The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert Thompson, of Morpeth, in the county of Northumberland, Gent. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue shall and may take upon himself and themselves the surname of Bullock only, in pursuance of a condition contained in the last will and testament of his brother Thomas Bullock (formerly Thomas Thompson) late of Spittle-hill, in the said county of Northumberland, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 2d day of January 1819:

And also to command, that the said concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the same to be void and of none effect.

Admiralty-Office, December 10, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at the Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 21st day of January next, at eight o'clock in the morning, instead of Friday the 11th, as before advertised.

J. W. Croker.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, commons and waste lands, in the parish of Caddington, in the counties of Bedford and Hertford;" and in compliance and by virtue of the powers and directions therein contained, I, the undersigned John Pridden, Vicar of the said parish of Caddington, do hereby give notice that I intend to apply at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the county of Bedford, in the week after the close of the feast of Easter, now next ensuing, being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the week after the close of the feast of Easter next, after the expiration of twenty-one years after the making the award of the Commissioners named in the said Act of Parliament, that two persons may be named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for inquiring into and ascertaining, by means of the London Gazette; the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the said county of Bedford, for the twenty-one years then last past, in order that the said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them may, by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in the first week after the feast of the translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, then next ensuing, set forth such average price, so that the said Court may then make such order for increasing or diminishing the yearly corn rent charged on the several allotments mentioned in the first schedule annexed to the said award, and thereby made payable to the said Vicar, and his successors, in the manner specified and declared in and by the said Act of Parliament.—Dated this twenty-fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

John Pridden, Vicar of Caddington aforesaid.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, meadows, lands, commons, and commonable places within the parish of Great Catworth, in the counties of Huntingdon and Northampton," I, the Reverend Thomas Evanson, Rector of the rectory and parish church of Great Catworth aforesaid, do intend to apply at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the county of Huntingdon, in the week succeeding the Feast of the Epiphany which will be in the year of our Lord 1822, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for ascertaining, by the means in the said Act mentioned, the average price of a Winchester bushel of wheat in the county of Huntingdon, for the term of twenty-one years last past, in order that the said arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in the first week after the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price as aforesaid, to the end that in case it shall by such report appear that such average price of a bushel of wheat is more than the average price thereof set forth in the award made under the said Act, by the value of three pence or upwards, then and in such case the yearly rent payable to the said Rector in lieu of tythes, may be increased in proportion; and that the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum to which the same shall be so increased shall be declared by the order of the said Court, conformably with the directions of the said Act; and that I, the said Rector, will take all the necessary and proper steps in that behalf.—Dated this 6th day of December 1821.

Thomas Evanson,

ELIZABETH CHARLOTTE PHILLIPS, late of Leicester-Square, London, Spinster, deceased.

THE Next of Kin and Heirs at Law of the deceased, on the part of the father, as also on the part of the mother, are desired to apply to Mr. Thomlinson, of Staple-Inn, London.—The deceased was the only surviving child of William Phillips and Grace his wife, whose maiden name was Clement.—In the year 1771 William Phillips resided in Piccadilly, and afterwards in Bear-Street, Leicester-Square, carrying on the business of Woollen-Draper and Clothier.

TO be sold, by public auction, by Mr. Gosling, pursuant to an Order of the acting Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against Samuel Unwin White, now or late of Edingley Cotton-Mill, in the County of Nottingham, Cotton-Spinner and Hosier, Dealer and Chapman, at the house of Mr. Saville Smith, the Green Dragon, in Mansfield, in the said County, on Thursday the 7th of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

All that substantially erected cotton-mill, situate at Edingley aforesaid, with the Dam or reservoir and stream and fall of water, constant and equal to an engine of seven horse power. Also a messuage, recently and neatly fitted up, exceedingly well adapted for the owner of the mill, or, in case of non-residence, for the overlooker to reside in.

Also four other tenements or cottages, suitable for the work-people and their families; together with another tenement, adjoining the mill, for some time past used as a counting-house, and for ware-rooms.

And also a large and commodious building, adjoining the four above-named tenements, heretofore used as a cotton wool warehouse and carpenter's shop; together with an excellent barn, stabling for ten or twelve horses, cow-houses, sheds, and every other convenient out-building, yards; a large stack-yard, two gardens and orchards, abundantly stocked with the choicest fruit trees; and nine conveniently sized closes, well watered and fenced, of most excellent arable, meadow, and pasture land, in a high state of cultivation, in a ring fence, surrounding the mill and premises above described, containing altogether upwards of 31 acres.

The estate is tythe free, land-tax redeemed, and the rates and assessments are extremely moderate; it adjoins the turnpike-road from Mansfield to Newark, and is 4 miles from Southwell, 12 from Newark, 8 from Mansfield, and 13 from Nottingham, to all which places carriers and coaches pass regularly.

The dam abounds with fine trout, carp, perch, &c.; during the winter season it is much frequented by wild fowl, and the situation is almost, by nature, formed for a decoy.

Possession may be obtained at Lady-Day next, or earlier, if required.

For further particulars application (if by letter post paid) to be made to Mr. Woodcock, Solicitor, Mansfield; Messrs. Barrow and Hodgkinson, Solicitors, Southwell; Mr. William Barber, Solicitor, No. 55, High-Holborn, London; or to Mr. Calton, Solicitor under the Commission, Chesterfield.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Foster, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupt, Basinghall-Street, on Tuesday the 8th day of January, at Twelve o'Clock precisely, without reserve, before the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankruptcy against Mr. William Dallas, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery;

A debt of 1134l. 2s. 8d. due from Mr. William Rose, of Jamaica, or his Representatives, to the Bankrupt, who was formerly his correspondent in London, together with the interest thereon, from the month of July 1806.

Particulars may be had of Messrs. Dawes and Chatfield, Solicitors, No. 9, and of Mr. Foster, No. 6, Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against John Harrison, of Beckfoot, in the Parish of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the County of Westmorland, Joiner and Carpenter, Dealer and Chapman, at the House of Mrs. Roper, the Rose and Crown Inn, in Kirkby Lonsdale aforesaid, on Friday the 25th day of January 1822, at Five o'Clock in the Evening;

The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that messuage and tenement situate and being at Barbon Beckfoot, in the Parish of Kirkby Lonsdale aforesaid, called Underbank, and the several closes and parcels of land thereunto belonging, containing about twenty-eight acres of land customary measure; and also the fee simple and inheritance of and in one moiety of one parcel of land, called the Outside, adjoining the river Lime, and also adjoining to the before mentioned premises, with an unlimited right of common on Barbon Fell, and a right of fishing in the river Lime.

The above premises are about three miles from the Market Town of Kirkby Lonsdale, and near the turnpike-road from thence to Sedberg.

For further particulars apply at the Office of Mr. Francis Pearson, Solicitor, in Kirkby Lonsdale; or Mr. Clark, Solicitor, in Lancaster.
