AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council this day declaring His intention of going out of the kingdom for a short time, was pleased to nominate the following persons to be Lords Justices for the administration of the Government during His Majesty's absence :

His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York,
 Charles Lord Archbishop of Canterbury,
 John Earl of Eldon, Lord Chancellor,
 Dudley Earl of Harrowby, Lord President,
 John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Privy Seal,
 James Duke of Montrose, Master of the Horse,
 Arthur Duke of Wellington, Master-General of the Ordnance,
 Charles Ingoldsby Marquis of Winchester, Groom of the Stole,
 George James Marquis Cholmondeley, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household,
 Robert Marquis of Londonderry, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
 Henry Earl Bathurst, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
 Charles Chetwynd Talbot Earl Talbot, Lieutenant-General and General Governor of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland,
 Robert Banks Earl of Liverpool, First Commissioner of the Treasury,
 Robert Viscount Melville, First Commissioner of the Admiralty,
 Henry Viscount Sidmouth, another of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
 William Lord Maryborough, Master of the Mint,
 The Right Honourable Nicholas Vansittart, Chancellor of the Exchequer,
 The Right Honourable Charles Bathurst, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster; and
 The Right Honourable Frederick John Robinson, Treasurer of the Navy.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the twentieth day of this instant September to Thursday the twenty-ninth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

A New Great Seal for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having been prepared by His Majesty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in pursuance of a warrant to him for that purpose, under His Majesty's Royal Signature; and the same having been this day presented to His Majesty, and the old Great Seal being delivered up to His Majesty by the Right Honourable John Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the same was defaced in His Majesty's presence; and His Majesty was thereupon pleased to deliver to his Lordship the said new Seal, and to direct that the same shall be made use of for sealing all things whatever which pass the Great Seal.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to "enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war:

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases: His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

|---|---|--|
| To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest. | } | Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest. |
| To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong. | } | One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows, |
| | | To the officer commanding the party, two shares. |
| | | To each of the other officers, one share. |

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Ensign Charles Brown to be Lieutenant, vice Kinleside, promoted. Dated 28th October 1821

Lewes Troop of Sussex Yeomanry Cavalry.

The Right Honourable Henry Hall, Lord Viscount Gage, to be Cornet, vice Rogers, resigned.
Dated 30th October 1821.

Commission in the Carmarthen Yeomanry Cavalry signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Carmarthen.

John Howell, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Bowen, resigned. Dated 25th October 1821.

Whitehall, November 2, 1821.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices have been pleased, in His Majesty's name, to grant unto John Lucas, of Pockeridge, in the county of Wilts, Esq. Lieutenant in His Majesty's Navy, the royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and from henceforth use the surname of Edridge only:

And also to order, that this concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 2, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that four heifers, the property of Thomas Young Greet, Esq. Mayor of Queenborough, in the island of Sheppey, have recently died, and there is reason to suppose, that they had been poisoned or otherwise maliciously destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons; and that two other heifers, the property also of the said Thomas Young Greet, are now labouring under similar symptoms; and it has been further represented to their Excellencies, that, on the 21st ultimo, a valuable ram, the property of the said Thomas Young Greet, was found dead, under suspicious circumstances of having been maliciously destroyed;

The Lords Justices, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the offender or offenders, are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who may have actually destroyed any of the said animals), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Young Greet to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, November 3, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that William Carr, late game-keeper to Sir Thomas White, of Wallingwells, in the county of Nottingham, was, early in the morning of Wednesday the 24th ultimo, whilst in the discharge of his duty in Olday-Wood, in the said county, wilfully shot by some person, and severely wounded, and, in consequence of the wounds he received, he has since died;

The Lords Justices, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot the said William Carr), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid on conviction by Henry Gally Knight, Esq. of Firbeck-Hall, near Worksop, in the said county.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act :

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

THOMAS BARTRUM, St. Mildred's-Court, Poultry,
Solicitor to the Trust.

