

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1822.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, beg permission to present most respectfully at your Majesty's feet, our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon your safe return to the capital of your Majesty's dominions.

The health of a Monarch, whose first ambition is, and uniformly has been, the happiness of his people, cannot but be an object of the liveliest and most indescribable interest; this is a sentiment common, we are assured, to all the subjects of your Majesty, but your ancient and devoted Corporation of Dublin would ill deserve the honours which your Majesty has so recently and bountifully bestowed upon them, if they did not feel that they more than participated in this loyal and affectionate solicitude.

May the Almighty Disposer of Events keep your Majesty in His most gracious and especial protection, granting you to live long and happily over all your people, and preserving to you, in His merciful Providence, health, repeatedly to confer upon your Irish subjects those unspeakable blessings which your presence among them has so universally excited and diffused.

In testimony whereof the seal of said City is hereunto affixed.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

Unto His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, KING of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Royal Burgh of Montrose, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your safe and happy return to this kingdom, and on that universal display of loyalty and attachment which was manifested by all classes of your Majesty's subjects who had the happiness to enjoy your Majesty's presence, the accounts of which, even at this distance, excited similar feelings in our breasts.

And, Sire, we who have so largely participated in your royal favour, by your Majesty's having been graciously pleased to confer upon us and our Constituents, a highly improved and liberal Constitution of Burgh Government, eagerly avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our peculiar gratification at the prospect of an early visit of your Majesty to this your ancient kingdom of Scotland, where, by the blessing of Almighty God, your illustrious House, so beneficently represented in your Majesty's Person, holds undivided sway in the hearts of all your Majesty's subjects:

That your Majesty may long continue in the uninterrupted enjoyment of health and every other terrestrial blessing, is the sincere and earnest prayer of your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful, and most devoted subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Montrose.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and the common seal of the Burgh, by our order; hereto affixed, at Montrose, this 25th day of December 1821 years,

William Gibson, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost]

Pavillion, Brighton, December 8, 1821.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on George Augustus Quentin, Esq. Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel in the 10th Regiment of Light Dragoons, Aide-de-Camp to the King, and Major-General in the Hanoverian Service.