*Great Chamberlain's-Office,
January 26, 1822.*

ALL Peers who intend being present at the meeting of Parliament on the 5th of February next, will receive one ticket of admission for a Lady to the House of Peers, on application at this Office, on the 4th of February, before twelve o'clock at noon.

All Peeresses, on giving notice before twelve o'clock at noon on the 4th day of February, will have places reserved for them in the House of Peers.

No stranger will be admitted, except by a ticket subscribed by the Deputy Great Chamberlain.

No Lady can be admitted into the body of the House except in full dress.

The doors will not be opened before twelve o'clock. GWYDYR.

Foreign-Office, January 22, 1822.

The King has been pleased to appoint Alexander Marrack, Esq. to be Consul at St. Ives, for the Kingdom of Hanover.

Whitehall, January 19, 1822.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William-Peere Williams, of Hoddesdon, in the county of Hertford, Esq. Admiral of the Red Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso and declaration contained in the last will and testament of Sanbrooke Freeman, formerly of Fawley Court, in the county of Buckingham, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 1st day of June 1774, have, use, assume, and take upon himself and themselves the surname and arms of Freeman, in addition to the surname and arms of Williams; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 25, 1822.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Forbes, of Burton Crescent, in the parish of St. Pancras and county of Middlesex, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in testimony of his affection and respect to his maternal uncle, Charles Bentley, of Woburn-place, in the parish of St. George, Bloomsbury, Esq. formerly a Member of the Council of Fort William, in Bengal, and of the Government there, assume and take the surname of Bentley, in addition to and after that of Forbes, and also bear and use the arms of Bentley, quarterly with those of Forbes, together with their respective crests; the whole according to the laws of arms:

And also to command, that His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, January 25, 1822.

The King has been pleased to grant the place of one of the Lords of Session in Scotland to William Erskine, Esq. Advocate, in the room of Claude J. Boswell, Esq. resigned.

The King has also been pleased to appoint James A. Maconochie, Esq. Advocate, to be Sheriff Depute of the shires of Orkney and Zetland, in the room of William Erskine, Esq. appointed one of the Lords of Session in Scotland.

The King has also been pleased to nominate, constitute, and appoint Robert Hamilton, Esq. Advocate, to be one of the Six Ordinary Clerks of Session in Scotland, in the room of David Hume, Esq. appointed a Baron of the Court of Exchequer.

The King has also been pleased to constitute and appoint Hector M'Donald Buchanan, Esq. (one of the Principal Clerks of Session), to be Clerk of the King's Processes in Scotland, in the room of David Hume, Esq. appointed a Baron of the Court of Exchequer.

CONTRACT FOR BRITISH IRON.

Navy-Office, January 17, 1822

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 13th February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards with British Iron, consisting of Boltstaves, Squares, Flats, Short-Broads, and Plates.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering; in the sum of £3000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

CONTRACTS FOR SHEATHING PAPER AND SHIP CHANDLERY GOODS.

Navy-Office, January 22, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on the following days, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying the under-mentioned articles, viz.

On Wednesday the 13th of February next, Imperial Sheathing Paper, to be delivered at His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, and Sheerness.

On Thursday the 14th of February next, Ship Chandlery Goods, to be delivered at His Majesty's said Yards at Chatham and Sheerness.

Forms of the tenders may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contract for paper, and £500, for the due performance of the contract for ship chandlery goods. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR OATS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, January 22, 1822.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies to deliver may receive particulars of the contract at this Office, between the hours of ten and four, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, marking thereon "Tender for Oats;" on or before Tuesday the 5th February; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Westminster, January 26, 1822

NOTICE is hereby given to the officers and company of His Majesty's sloop Driver, Charles Hope Reid, Esq. Commander, who were actually present at the seizure of some contraband goods on board the brig Cherub, on the 20th July 1820, that they will be paid their respective proportions of a sum granted to them by the Board of Customs, in reward for the said seizure, on Friday next the 1st of February, at No. 13, Great George-Street, Westminster; where the unclaimed shares will be recalled for three months.

