A 2

RESOLUTIONS agreed to by the HOUSE OF COMMONS, on the 27th February 1822, relative to the REPAYMENT of certain FIVE PER CENTUM ANNUITIES.

1. " That all and every person and persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, who now is or are, or hereafter may be, interested in, or entitled unto, any part of the National Debt redeemable by Law which now carries an Interest after the rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and is usually known by the name of Navy Five per Cents., or by the name of Irish Five per Cent. Annuities, payable at the Bank of England, and who shall not signify his, her, or their dissent, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, shall, in lieu of every £100 of such Five per Centum Annuities, receive, and be entitled to, the sum of £105 in a new Stock, to be called the New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, and to carry an Interest after the rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and so in proportion for any greater or less amount of such Five per Centum Annuities :—And that the Dividends thereof shall be payable half-yearly at the Bank of England, upon the 5th day of January, and the 5th day of July, in each and every year :—And the first half-yearly Dividend on the said New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities shall be payable on the 5th day of January 1823 :—And that the said New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities shall not be liable to be paid off until the 5th day of January 1829."

2. " That the Interest and Dividends payable in respect of the said New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities shall be charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; in the same manner as the Interest and Dividends of the Five Pounds per Centum Annuities now stand charged on the said Fund."

3. " That all and every person and persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, who shall not within the period, commencing on Monday the 4th day of March, and ending on Saturday the 16th day of March 1822, both days inclusive, signify his, her, or their dissent from accepting and receiving a share in the said new Four Pounds per Centum Annuities in lieu of his, her, or their respective shares in the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, in the manner hereinafter directed, shall be deemed and taken to have consented to accept and receive the same; provided always, that if any Proprietor or Proprietors of Five Pounds per Centum Annuities shall not be within the limits of the United Kingdom at any time between the 22d day of February and the 16th day of March 1822, but shall be in any other part of Europe, it shall be lawful for such Proprietor or Proprietors to signify such dissent at any time before the 1st day of June 1822; and if any such Proprietor or Proprietors shall not, at any time between the 22d day of February 1822 and the 1st day of June 1822, be within any part of Europe, it shall be lawful for him, her, or them to signify such dissent at any time before the 1st day of March 1823, such Proprietor or Proprietors proving, to the satisfaction of the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England, or any two or more of them, his, her, or their absence from the United Kingdom, or out of Europe as above specified; and that his, her, or their share or shares of such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities stood in his, her, or their name or names respectively on the 22d day of February 1822, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, provided also that such Proprietor or Proprietors so absent from the United Kingdom, or out of Europe, shall signify such his, her, or their dissent within ten days after his, her, or their return to the United Kingdom."

4. "That provision should be made by this House for paying off such Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities as shall signify his, her, or their dissent from accepting and receiving any share in the said New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities in lieu thereof."

5. "That all persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, possessed of any part of the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, and who shall desire to signify such dissent as aforesaid, shall, between the 4th and 16th days of March 1822, both inclusive, by themselves, or some agent or agents for that purpose duly authorised, signify to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England such dissent in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, together with the amount of his, her, or their respective shares in the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, and which said dissent shall be entered in a book or books to be opened and kept by the said Governor and Company for that purpose, and numbered in the order in which his, her, or their dissent shall be received by the said Governor and Company; and in case of any transfer of such shares, or any part or parts thereof, after such dissent, the part or parts so transferred shall be entered in the said books under the same numbers as were affixed to such shares when the dissent was so signified; and every such dissentient Proprietor or Proprietors, or his, her, or their assigns, under any such transfer, shall be paid off in the numerical order in which his, her, or their name or names shall be entered in such book, such payment to commence on the 5th day of July 1822, and to be continued at such periods, and in such manner, as Parliament may direct."

6. "That every Proprietor or Proprietors of the Navy Five Pounds per Centum Annuities aforesaid, shall receive the Dividends due thereon on the 5th day of July 1822; and that every Proprietor or Proprietors of the Irish Five Pounds per Centum Annuities aforesaid, shall receive the Dividend due thereupon on the 5th day of April 1822, and shall also receive one quarter's Dividend thereon on the 5th day of July 1822, and the said last-mentioned Five Pounds per Centum Annuities shall be paid off, or converted into Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, in manner aforesaid, from and after the said 5th day of July 1822, and no transfer of the said Irish Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, or of any Annuities at the rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, payable in Ireland, to or from the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or to or from the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, shall take place from and after the 26th day of February 1822."

7. "That all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, and Trustees, may signify such dissent in respect of such shares of the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, for the holding of which their names are made use of respectively, and all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, and Trustees, not signifying such dissent, shall be deemed to have assented as aforesaid, and shall be indemnified in respect thereof."

N. B. Forms to be filled up by persons wishing to dissent from the offer of Four per Cent. Stock, as contained in the above Resolutions, and who may be desirous of receiving payment of the Principal of their Five per Cent. Annuities in Money, are ready at the Bank of England for delivery to the Proprietors of such Five per Cent. Annuities, or their Agents.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers,
2d March 1822.

Whitehall, February 18, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eleven o'clock in the night of the 22d of November last, two hay stacks, situate in Brindle, in the county of Lancaster, the property of William Ainsworth, farmer, were set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Pilkington and Sons, Solicitors, Preston.

Whitehall, February 26, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 14th instant, a large barn, filled with corn, and also the out-buildings adjoining, the property of the Reverend John Monins, Rector of the parish of Ringwould, near Deal, in the county of Kent, were set on fire and consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as afore-said), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Richard Monins, Esq. No. 4, Essex-Court, Middle-Temple, London.

