Whitehall, November 2, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that four heifers, the property of Thomas Young Greet, Esq. Mayor of Queenborough, in the island of Sheppey, have recently died, and there is reason to suppose, that they had been poisoned or otherwise maliciously destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons; and that two other heifers, the property also of the said Thomas Young Greet, are now labouring under similar symptoms; and it has been further represented to their Excellencies, that, on the 21st ultimo, a valuable ram, the property of the said Thomas Young Greet, was found dead, under suspicious circumstances of having been maliciously destroyed;

The Lords Justices, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the offender or offenders, are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who may have actually destroyed any of the said animals), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Young Greet to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, November 3, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that William Carr, late game-keeper to Sir Thomas White, of Wallingwells, in the county of Nottingham, was, early in the morning of Wednesday the 24th ultimo, whilst in the discharge of his duty in Olday-Wood, in the said county, wilfully shot by some person, and severely wounded, and, in consequence of the wounds he received, he has since died;

The Lords Justices, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot the said William Carr), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid on conviction by Henry Gally Knight, Esq. of Firbeck-Hall, near Worksop, in the said county.

Whitehall, November 3, 1821.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador,
