The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Moore, of Shrewsbury, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 5, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Tuesday the 15th, or early in the morning of Wednesday the 16th of January last, five stacks of wheat and three stacks of oats, the property of William Clough, Esq. standing in the stack-yard of Newbald Lodge Farm, in the parish of North Newbald, in the east riding of the county of York, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Shepherd, Solicitor, Beverley.