All Creditors who have not sent in accounts of their claims on the said trust estate, are requested to forward same to Mr. Bartrum, as above as early as possible.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Patrick Thomson and Charles Andrew Thomson, of Tom's Coffee-House, Cornhill, in the City of London, and also of Northaw, in the County of Herts, Wine Merchants, Dealers, Chapman and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, at the House of Mr. Wadeson, No. 13, King's-Road, Bedford-Row, on Tuesday the 13th day of November instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all and every part of the freehold, copyhold and leasehold estates of the said Bankrupts, either together or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, and if by public auction with liberty to the said Assignees, or any person or persons to be by them appointed on their behalf, to bid for and buy in the same, or any part thereof, at any such auction or auctions, at such price or prices as the Assignees shall think proper, and to re-sell the same at any future auction or auctions, or by private contract, with the like liberty to bid for and buy in the same from time to time as they shall deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees concurring with the mortgagees and other real incumbrancers in disposing of the real estates of the said Bankrupts, either together or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, in such manner as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees in the first place either paying or discharging, out of the monies to arise by such last mentioned sales, as well the principal and interest monies due from the said Bankrupts, or either of them, to any other person or persons who have or claim to have any legal or equitable charges, liens, or incumbrances on such estates by deposit of title deeds or otherwise, or to the said Assignees permitting so much of the monies to arise by such last mentioned sales as shall be sufficient to discharge the said principal and interest monies respectively to be received by such mortgagees or other persons from the purchasers of the same estates; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing to the mortgagees, or such other persons as aforesaid, in satisfaction and discharge of their mortgage debts, claims, liens, charges, and incumbrances the right and equity of redemption of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in such parts of the said estates as may be deemed by them insufficient to satisfy and discharge the principal and interest monies charged thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits, either alone or jointly with the mortgagee of the said Bankrupts' estate at Pontrilas, in Herefordshire, for the purpose of enforcing the specific performance of the contracts entered into by the said Bankrupts with the tenants of the said estate for granting leases thereof, or to the said Assignees either alone or jointly with such mortgagee rescinding and annulling such contracts or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think fit, at the charge of the said Bankrupts' estate, to cultivate and manage the farms belonging to the said Bankrupts' estate, and to sell and dispose of the live and dead stock and crops thereon, and for keeping possession of such farms, stock and crops until the sale or sales, and to pay and allow to such person or persons such salary or wages and other charges and expences as the said Assignees may judge necessary; and also to the said Assignees paying such expences as may be incurred in or about the repairing the messuages or tenements, buildings, hedges, ditches, water-courses, and fences of the said estates, until such sale or sales; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupts' furniture, stock in trade, horses, carts, carriages, implements of agriculture, live and dead stock, crops, timber, and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, and either together or in parcels, on credit or otherwise, and to their accepting from the purchaser or purchasers thereof respectively, such security or securities for the purchase-money or purchase-moneys for the same respectively, and at such date or time as the said Assignees in their discretion shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees postponing or deferring the sale of the said Bankrupts' house, buildings and garden and field occupied by the said Patrick Thomson before his Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any other person or persons, as agent or agents in and about such sale or sales as aforesaid; and to collect, get in and receive the outstanding debts, estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, and to the said Assignees making to such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, or other person or persons, agent or agents so to be employed as aforesaid, such allowance and compensation, either by way of Commission or otherwise, as they the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, instituting, prosecuting and defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity for recovering, enforcing and obtaining payment and delivery of, and protecting the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; and also to the said Assignees compromising, or compounding and giving time for payment and delivery thereof; and to their referring to arbitration or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing touching or relating to the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees consenting to the holders of bills or other securities for debts owing to the Bankrupts' estate, giving to the persons indebted and liable upon such bills and securities time for payment thereof, or to the said holders making such arrangements respecting the same as they may think fit, without prejudice to their claims on the Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the clerks, servants and workmen of the said Bankrupts the full amount of their salaries and wages due at the time of the Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, such articles of household furniture, plate, linen or china as they may think proper; and on other special affairs.
