose, Master of the Horse,
 Arthur Duke of Wellington, Master-General of the Ordnance,
 Charles Ingoldsby Marquis of Winchester, Groom of the Stole,
 George James Marquis Cholmondeley, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, Robert Marquis of Londonderry, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
 Henry Earl Bathurst, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
 Charles Chetwynd Talbot Earl Talbot, Lieutenant-General and General Governor of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland,
 Robert Banks Earl of Liverpool, First Commissioner of the Treasury,

Robert Viscount Melville, First Commissioner of the Admiralty,
 Henry Viscount Sidmouth, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
 William Lord Maryborough, Master of the Mint,
 The Right Honourable Nicholas Vansittart, Chancellor of the Exchequer,
 The Right Honourable Charles Bathurst, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster; and
 The Right Honourable Frederick John Robinson, Treasurer of the Navy.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the twentieth day of this instant September to Thursday the twenty-ninth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

A New Great Seal for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having been prepared by His Majesty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in pursuance of a warrant to him for that purpose, under His Majesty's Royal Signature; and the same having been this day presented to His Majesty, and the old Great Seal being delivered up to His Majesty by the Right Honourable John Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the same was defaced in His Majesty's presence; and His Majesty was thereupon pleased to deliver to his Lordship the said new Seal, and to direct that the same shall be made use of for sealing all things whatever which pass the Great Seal.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war:

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases: His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no farther; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

- To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest. } Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest.
- To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong. } One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows,
 - To the officer commanding the party, two shares.
 - To each of the other officers, one share.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 21st of March 1821.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Commission in the Northern Regiment of Northumberland Local Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northumberland.

Henry Collingwood, Esq. to be Lieutenant-Colonel-Commandant, vice Orde, resigned. Dated 1st June 1821.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821.

