To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, are anxious at the earliest possible opportunity to approach the Throne and offer our most sincere and cordial congratulations on your Majesty's safe and happy arrival in your British dominions.

Desirous of evincing the deep interest we take in every circumstance which can tend to confirm attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, as well as veneration for the honour and dignity of your Crown, we can assure you, Sire, that yielding to none in willing and steady allegiance to our King, and in affectionate devotion to your Royal House, we feel in grateful sympathy with every honest heart the fervent effusions of loyalty which your royal presence has excited in every class of your Majesty's subjects during your progress.

We are fully sensible of the many and great blessings which under Divine Providence are secured to us by your Majesty's paternal care, and as we could not but experience considerable solicitude for the arrival of the hour which would bring back to us our beloved Sovereign in health and safety, so we most ardently join in the general joy at your return. The shield of Providence has been over you. Long may your Majesty wield the Imperial Sceptre of these realms, under the Divine Protection; long may you preserve the glory and prosperity of the country, and enjoy the consolation of ruling over a free, loyal and happy people.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer:

"It is with the greatest satisfaction that I receive your congratulations upon my safe return to my British dominions.

"The sentiments of loyalty and affection with which I have been greeted, during my absence from this part of my kingdom, were similar to your own, and to those which I am fully persuaded are entertained by all ranks and descriptions of my faithful subjects throughout the empire.

"The City of London may confidently rely upon my constant favour and protection; and I humbly trust, that a gracious Providence will assist and prosper my earnest endeavours to promote the true interests and happiness of my people."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with all those sentiments of veneration and respect which are implanted in the minds of a faithful and free people, by the blessings which they enjoy under an invaluable Constitution, and by the paternal regard of a revered and illustrious Monarch.

We present ourselves before your Majesty on this occasion, to offer our sincere and hearty congratulations on your Majesty's return to your native country in perfect health and safety; and while we felicitate your Majesty on that spirit of loyalty and affection which has manifested itself in those parts of your Majesty's dominions which you have for the first time recently visited, we feel confident that your Majesty is perfectly assured that the Citizens of London, in common with the people of Great Britain, will yield to none of your Majesty's subjects in zeal for your service, in attachment to your sacred Person, and in a determination to uphold the honour and dignity of your Majesty's Crown.

That the same gracious Providence, which has protected your Majesty throughout your arduous journies, may still preserve you long to reign in the hearts of your loyal and affectionate people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's faithful Citizens of London.

"I receive with the utmost satisfaction this testimony of your feelings upon my safe return to my native country.

Highly gratified, as I am, by the sentiments of loyalty and affection which have been manifested in those parts of my realms which I have recently visited, I am perfectly convinced that the same spirit animates the Citizens of London, and all classes of my faithful people throughout the British dominions.

"You may be fully assured of my determination to maintain inviolate all your rights and privileges, and of the ardent solicitude which I shall ever feel for your welfare and prosperity."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Town Clerk of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, has been presented by His Lordship to the King, and most graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, humbly beg leave to tender to your Majesty (on passing through our town), our duty and homage.

The Town of Gravesend, Sire, has in former reigns, frequently been honoured with the presence of the Sovereign upon the occasion of Royal visits to the Hanoverian dominions; our predecessors had then abundant opportunity of manifesting their loyalty, and they fully availed themselves of it, we regret that our means of doing so in the present instance are necessarily more limited, but, we beg to assure your Majesty, that our devotion is not the less sincere.

We most fervently hope that your Majesty (after a satisfactory visit to the other parts of your dominions), may return in safety and in health, and long continue to reign over a free, a grateful and contented people.

Given under our Corporate seal, this 24th day of September 1821. Evans, Town Clerk.

