AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the twenty-ninth day of this instant November, to Thursday the third day of January next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order, that certain pieces of copper money should be coined, which should be called "farthings," every such piece having for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Georgius IIII, Dei Gratia," and for the reverse the figure of Britannia, represented sitting on a rock in the sea, holding a trident in her left hand and branch of olive in her right hand, with the inscription "Britanniar: Rex: Fid: Def:" and the date of the year: And whereas pieces of copper money of the description aforesaid have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there; We have, therefore, with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby declare, ordain, and command, that all such pieces of copper money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said Kingdom; every such farthing piece as of the value of one farthing of like lawful money: Provided that no person shall be obliged to take more of such pieces, in any one payment, than shall be of the value of six pence.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this fourteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Address, from the British Residents at Saint Petersburg, has been received by the Marquess of Londonderry, K. G. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from the Right Honourable Sir Charles Bagot, G. C. B. His Majesty's Ambassador at that capital, and presented by His Lordship to the King, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Most Gracious Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the British Merchants and others resident in Saint Petersburg and its vicinity, in the Empire of Russia, humbly beg leave to embrace the present opportunity of expressing our sincere and unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The distance by which we are separated from our native country has tended to increase, rather than diminish, the interest which we have felt in the recent solemnities of the 19th of July, when your Majesty, by a public investiture, sanctioned by the sacred ties of religion, received that Crown which the virtues of your Royal Father had so long adorned: That its brightness and splendour will not be atnished in the hands of your Majesty, the unparalleled glory and lofty pre-eminence to which the British empire has been exalted in the scale of nations, during the period that your Majesty, as Prince Regent, conducted the reins of Government, furnish a sufficient pledge and guarantee upon which our hopes for the future may securely rest.

That your Majesty may long continue, under the Divine blessing, to wield the sceptre of your ancestors, and to reign in the hearts of an affectionate and loyal people, upholding by your authority and illustrating by your example, those unalterable principles of the British Constitution, which are the boast of our own country and the admiration of others, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and obedient servants and subjects.

Saint Petersburg, the (16th) 28th
August 1821.

East India-House, November 14, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, having, on the 6th and 18th July last, issued public advertisements, giving notice that measures had been adopted which might lead to the discharge of a large portion of the existing Indian Loans; and that the Court had authorised their Bengal Government to open a new 6 per Cent. Loan in India, to which the then present 6 per Cent Obligations of 1811 would be transferable; and whereas by advices recently received from India, the Court of Directors are informed, that, on the 1st May 1821, the Governor-General in Council at Fort William gave notice, that the Promissory Notes of the Bengal Government standing on the General Register of the Registered Debt of that Presidency, bearing date the 30th June 1811, and numbered 1 to 10,000 inclusive, would be discharged at the General Treasury on Tuesday the 31st July last, on which day the interest thereon would cease; but that any of the Notes advertised for payment would, until further orders, be received in transfer to the New Loan then opened;

And whereas the Court's intention of opening a New Loan in India, as set forth in their before-mentioned advertisements of the 6th and 18th July last, has thus been anticipated by the Bengal Government;

The Court of Directors do hereby give notice, that the measures in contemplation by the Court, and advertised to in their said advertisements of the 6th and 18th July last, are to be considered as entirely void and of none effect.

And whereas in the advertisement published by the Bengal Government, in the Calcutta Gazette on the 1st May last, notice was given, that transfers of the Notes advertised to be paid off to the New Loan were to be received until further orders, and by the 11th clause of the conditions of the New Loan, the accounts of the said Loan are to be closed on the 31st March 1822; and whereas proprietors of the Promissory Notes advertised to be paid off, resident in Europe, may not be enabled to convey instructions to India for the transfer of their property into the New Loan, before the said Loan shall have been closed;

The Court of Directors do hereby give notice, that they have directed their Bengal Government to permit the transfer of all Promissory Notes of the 30th June 1811, to the Loan of the 1st May 1821, which Notes shall be tendered in India on or before the 30th June 1822.

And whereas it appears by the 4th clause of the conditions of the said Loan of the 1st May 1821, that the proprietors of Promissory Notes transferred to that Loan, resident in Europe, might, if they required it, be paid the interest on their Notes up to the 31st December 1821, by Bills on the Court of Directors at twelve months date, and at 2s. 6d. the sicca rupee;

The Court of Directors, in view to the further accommodation of proprietors resident in Europe, do hereby further give notice, that those creditors, bond fide resident in Europe, who shall have transferred, or who shall transfer, in India their bonds of the Loan of 30th June 1811 to the Loan of 1st May 1821, by means of their agents duly authorised, on or before the 30th June next, shall have the option of receiving their interest for another half year, namely, from 31st December 1821 to the 30th June 1822, by Bills on the Court of Directors at twelve months date, and 2s. 6d. the sicca rupee; the Bills to be drawn specifically payable to the absent proprietor or his order, and not to the order of any agent or agents whatsoever: but those absent creditors who shall have required, or who shall require, the payment of the principal of their Obligations of 30th June 1811 in cash, will not be entitled to the extended option of remittance of interest hereby conceded to subscribing absentees; all accruing interest due to them to the period when they may have demanded their principal, shall be paid in cash only at the Treasury in Calcutta.

The Court of Directors do further give notice, that the Notes of absent creditors, who shall omit to signify their intentions, at the Presidency of Fort William, definitively with respect to the Promissory Notes of 30th June 1811, on or before 30th June 1822, will remain without interest from that period.

The Court of Directors have also resolved, that if the Bengal Government shall see no objection to the measure, creditors who have subscribed, or who may hereafter subscribe, to the Loan of 1st May 1821, may, if they think proper, employ the agency of the Accountant-General and Sub-Treasurer at the several Presidencies in India, in procuring the remittance to England of the interest on their Obligations, by means of Bills of Exchange on the Court, to be purchased in the market at the current prices of the day, it being distinctly understood, that no responsibility shall attach to the East India Company for the acts of those Officers, in virtue of the authority which may be thus given to them.

The conditions of the Loan of the 1st May 1821, may be seen by application at the Office of the Accountant-General at this House.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, November 14, 1821.
