WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Sunday evening the 9th of December, about ten o'clock, a fire broke out the woollen-manufactory of Messrs. Elworthy, in the parish of Wellington, in the county of Somerset, by which the factory, with the machinery and stock therein, were totally destroyed; and there is strong reason to suppose, that the same was set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by the said Messrs. Elworthy, and
ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, by the Eagle Insurance-Office.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chops, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821, lives, renewable for ever, which was formerly granted thereto by the Right Honourable John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to the said Robert Watts; and said Humphrey Hartley on my part, and for my use, did then and there demand from the principal occupier or occupiers of said lands and premises the sum of 1501l. 16s. 5d. sterling, being the amount of the several renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest respectively due thereon; and also for the several proportions of such septennial fines which have become due and payable to me, under and by virtue of said lease and the renewal heretofore granted thereof, by the several deaths of all the lives or cestui que vies named in said lease and renewal.—And I do hereby call upon and require such person or persons as shall be legally intitled to the right, benefit, and advantage of said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, to pay me or my said agent the amount of said fines and interest as aforesaid, or such other sum or sums of money as shall appear to be fairly due to me for the same within the term and space of two months from the date hereof, or from the date of the first insertion of this notice in this Gazette.—And I do hereby also require such person or persons as claim to be intitled to the benefit of the said lease and renewal of said lands and premises forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, to furnish me or my said agent with the draft of a proper deed of renewal of the premises now in the tenancy and possession of the person or persons now deriving under said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, excluding out of such renewal such part of said premises so demised by said lease as aforesaid, as were formerly recovered by Robert Bryan, Esq. deceased, and wife, under an ejectment on the title, grounded on their claim for intermixed acres in said demised premises, by virtue of and under a title paramount to that under which I derive by virtue of certain deeds of conveyance formerly made thereof by said John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to James Agar, Esq. since deceased, and for which said intermixed acres so recovered by said Robert Bryan and wife, a rateable deduction by the acre will be made by me out of the rent reserved under said original lease.
