SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1821.

Whitehall, November 8, 1821.

THE King landed this morning about nine o'clock at Ramsgate, and arrived at Carlton-House this afternoon soon after six, in perfect health.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of September 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the twentieth day of this instant September to Thursday the twenty-ninth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jus. Butler.

Commissions signed by the Vice-Lieutenant of the North Riding of the County of York.

Josias Morley, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 12th May 1821.

Edmund Turton, Esq. to be ditto. Dated as above.

Richmond Forester Yeomanry Cavalry.

John Drumebzier Tweedy, Gent. to be Cornet.
Dated 2d June 1821.

Whitehall, November 7, 1821.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices have been pleased, in His Majesty's name, to grant unto Charles William Packe, of Prestwold, in the county of Leicester, Esq. and Kitty Jenkyn Reading, of Wimpole-street, in the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, spinster, the royal licence and authority, that the said Kitty Jenkyn Reading may, from and after the solemnization of a marriage shortly intended to be had and solemnized between them the said Charles William Packe and Kitty Jenkyn Reading, continue to use the surname of Reading, in addition to and after that of her said intended husband, notwithstanding her said intended coverture;

And also to order, that this concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, November 9, 1821.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Neale, of Reading, in the county of Berks, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 2, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that four heifers, the property of Thomas Young Greet, Esq. Mayor of Queenborough, in the island of Sheppey, have recently died, and there is reason to suppose, that they had been poisoned or otherwise maliciously destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons; and that two other heifers, the property also of the said Thomas Young Greet, are now labouring under similar symptoms; and it has been further represented to their Excellencies, that, on the 21st ultimo, a valuable ram, the property of the said Thomas Young Greet, was found dead, under suspicious circumstances of having been maliciously destroyed;

The Lords Justices, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the offender or offenders, are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who may have actually destroyed any of the said animals), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Young Greet to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, November 3, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that William Carr, late game-keeper to Sir Thomas White, of Wallingwells, in the county of Nottingham, was, early in the morning of Wednesday the 24th ultimo, whilst in the discharge of his duty in Olday-Wood, in the said county, wilfully shot by some person, and severely wounded, and, in consequence of the wounds he received, he has since died;

The Lords Justices, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot the said William Carr), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid on conviction by Henry Gally Knight, Esq. of Firbeck-Hall, near Worksop, in the said county.

Whitehall, November 10, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 6th instant, as Mr. H. P. Curtis, Assistant to the Under Steward of the New Forest, was returning home from Lyndhurst, at which place he had been attending a petty sessions, for the prosecution of two poachers, who had been detected in the said Forest, he was violently assaulted by four men, who rushed upon him from a wood at the road side, and knocked him off his horse, so that he was stunned, and left in a state of insensibility, and suffered a concussion of the brain, and an internal discharge of blood;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Daman, Attorney at Law, Romsey, Hants.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821,

N. VANSITTART.

B. PAGET.

LOWTHER.

Navy-Office, November 10, 1821

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st July to the 30th September 1821, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 12th, 13th, and 14th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 15th, 17th, 19th, 20th, and 21st instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 22d and 24th instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by the Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay; and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of “ His Majesty’s Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;” notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of September 1821, will commence paying on the 12th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. J. W. Morton.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty’s dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
November 9, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Managers and Directors of the Lottery will draw six thousand five hundred tickets, on Tuesday the 20th instant, at Coopers’-Hull, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London. L. Hesse.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR AND KERSEY.

Navy-Office, November 2, 1821.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 15th November instant, at one o’clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty’s Yards at Deptford and Woolwich with

Vinegar and Kersey.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o’clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract for vinegar, and £300, for the due performance of the contract for kersey. J. W. Morton.

CONTRACT FOR YELLOW PINE TIMBER.

Navy-Office, November 6, 1821

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 15th instant, at one o’clock, they will be ready to contract for supplying His Majesty’s Yard at Sheerness with 140 Loads of Yellow Pine Timber, of from 15 to 30 feet in length, and from 12 to 13 inches square, to be delivered by 1st of January next.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o’clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends. G. Smith.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, October 28, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty’s Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Cumberland, Northumberland;

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty’s Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Chester, Essex,
Durham (including Holy Island), Monmouth,
Northumberland;

OATS, to His Majesty’s Cavalry in Cantonments and Quarters, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Cumberland, Durham;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty’s Cavalry in Barracks, and Oats in Cantonments and Quarters, in the undermentioned County,

Ordnance Barracks at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Oats in Northumberland;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of December next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked “Tender for Army Supplies,” will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 27th day of November next; but none will be received after twelve o’clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of ten and four.

P. S. Samples of the bread and meal may be seen at this Office, between the hours of twelve and two.

New Broad-Street, London,
November 6, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account of the money received from the Honourable East India Company, under His Majesty’s royal warrant, for the military stores captured at Tranquebar, on the 28th February 1808, will be delivered into the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, on the 20th instant, agreeably to Act of Parliament.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of Vincent Swift, formerly of Saint James's-Market, in the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, but late of No. 103, Fetter-Lane, London, and a Clerk in the Excise-Office (who died on the 25th day of December 1820), will apply to Mr. James Worthington, No. 3, Mornington-Place, Hampstead-Road, in the County of Middlesex, either personally, or by post paid letter, they may hear of something to their advantage.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

Whereas I the undersigned, by virtue of authority received from His Honour Henry Beard, Esq. President of the Honourable the Courts of Criminal and Civil

Justice of this Colony, dated the 19th January and 20th March 1821, granted upon the petitions presented by H. Stall, qq the heirs of the late William Ord, deceased, plaintiff, against Stephen Mourant, defendant, hare caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the sugar estate called Port Mourant, situated on the Corentyn Coast, within this colony, with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances whatsoever thereto belonging; be it therefore known, that I the undersigned, or the Marshal for the time being, intend to sell at execution sale, after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 2d day of April 1821, the abovementioned estate called Port Mourant, with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances whatsoever thereto belonging and specified in the inventory, laying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those concerned, in order to recover, out of the proceeds of the sale of said estate (if possible) such sum of money for which the same was taken in execution, and put under sequestration: all conformably to the regulations of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated the 20th day of December 1820, respecting the sale of estates by execution therein.

This first proclamation published, by beat of drum, from the Court-House of this Colony, and further dealt with according to law.—Berbice, the 15th April 1821.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Inserted by Mr. GUITARD, Notary, 27, Birchin-Lane, Cornhill.

LEASEHOLD HOUSES, IN MIDDLESEX.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause Blackwell against Vezey and another, before Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, No. 17, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London, on Saturday the 24th day of November instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon;

Two dwelling-houses, numbered 18 and 19, in James-Street, Covent-Garden, which are held under lease for an unexpired term of 21 years from the 25th day of March 1814.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Chambers of the said Master, and of Messrs. Hurd and Johnson, Solicitors, No. 7, King's-Bench-Walk, Temple, who will shew the house No. 19, and the under-tenant will allow the house No 18 to be viewed on application.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Bird against Wood, it is referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who was or were the next of kin of Elizabeth Losh, late of the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, Widow (who died on or about the 30th day of December 1816), the Testatrix in the pleadings named, living at the time of her death, and also who would have been such next of kin at that time if her daughter Mary, the wife of John Thompson, had been dead without issue; and also who was or were the Testatrix's next of kin at the time of the death of her said daughter, and if any such next of kin were dead who was or were their respective personal representatives, and whether any and which of such next of kin, or representatives of such next of kin, were out of the jurisdiction of the said Court.