TO ALL PERSONS WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Notice is hereby given, that on the 11th day of January instant, Humphrey Hartley, of the City of Dublin, Esq. my agent, did resort to the lands of Molassy, the subdenomination held therewith, called or distinguished by the name of the Garden or One Garden, in or near Dirty-Step, and also part of the lands of Broadmore, all which said lands and premises are situate in the Liberties of the Town of Callan, in the County of Kilkenny, in Ireland, and were formerly in the tenure, possession, and occupation of the Rev. Robert Watts, deceased, by virtue of a lease for three lives, renewable for ever, which was formerly granted thereof by the Right Honourable John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to the said Robert Watts; and said Humphrey Hartley on my part, and for my use, did then and there demand from the principal occupier or occupiers of said lands and premises the sum of 150l. 16s. 5d. sterling, being the amount of the several renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest respectively due thereon; and also for the several proportions of such septennial fines which have become due and payable to me, under and by virtue of said lease and the renewal heretofore granted thereof, by the several deaths of all the lives or cestui que vies named in said lease and renewal.—And I do hereby call upon and require such person or persons as shall be legally intitled to the right, benefit, and advantage of said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, to pay me or my said agent the amount of said fines and interest as aforesaid, or such other sum or sums of money as shall appear to be fairly due to me for the same within the term and space of two months from the date hereof, or from the date of the first insertion of this notice in this Gazette.—And I do hereby also require such person or persons as claim to be intitled to the benefit of the said lease and renewal of said lands and premises forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, to furnish me or my said agent with the draft of a proper deed of renewal of the premises now in the tenancy and possession of the person or persons now deriving under said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, excluding out of such renewal such part of said premises so demised by said lease as aforesaid, as were formerly recovered by Robert Bryan, Esq. deceased, and wife, under an ejectment on the title, grounded on their claim for intermixed acres in said demised premises, by virtue of and under a title paramount to that under which I derive by virtue of certain deeds of conveyance formerly made thereof by said John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to James Agar, Esq. since deceased, and for which said intermixed acres so recovered by said Robert Bryan and wife, a rateable deduction by the acre will be made by me out of the rent reserved under said original lease.

And take notice, that unless said renewal fines and interest as aforesaid are paid as aforesaid, and such draft of a deed of renewal furnished, I shall insist on the forfeiture of the tenants interest under said lease, and shall proceed in such manner as I shall be advised to recover the actual possession of said hereinbefore-mentioned lands and premises, freed, exonerated, released, and discharged from all claim and claims and right of renewal of all persons whatsoever claiming the same. Given under my hand and title of honour this 17th day of January 1822.

Jean Reid and others (Creditors of John Reid, deceased), Complainants, against A. Gordon and others (Trustees and Executors under the will of John Reid), Defendants.

IN pursuance to an Order of the Honourable Court of Chancery of the said Island, in the above Cause, bearing date of the 17th day of December last past, I do hereby give notice, that the sale of Cinnamon-Hill Estate, which, by a farmer Order of this Honourable Court, was advertised to take place on the 1st day of March next, at the Court-House, in the Town of Scarborough, in said Island, will be postponed to the 15th of April next, when it will be sold to the highest bidder, on the terms already advertised.

SAMUEL SPEARS, Master in Chancery.

Tobago, January 3, 1822.

THOMAS ROBERTS AND CO. OF LONDON.

UNCLAIMED DIVIDENDS.

January, 1822.

THE several Creditors of said Thomas Roberts and Co. who have established their demands under and pursuant to a certain Deed of Trust between them and said firm, and whose dividends remain unpaid, are hereby requested to apply to Messrs. Sneyd and Co. 42, Upper Sackville-Street, Dublin, for payment of the amount of their said dividends, which is now remaining in their hands ready to be paid.—And notice is hereby given to such of the Creditors of said firm, as have not yet established their demands, pursuant to the provisions of said Trust Deed, to come in and prove the same, on or before the 1st day of July next, otherwise the fund, which would be applicable to the payment of a dividend on their demands, if substantiated, will be divided amongst those Creditors, who have already established their claims against said firm.

WESTON-SUPER-MARE, SOMERSETSHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. George Painter, at the Commercial-Rooms in the City of Bristol, on Thursday the 14th day of March 1822, between the hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, pursuant to an order made by the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt issued against Isaac Jacobs, of the City of Bristol, Glass-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, subject to such conditions as shall then and there be produced, the following very desirable freehold property, viz.

Lot 1. A messuage or dwelling-house, containing two parlours, six bed-rooms, besides garrets, kitchens, and other offices.

Also a tenement immediately adjoining to the said messuage, and containing four rooms, besides a kitchen and other offices.

A three-stall stable, with iron racks and patent rollers, harness-room; also a large coach-house, capable of holding two carriages, with a hay-loft over the same.

There is a small pleasure-ground also belonging to these premises, and the whole are well adapted to the immediate reception of a genteel family.

Lot 2. A piece of ground, adjoining to lot one, 70 feet by 45 feet, or little more or less.—This lot is well calculated for a garden or pleasure-ground, or building upon.

Lot 3. Two excellent three-stall stables, fitted up in a very superior stile, with iron-racks and patent brass rollers, two harness-rooms, with lofts extending over the whole range of these buildings.

Lot 4. A very valuable piece of ground for building upon, lying on the north side of a mansion-house, some time since erected by Mr. Jacobs, and within about six feet thereof.—This piece of ground is 150 feet in length, and 50 feet in width, or little more or less, and from its situation is very desirable for building upon, or being converted into a garden or pleasure-ground for the before-mentioned mansion-house.

The before-mentioned premises are freehold of inheritance, situate at that most pleasant and much frequented sea bathing place Weston-Super-Mare, in the County of Somerset, about 21 miles from Bristol, to which there is a most excellent turnpike-road.