IF the Next of Kin (if any) of John Vaux, late of Goswell-Street-Road, in the Parish of Saint James, Clerkenwell, Middlesex, Widower, deceased, will apply to Mr. J. T. Hue, Wine-Merchant, King's Head Tavern, West Smithfield, London, or to Mr. John Wills, Proctor, 7, Bell-Yard, Doctors'-Commons, they will hear of something to their advantage.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of Frances Keene, late of I Shouldham-Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, Widow, will apply (either personally or by letter post paid), to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor for the Affairs of His Majesty's Treasury, No. 5, Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.—The said Frances Keene died in the latter end of the year 1819, and was the widow of Joseph Keene, late of South-Molton-Street, Saint George's, Hanover-Square, Carpenter; her maiden name was Bryan, and she is supposed to have resided, at the time of her marriage, in the year 1805, in the neighbourhood of Duke-Street, Manchester-Square.

IF Thomas Slow and John Foster, whose names appear (but of whom no description is added), as attesting witnesses to the execution by Thomas Lockwood the elder, Thomas Lockwood the younger, John Morris, and Henry Calvely Colton, of an indenture of lease, dated the 20th day of March 1797, and made between Calvert Richard Jones, then of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, Esq. and Herbert Hurst, then of Gabalfa, in the same County, Esq. of the one part, and the said Thomas Lockwood the elder, then of Mortimer-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. the said Thomas Lockwood the younger, then of Grosvenor-Street, in the said County of Middlesex, but now of Danygraig, near Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, Esq. the said John Morris, then of Clasemont, in the County of Glamorgan, Esq. and the said Henry Calvely Colton, then of Harley-Street, in the said County of Middlesex, Esq. of the other part; or if the said Thomas Slow and John Foster should be dead, then if any person who knew or was acquainted with them and can give any information as to the respective times and places of their deaths, will apply to Messrs. Holme, Frampton, and Loftus, Solicitors, New-Inn, London, or to Messrs. Berrington and Jenkins, Solicitors, Swansea, a remuneration will be made for their trouble. It is supposed that the said Thomas Slow and John Foster were domestics or persons in the employ of the said Thomas Lockwood the younger.

TO ALL PERSONS WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

NOtice is hereby given, that on the 11th day of January instant, Humphrey Hartley, of the City of Dublin, Esq. my agent, did resort to the lands of Molassy, the subdenomination held therewith, called or distinguished by the name of the Garden or One Garden, in or near Dirty-Step, and also part of the lands of Broadmore, all which said lands and premises are situate in the Liberties of the Town of Callan, in the County of Kilkenny, in Ireland, and were formerly in the tenure, possession, and occupation of the Rev. Robert Watts, deceased, by virtue of a lease for three lives, renewable for ever, which was formerly granted thereof by the Right Honourable John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to the said Robert Watts; and said Humphrey Hartley on my part, and for my use, did then and there demand from the principal occupier or occupiers of said lands and premises the sum of 1501l. 16s. 5d. sterling, being the amount of the several renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest respectively due thereon; and also for the several proportions of such septennial fines which have become due and payable to me, under and by virtue of said lease and the renewal heretofore granted thereof, by the several deaths of all the lives or cestui que vies named in said lease and renewal.—And I do hereby call upon and require such person or persons as shall be legally intitled to the right, benefit, and advantage of said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, to pay me or my said agent the amount of said fines and interest as aforesaid, or such other sum or sums of money as shall appear to be fairly due to me for the same within the term and space of two months from the date hereof, or from the date of the first insertion of this notice in this Gazette.—And I do hereby also require such person or persons as claim to be intitled to the benefit of the said lease and renewal of said lands and premises forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, to furnish me or my said agent with the draft of a proper deed of renewal of the premises now in the tenancy and possession of the person or persons now deriving under said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, excluding out of such renewal such part of said premises so demised by said lease as aforesaid, as were formerly recovered by Robert Bryan, Esq. deceased, and wife, under an ejectment on the title, grounded on their claim for intermixed acres in said demised premises, by virtue of and under a title paramount to that under which I derive by virtue of certain deeds of conveyance formerly made thereof by said John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to James Agar, Esq. since deceased, and for which said intermixed acres so recovered by said Robert Bryan and wife, a rateable deduction by the acre will be made by me out of the rent reserved under said original lease.

And take notice, that unless said renewal fines and interest as aforesaid are paid as aforesaid, and such draft of a deed of renewal furnished, I shall insist on the forfeiture of the tenants interest under said lease, and shall proceed in such manner as I shall be advised to recover the actual possession of said hereinbefore-mentioned lands and premises, freely, exonerated, released, and discharged from all claim and claims and right of renewal of all persons whatsoever claiming the same. Given under my hand and title of honour this 17th day of January 1822.
