SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our cordial and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's safe return to this your native realm.

That happy and important event has diffused universal joy and satisfaction amongst all your Majesty's faithful subjects, and we trust that your Majesty will believe that it is not more deeply or sincerely felt in any part of your Majesty's extensive dominions than by the inhabitants of this your ancient and loyal city.

We fervently pray that by the favour of Divine Providence your Majesty may continue to a far distant period to reign in the hearts of a grateful people, and in the enjoyment of health and every earthly blessing.

[Transmitted by Richard Hart Davis, Esq. and Henry Bright, Esq. M.M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and devoted subjects, the Mayor, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, the Gentry, and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, beg leave to approach you with our united and most sincere congratulations on the happy and safe return of your Majesty to your native kingdom.

Viewing, as we all along have done, with pride and satisfaction your Majesty's reception throughout Ireland, and your Continental dominions, we yet may boldly aver, that the inhabitants of this City yield to none in attachment to their established Constitution, and in personal love and devotion to their King.

Never can we forget the glorious change which has taken place in the aspect of our affairs, since your Majesty first assumed the reins of empire, a change which may greatly be attributed, under Divine Providence, to your Majesty's councils and firmness; then war was desolating almost the whole of Europe, then an inveterate enemy was directing all the energies and efforts of a powerful confederacy against the independence and prosperity of this nation, now victory has procured for us a general peace, and never did the name and character of Great Britain stand more honourably distinguished throughout the world, than at present.

No circumstance or event therefore, in any way affecting your Majesty, can at any time be indifferent to us; and we now hail with gratitude and affection the return of our Monarch to his people.

Duly sensible then, Sire, of the great blessings enjoyed by us under your Majesty's paternal sway, we offer up our devoutest thanksgivings unto Him by whom alone Kings reign; at the same time humbly praying that your Majesty may long be preserved to a free, a loyal, and a religious people.

In the name and on the behalf of a public meeting, held in the Town-Hall, in the City of Chester, on the 26th November 1821.

John S. Rogers, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of our unshaken loyalty, and of our zealous attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We congratulate your Majesty upon your safe return to your native land, and upon the joyful reception which your Majesty experienced from your faithful subjects in your hereditary kingdom of Hanover; and we venture to indulge the hope that your Majesty will, at no distant period, deign to honour this part of the empire with your royal presence.

Signed, and sealed with the common seal of the city of Glasgow, by me, Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate of Glasgow, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of said city, at Glasgow, the 27th day of November 1821 years,

J. T. Alrton.

That they have this day received the following letter from a Proprietor of East India Stock, viz.

"To Joseph Dart, Esq. Secretary of the Honourable East India Company, &c. &c. &c.

"SIR,

"Understanding that an opinion is entertained by some persons, that the object of the notice I had the honour of giving at the last General Court of East India Proprietors for the next General Court, to remit certain penalties exacted by the Committee of Buying and Warehouses, may be considered as coming within the scope of the 4th section of the 8th chapter, p. 54, of the bye-laws, although as it was a deduction made from out of a payment due by the Company, I do not concur in that opinion, yet to meet the suggestion, and to prevent any technicality defeating the justice of the case, I hereby give notice to the Directors through you, and require of them to publish accordingly, fourteen days previous to the holding of the next General Court, such notice that I gave at their last General Court, viz. 'That the memorial of Mr. Hornblower, and the papers relating thereto, be taken into consideration at the next General Court; and that the fines imposed on Messrs. Thompson and Co. and Messrs. Crawshay and Co. be remitted.'

" I am, Sir,
" your most obedient servant,