A Valuable piece of freehold land, situate at Ealing, in the County of Middlesex, which will be sold by auction by Mr. J. Balls, at the Bell-Inn, Ealing, on Monday, November 5, 1821, at Twelve o'Clock, by direction of the Assignees of Thomas Playfair (a Bankrupt), and with the consent of the mortgagees.
 This piece of land is situate at Ealing, near the turnpike-road leading from London to Uxbridge, and near the cross-road leading from the London road to Ealing Green, containing by estimation four acres and thirty-two perches, more or less, and now in the occupation of ——— Grace, Esq. as tenant at will, and will be sold in one lot, without the least reserve.
 May be viewed by leave of the tenant; and particulars had at the Bell, Ealing; Messrs Fielder and Bartley, Solicitors, Duke-Street, Grosvenor-Square; Mr. A. H. Burt, Solicitor, No. 2, Field-Court, Gray's-Inn; and of the Auctioneer, 12 and 13, Bird-Street, Manchester-Square, where a plan of the estate may be seen.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Lyne, of Symondley, in the County of Derby, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 19th day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Atkinson, No. 4, Ridgefield, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, to assent to, or dissent from, the said Assignees settling, agreeing, or compounding with any person or persons who claim to have security, by mortgage or otherwise, on the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to authorise the said Assignees if they shall think proper to confirm any such mortgage, and convey all their right and title to the equity of redemption upon such terms and upon such consideration as they shall deem most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the setting aside any such mortgage or claims, or for the recovery of any part the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing with the person or persons, to be named at the said meeting, and alleged to be indebted to the said estate, or in possession of property belonging thereto; or to the agreeing any matter, cause, or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Peter Tyler, of Haddenham, in the County of Bucks, Maltster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 9th day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Green Dragon, in Haddenham, in the said County of Bucks, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the produce of the real estates of the said Bankrupt, devised to him by the will of John Tyler, late of Haddenham aforesaid, Maltster, Wheelwright, and Farmer, his late father, deceased, such of the outstanding debts and legacies of the said John Tyler, the testator, as have not been in any manner satisfied, released, or discharged in preference and priority to any dividend to the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, and applying and disposing of the produce of the said Bankrupt's estates and effects, conformably to the opinion of counsel; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity against the Creditors and Legatees of the said testator or any of them, or defending a suit or suits or other proceedings which may by or on behalf of them or any of them be brought, prosecuted, or instituted against the said Assignees; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who shall have proved their debts on or before the 6th day of November next, under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Dymoke Wells, late of Vincent-Square, in the City of Westminster, but now or late of Friskney, in the County of Lincoln, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 7th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the George Inn, Kingston-upon-Hull, to take into consideration a certain contract made by the said Dymoke Wells with Messrs. Brooks and Dixon, Bankers, London, for the sale to them of certain lands (upon which they have a mortgage), situate at Friskney, Burgh, and Gainthorpe, in the County of Lincoln; and also a certain contract made by the said Bankrupt with George Strafford the elder, George Strafford the younger, Richard William Moxon, and Thomas Lothouse Potter, for the purchase by him of a mill, houses, land, and other hereditaments at Wakefield, in the County of York, part of the said purchase-money having been paid, and which last-mentioned property was charged with two separate sums, secured by mortgage thereon, to two persons, to be named at the meeting, one of whom has taken illegal possession of the said mill, by virtue of a judgment by default in an action of ejectment commenced for the recovery of the other part of the said property only, and has removed the machinery and other effects of the said Bankrupt from the said mill, to the great damage and injury of the same; and also to take into consideration a certain other contract made by the said Bankrupt with Thomas Aitree for the purchase of a piece or parcel of ground at Brighton, in the County of Sussex; and to authorise the Assignees to carry the said three several contracts or any of them into effect, or to cancel all or any of them, or to take such other measures relating thereto as the said Assignees shall think fit; and to authorise the said Assignees particularly to inquire into the nature and validity of the proceedings instituted by such Mortgagee respecting the said mill, and in case such Mortgagee or other person legally liable thereto shall refuse to make such a compensation as the Assignees may think sufficient for the injury and damage sustained by the removal of the machinery and other effects from the said mill, then to authorise and empower the said Assignees to issue proceedings, by action at law or suit in equity or otherwise as they the said Assignees may deem most advisable for recovering possession of the said mill, and for the injury and damage done to the machinery and other effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to authorise the said Assignees to cultivate and manage the said lands at Friskney until the said contract with Messrs. Brooks and Dixon shall be carried into execution or otherwise; and also to take into consideration a certain mortgage granted by the said Bankrupt to the said Messrs. Brooks and Dixon upon property at Battersea Fields, in the County of Surrey, and at Brighton aforesaid, as well as a certain policy of assurance effected on the life of the said Bankrupt at the Amicable Insurance Office, London, by way of collateral security to the said Messrs. Brooks and Dixon, and to authorise the said Assignees to arrange with them respecting the same, or to take such other measures relating thereto as to the said Assignees shall appear most beneficial for the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to take into consideration the best and most effectual mode of disposing of a certain piece of land of the said Bankrupt at Brighton aforesaid, which was intended and planned for the erecting thereon of forty six houses, of which twenty are already built and covered in, but only four of them are completely finished, or to authorise the Assignees to finish and complete all the said houses if they should deem it advantageous for the Bankrupt's estate so to do; and also to take into consideration certain proceedings in Chancery now pending between Lord Hawke, plaintiff, and John Carr and the Bankrupt, defendants, and of the best and most effectual mode of prosecuting the claims and demands of the said Bankrupt against his Lordship, as well for the recovery of the household furniture, plate, books, prints, pictures, and other property, in the dwelling-house of his Lordship at Womersley Park, in the said County of York, and which were assigned to the Bankrupt by a certain bill of sale, to be produced at the meeting, in consideration of a sum of 3900l. paid by the Bankrupt to his Lordship, and which said furniture and other articles, by an injunction issued out of the Court of Chancery, the Bankrupt was restrained from removing or selling, but which are at present under sale at Womersley Park aforesaid, under the authority and by the direction of Lord Hawke's Solicitor, and certain other persons, to be named at the meeting; and also to take into consideration various other transactions between the said Bankrupt and his Lordship, upon which there appears due to the Bankrupt a very considerable balance of money; and to authorise the said Assignees to adopt such measures for impounding the proceeds arising from the sale of the said household furniture and other articles, or to commence proceedings for the recovery of the value thereof, and also for prosecuting or defending any actions or suits; or for the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging all matters now pending or which may hereafter arise between his Lordship and the said Bankrupt or his Assignees, or with the said John Carr and any other person in respect thereof, or in instituting and carrying on any legal or other proceedings which may be necessary for the Assignees to have recourse to for compelling one Richard Simpkin Holmes, or any other person, to produce or give up the books, papers, or any real or personal estate, the property of the said Bankrupt; and also to take into consideration a distress made by the Commissioners of Assessed Taxes upon the machinery of the said Bankrupt at Wakefield, and to confirm and allow the payment of the amount of the said taxes, and the expences attending the said warrant of distress, and to prosecute the said Commissioners or their Collector, or any other person, for making such distress, in case the same shall appear to have been made illegally; and also to take into consideration, and to make particular inquiry as to a certain portion of wood land, part of the Bankrupt's settled estate, at Kexby, in the County of Lincoln, in his own occupation; notice having been served upon the said Bankrupt and his Assignees by certain persons, to be mentioned at the meeting, to give up possession of the same, and to authorise the Assignees to take such legal or other measures; either for retaining or giving up possession of the same, as to them may seem most beneficial for the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to take into consideration certain property of the said Bankrupt, at Witherinsea, in the County of York, in mortgage to certain persons, to be named at the meeting, and a certain advowson or right of presentation to a living at South Ease, in the County of Sussex, in mortgage to certain persons, to be named at the meeting, and property of the said Bankrupt at Wainfleet, in the County of Lincoln, and at Rasper, in the County of Sussex, the title-deeds of which are in pledge to certain persons, to be named at the meeting; and also property at Newhaven, in the County of Sussex, upon which certain persons, to be named at the meeting, claim to have security; and to authorise the Assignees to concur with the mortgagees, or other persons having security upon all or any of the said several last mentioned estates, to sell and dispose of the same, and to redeem the said title-deeds, as they the said Assignees may think most beneficial for the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to empower and authorise the said Assignees to sell and dispose of a certain ship or vessel, called Luck's-All, of Selby, in the County of Lincoln, and to sell and dispose of the real and personal estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and to make any arrangements relating thereto in any way the said Assignees may think beneficial for the said estate; and to authorise the said Assignees to become parties to, and execute all deeds and instruments, in the law necessary and proper for carrying all the said several sales, contracts, agreements, and authorities into effect; and also to sanction and confirm the several sales already made by the said Assignees of the personal estate of the said Bankrupt, and to sanction, confirm, and allow the travelling and other expences of the said Assignees for Journeys taken or to be taken for and on account of the said Bankrupt's estate and affairs, or relating thereto, the same expences to be deducted and retained by the said Assignees out of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise to be recovered by them, in the same manner as other expences under Commissions of Bankruptcy; and to authorise the said Assignees to appoint the said Bankrupt or one or more accountant or accountants and other person or persons to make up and adjust the books, papers, and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and receive the debts due and to become due to his said estate, and to pay and allow to them and every of them such compensation in respect of his or their services as they the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to sanction, confirm, and allow certain payments already made, and the future allowance to be made to the said Bankrupt for his maintenance and support; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or anywise relating thereto; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing as to the same, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
