TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1821.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Butler.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821,

To be peremptorily sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Wallis, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, at the Royal Hotel, Cheltenham, on the 30th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon;

All that newly erected messuage or tenement, desirably situated in Bath-Terrace, on the New Bath-Road, in the Parish of Cheltenham, called Salubrious Cottage, with the garden adjoining the same, and now unoccupied.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Bevir, Solicitor, Cirencester, or Messrs. Pruett and Griffiths, Solicitors, Cheltenham.

To be peremptorily sold, pursuant to two several Orders of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Geo against Crawford, with the approbation of Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, by Mr. Charles Cave, the person appointed by him for that purpose, at the house of Mrs. Wheatcroft, being the Little Peacock Inn, in Boston, in the County of Lincoln, on Saturday the 22d day of December 1821, between the hours of Five and Seven o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, in one lot;

A freehold estate, situate in Wormgate, in Boston, in the County of Lincoln, consisting of a piece of land, with a dwelling-house and carpenter's shop.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis), at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Straw and Jebb, Solicitors, at Boston; Messrs. Stocker, Dawson, and Herringham, New Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, London; and at the place of sale.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Lucas against Davies, it was, amongst other things, referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who were the next of kin of Margaret Edwards, late of Ludlow, in the County of Salop, Spinster, deceased (who died on or about the 10th day of August 1816), living at the time of her death, and whether any of them were since dead, and if dead who was or were their personal representative or representatives.—Any person or persons claiming to be next of kin of the said Margaret Edwards, deceased, or to be the personal representative or representatives of any such next of kin who were living at the time of her death, and are since dead, are forthwith to come in and make out his, her, or their claim or claims, and prove such kindred before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain Cause Outram and others against Marshall, the Creditors of Charles Marshall, late of Sheffield, in the County of York, Farmer and Victualler, deceased (who died in or about the month of April 1817), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 30th day of July 1821, made in a Cause Brander against Todd, the Creditors of Catherine Eycott Bulkeley, late of Sydney-Place, in the Parish of Bathwick, in the County of Somerset, Widow, deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of May 1819), are by themselves, or their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Irwin against Mills, the Creditors of Selina Irwin, formerly of Marlborough-Street, in the City of Bath, Widow, deceased (who died on or about the 30th day of September 1820), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Notice to the Creditors of John Walker, of Paternoster-Row, Bookseller.

THE Creditors of Mr. John Walker, are requested to meet the Trustees of his estate and effects appointed by the Deed of Assignment, dated the 18th day of January 1820, on Wednesday the 12th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Clare and Dickenson, Frederick's-Place, Old-Jewry, London, for the purpose of auditing the accounts of the said Trustees; and to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees making a dividend of the monies in hand of the said trust estate; and to their commencing actions against the debtors to the said estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of William Alfred Adolphus Nicholls, of Stephen-Street, Tottenham-Court-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Organ Builder, Dealer and Chapman, a Bankrupt, are particularly requested to meet the Assignees at the Office of Messrs. Spence and Desborough, No. 7, Fumival's-Inn, Holborn, on Wednesday the 5th December next, at Seven o'Clock in the Evening precisely, for the purpose of considering the necessary steps to be taken for giving to the said Assignees and the rest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, the full benefit of the sale of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, advertized for the 12th day of the same month; and generally to consult with the said Assignees on various matters connected with such sale, and the said Bankrupt's estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wood, of Lake-Lock, in the Parish of Wakefield, in the County of York, Master, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 6th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Sessions-House, in Wakefield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing or joining in the sale and disposition, by public auction or private contract or otherwise, either altogether and in one lot or in such parts, shares, or lots, and in such manner and form, and to such person or persons as the said Assignees shall think proper, of certain real estates of the said Bankrupt, now in mortgage to Mr. John Watson, for securing the sum of 4000l. and interest, and paying and discharging the said sum of 4000l. and all interest now due and to become due for the same; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining in the conveyance and confirming the sale of certain other real estates, also included in the said mortgage to the said John Watson sold or contracted to be sold by the said Bankrupt to several persons previous to the issuing of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the said John Watson the costs and expences by him incurred in advertising and offering for sale certain of the said real estates, or so much and such part of such costs and expences as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an agent or accountant as they shall think proper, for the purpose of making out and settling the accounts of and relating to the said Bankrupt and his estate, and collecting and receiving the outstanding debts and effects, and making a fair and reasonable allowance to such agent or accountant for so doing; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees having full power to compound or agree with any person or persons for any debt or debts or effects owing or belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to accept such security or securities as the said Assignees shall approve, or to grant time for the payment of the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees when and as they shall think expedient or proper commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or compromising any of the matters or things aforesaid, or any matter or thing relative to the said Bankrupt, or to his estate or effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Wilmot Sealy, of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, Upholsterer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 3d of December next, at Six of the Clock in the Evening, at the Office of Mr. James Peachey, No. 17, Salisbury-Square, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of certain reversions, part of the Bankrupt's property, by private contract or public auction; and also to assent to or dissent from authorising the Assignees to pay all or any part of the wages of the Bankrupt's servants; and also to assent to or dissent from confirming an allowance made by the Assignees to the Bankrupt for his support and services from the date of his Commission until he had passed his examination; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovering of or in relation to any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Philip Evans, late of Hungerford-Market, in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Oyster-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 30th day of November instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Loxley and Son, No. 30, Cheapside, London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think fit, to go to Frederick County, in the State of Virginia, in America, for the purpose of endeavouring to procure the necessary evidence and proof whether Patrick Phillips, formerly of Hungerford-Market, Strand, London, Salmon and Oyster-Dealer, but who left England about twenty years since, and was living at Winchester, in Frederick County aforesaid, in the month of July 1815, be now living or dead; and to the said Assignees paying such person or persons such a sum of money as they may think fit, for defraying the expences of such voyage and procuring the evidence required; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Heague, of Chalford, in the County of Gloucester, Linen-Draper and Grocer, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 12th of December next, at Three in the Afternoon, at Mr. John Wigan's, Solicitor, 2, Stephen-Street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees commencing and prosecuting such actions at law or suits in equity as they shall be advised to be necessary, for recovery of divers goods and effects belonging to the Bankrupt's estate, now or late in the possession or under the controul of several persons, to be named at the meeting, and particularly for the recovery of sundry effects from certain persons carrying on business under the firm of Messrs. Haughton and Roberts, and who claim to be entitled to part of such effects under an assignment thereof made by the Bankrupt, and to other part which they had previously sold to the Bankrupt, by reason of his having returned the same to them, or otherwise to authorise the Assignees to refer such and all other (if any) matters in difference between them (as Assignees as aforesaid), and Haughton and Roberts to a Barrister, or any other competent person or persons, under bonds of submission, and to their allowing the whole or such part of the costs, charges, and expences claimed by Haughton and Roberts as such arbitrator or arbitrators may think proper to award; also to the Assignees commencing such proceedings as they shall be advised to be necessary against other persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of divers effects in like manner sold and delivered to the Bankrupt and by him, subsequent thereto, returned to them; or to the Assignees leaving all questions arising thereout to a reference in manner above expressed, or otherwise to act in all the matters aforesaid as the Assignees shall consider to be expedient; and on other special affairs.
