TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1821.

Carlton-House, November 16, 1821.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, are anxious at the earliest possible opportunity to approach the Throne and offer our most sincere and cordial congratulations on your Majesty's safe and happy arrival in your British dominions.

Desirous of evincing the deep interest we take in every circumstance which can tend to confirm attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, as well as veneration for the honour and dignity of your Crown, we can assure you, Sire, that yielding to none in willing and steady allegiance to our King, and in affectionate devotion to your Royal House, we feel in grateful sympathy with every honest heart the fervent effusions of loyalty which your royal presence has excited in every class of your Majesty's subjects during your progress.

We are fully sensible of the many and great blessings which under Divine Providence are secured to us by your Majesty's paternal care, and as we could not but experience considerable solicitude for the arrival of the hour which would bring back to us our beloved Sovereign in health and safety, so we most ardently join in the general joy at your return. The shield of Providence has been over you. Long may your Majesty wield the Imperial Sceptre of these realms, under the Divine Protection; long may you preserve the glory and prosperity of the country, and enjoy the consolation of ruling over a free, loyal and happy people.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer:

"It is with the greatest satisfaction that I receive your congratulations upon my safe return to my British dominions.

"The sentiments of loyalty and affection with which I have been greeted, during my absence from this part of my kingdom, were similar to your own, and to those which I am fully persuaded are entertained by all ranks and descriptions of my faithful subjects throughout the empire.

"The City of London may confidently rely upon my constant favour and protection; and I humbly trust, that a gracious Providence will assist and prosper my earnest endeavours to promote the true interests and happiness of my people."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with all those sentiments of veneration and respect which are implanted in the minds of a faithful and free people, by the blessings which they enjoy under an inva-