East India-House, November 14, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, having, on the 6th and 18th July last, issued public advertisements, giving notice that measures had been adopted which might lead to the discharge of a large portion of the existing Indian Loans; and that the Court had authorised their Bengal Government to open a new 6 per Cent. Loan in India, to which the then present 6 per Cent Obligations of 1811 would be transferable; and whereas by advices recently received from India, the Court of Directors are informed, that, on the 1st May 1821, the Governor-General in Council at Fort William gave notice, that the Promissory Notes of the Bengal Government standing on the General Register of the Registered Debt of that Presidency, bearing date the 30th June 1811, and numbered 1 to 10,000 inclusive, would be discharged at the General Treasury on Tuesday the 31st July last, on which day the interest thereon would cease; but that any of the Notes advertised for payment would, until further orders, be received in transfer to the New Loan then opened;

And whereas the Court's intention of opening a New Loan in India, as set forth in their before-mentioned advertisements of the 6th and 18th July last, has thus been anticipated by the Bengal Government;

The Court of Directors do hereby give notice, that the measures in contemplation by the Court, and adverted to in their said advertisements of the 6th and 18th July last, are to be considered as entirely void and of none effect.

And whereas in the advertisement published by the Bengal Government, in the Calcutta Gazette on the 1st May last, notice was given, that transfers of the Notes advertised to be paid off to the New Loan were to be received until further orders, and by the 11th clause of the conditions of the New Loan, the accounts of the said Loan are to be closed on the 31st March 1822; and whereas proprietors of the Promissory Notes advertised to be paid off, resident in Europe, may not be enabled to convey instructions to India for the transfer of their property into the New Loan, before the said Loan shall have been closed;

The Court of Directors do hereby give notice, that they have directed their Bengal Government to permit the transfer of all Promissory Notes of the 30th June 1811, to the Loan of the 1st May 1821, which Notes shall be tendered in India on or before the 30th June 1822.

And whereas it appears by the 4th clause of the conditions of the said Loan of the 1st May 1821, that the proprietors of Promissory Notes transferred to that Loan, resident in Europe, might, if they required it, be paid the interest on their Notes up to the 31st December 1821, by Bills on the Court of Directors at twelve months date, and at 2s. 6d. the sicca rupee;

The Court of Directors, in view to the further accommodation of proprietors resident in Europe, do hereby further give notice, that those creditors, bond fide resident in Europe, who shall have transferred, or who shall transfer, in India their bonds of the Loan of 30th June 1811 to the Loan of 1st May 1821, by means of their agents duly authorised, on or before the 30th June next, shall have the option of receiving their interest for another half year, namely, from 31st December 1821 to the 30th June 1822, by Bills on the Court of Directors at twelve months date, and 2s. 6d. the sicca rupee; the Bills to be drawn specifically payable to the absent proprietor or his order, and not to the order of any agent or agents whatsoever: but those absent creditors who shall have required, or who shall require, the payment of the principal of their Obligations of 30th June 1811 in cash, will not be entitled to the extended option of remittance of interest hereby conceded to subscribing absentees; all accruing interest due to them to the period when they may have demanded their principal, shall be paid in cash only at the Treasury in Calcutta.

The Court of Directors do further give notice, that the Notes of absent creditors, who shall omit to signify their intentions, at the Presidency of Fort William, definitively with respect to the Promissory Notes of 30th June 1811, on or before 30th June 1822, will remain without interest from that period.

The Court of Directors have also resolved, that if the Bengal Government shall see no objection to the measure, creditors who have subscribed, or who may hereafter subscribe, to the Loan of 1st May

No. 17766.

1821, may, if they think proper, employ the agency of the Accountant-General and Sub-Treasurer at the several Presidencies in India, in procuring the remittance to England of the interest on their Obligations, by means of Bills of Exchange on the Court, to be purchased in the market at the current prices of the day, it being distinctly understood, that no responsibility shall attach to the East India Company for the acts of those Officers, in virtue of the authority which may be thus given to them.

The conditions of the Loan of the 1st May 1821, may be seen by application at the Office of the Accountant-General at this House.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.
