Whitehall, December 5, 1821.

The King hath been pleased to give and grant unto Alexander M'Innes, Esq. Lieutenant in His Majesty's 2d Regiment of Life Guards, His royal licence and permission, that he and his issue may, from motives of affectionate regard to the memory of his maternal uncle, Robert Nicholson, Esq. late a Lieutenant-General in the Army in the East Indies, deceased, take and use the surname of Nicholson only, and bear the arms of Nicholson quarterly with those of M'Innes; such armorial ensigns being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 5, 1821.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto James Simmons, of the Minorics, in the city of London, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, not only out of affectionate regard to the memory, but in compliance with a proviso contained in a codicil to the last will and testament of Robert Atkinson, late of Newington-place, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, deceased, take and use the surname of Atkinson, in addition to that of Simmons:

And also to order, that His Majesty's said concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 13, 1821.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Green, of Woburn, in the county of Bedford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed William Haynes, of West Bromwich, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 7, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Wednesday the 28th of November last, as Mr. Anthony Rouse, of the parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, was returning from Truro, when near Whitehall, in the parish of Kenwyn, he was shot at by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and dangerously wounded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at and wounded the said Anthony Rouse), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered
