

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading, humbly beg leave to present to your Majesty our congratulations upon your accession to the Throne of these kingdoms, as also on your happy return to your native country, after a visit to the more remote parts of your extensive dominions. We have noticed with peculiar gratification, the effusions of loyalty, the strongest marks of attachment to your sacred Person, which have uniformly attended your Majesty's late progress, being ourselves animated with the same sentiments, and feeling with confidence that a similar spirit pervades the great body of your Majesty's subjects. Under your Majesty's auspicious Government, the British Nation has attained a height of naval and military glory never surpassed, seldom equalled in the annals of this or any other country; we trust that similar wisdom, directed under your Majesty's auspices to the concerns of agriculture, and to the improvement of the arts and commerce of this great empire, will be found equally successful in promoting its internal prosperity; and we do most fervently pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the hearts and affections of a dutiful and loyal people.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the Borough aforesaid, the 30th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1821,

Henry Deane, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk.]

To His Majesty George the Fourth, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Sheriffs, Common Council, Magistrates, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Borough of Carmarthen, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of unalterable attachment and respect, and to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in your native country in perfect health and safety.

We hailed with particular pleasure and satisfaction, the auspicious day of your Majesty's Coronation, and most cordially participated in the general joy which it diffused throughout your dominions.

And as the opportunity is now afforded of greeting your Majesty's return, allow us to express our earnest hope, that the British empire may long experience, in the sacred Person of your Majesty, the inestimable blessing of a Monarch reigning in the hearts of an affectionate, happy, and free people; and that we may have the supreme felicity of welcoming your Majesty again in your ancient and loyal town of Carmarthen.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild this day assembled, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty, to offer our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's safe return from your royal visit to your Majesty's Continental dominions.

Placed as we are by our local situation on an iron-bound coast, we are but too often the involuntary witnesses of the distressing scenes of shipwreck and naval disasters; and in particular during the late dreadful gales, whilst your Majesty was yet on your royal progress, and about to encounter the dangers of the sea: most fervently and devoutly, therefore, do we join in returning thanks to that Omnipotent Being, "who rides on the whirlwind and directs the storm," that He has been graciously pleased to protect your Majesty during your royal journey, both by land and by water; and that after your Majesty's happy recovery from the slight indisposition you lately experienced, He has, through His Divine Providence, graciously vouchsafed to restore your Majesty safe from the perils of the ocean, in health and peace to your native shore.

Should your Majesty, in the course of your intended royal progress, deign to visit this ancient Town, we beg leave most humbly to assure your Majesty, that although in other places your Majesty may have been received with more splendour and greater pomp, yet we shall yield to none in our expressions of the most sincere and hearty attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and from no class of your Majesty's subjects will your Majesty experience a more hearty welcome than from your Majesty's loyal Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

That your Majesty may long continue in health, peace, and concord, happily to reign over a free, loyal, and united people is our most sincere and fervent prayer to Almighty God "by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice."

Given under our common seal, at the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid, the 14th day of November in the year of our Lord 1821, and in the second year of your Majesty's reign.
