TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1822.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

The Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Dominica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, faithful, and loyal subjects, the Members of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Dominica, humbly beg leave to offer our heartfelt congratulations on the solemn occasion of your Majesty's Coronation.

We eagerly embrace the opportunity of expressing our grateful sense of the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government; we ardently hope, that neither foreign enemies, nor the machinations of the seditious or evil-disposed at home, may disturb the peaceful auspices under which your Majesty's reign commences; but we doubt not, that the same matchless valour which conducted to so glorious a conclusion the late long and arduous contest, will ever be ready to defend the British shores; and we trust, that the wisdom and energy which has hitherto maintained internal tranquillity, will never cease to inspire your Majesty's Councils.

We call to mind, with sentiments of affection and veneration, the memory of your Majesty's great and good Father, our late august Monarch; we reflect with admiration on your Majesty's brilliant administration of the Government on his behalf, while it was the will of Providence to visit him with affliction; and drawing our augury of the future from the past, we rest assured, that the high authority with which your Majesty is invested will ever be exercised solely for the good of your Majesty's subjects, the honour, interest, and safety of your dominions, and the maintenance of true religion and social order.

We earnestly implore, that Heaven may be pleased to pour down its best blessings on your Majesty's head; that your days may be long and happy; and that, when the inevitable destiny of human nature shall call your Majesty from this sublunary sphere, your earthly diadem may be exchanged for one unfading and eternal.

Archibald Gloster, President of the Council.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, the President, Elects, and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians, humbly approach your Majesty with our most grateful acknowledgments for the mark of royal favour with which your Majesty has been pleased to distinguish us, by an order written and signed by your royal hand, addressed to Sir Henry Halford, Bart. our President, commanding him to declare to the College assembled your Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that every future President of the College of Physicians for the time being shall hold the office of one of your Majesty's Physicians in Ordinary.

We associate, Sire, with this mark of your royal kindness, the pleasing remembrance of the circumstances of our original foundation by your Majesty's illustrious predecessor King Henry the Eighth, and dare to presume from so gracious a proof of your confidence in us, that your Majesty entertains a favourable opinion of our institutions and discipline, as calculated to make our profession respected in this country, above what it is in any other part of Europe, and most capable of forming a Physician worthy to be placed near the sacred person of the King.

To our President, Sire, we entrust the expression of our dutiful thanks, our loyalty, our attachment and devotion to your Majesty; and we pray that no weight of cares which your Majesty's great office imposes upon you may prove injurious to your health; and that Providence, in His infinite goodness, may continue to watch over a life so highly important to the welfare and happiness of your kingdoms. Clement Hue, Registrar.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador,

And if any such artificer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house
