Crown-Office, March 12, 1822.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

William Robert Keith Douglas, Esq.

Whitehall, March 11, 1822.

His Majesty, taking into His royal consideration the highly distinguished services rendered by Sir Thomas Hislop, Bart. Knight Grand-Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General in the Army, Colonel of the 93d (Highland) Regiment of Foot, upon various important occasions during a period of forty-four years, more particularly the signal ability, energy, and promptitude manifested by him in command of the Army, denominated, during the late war in India, the Army of the Deccan, in the years 1817 and 1818, when all prospect of amicable arrangement with the Government of His Highness the Maha Rajah, Mulhar Row Holkar, having terminated, the said Lieutenant-General decided upon attacking the Army of that Prince, in its strong position on the left bank of the Soopra, nearly opposite to the town of Mahidpore, in the province of Malwa; and having on the 21st day of December 1817, under a most heavy and destructive fire, effected the passage of that river, the Army of Holkar was, in less than two hours, by the undaunted valour and steady discipline of the troops under the personal command of the said Lieutenant-General, completely defeated and dispersed, with a loss of not less than three thousand men, and the capture of numerous standards and colours, together with the whole of the enemy's artillery, amounting to seventy pieces of ordnance; by which brilliant and decisive success His Highness the Maha Rajah aforesaid was compelled to sue for peace; which was concluded on the 6th of January following, by a treaty highly honourable to the British Arms, and eminently advantageous to the interests of the East India Company: and His Majesty being desirous, in addition to other marks of His royal approbation, of commemorating these important services, by granting unto the said Lieutenant-General certain honourable armorial augmentations, hath been pleased to give and grant His royal licence and permission that the said Sir Thomas Hislop, and his descendants, may bear the honourable augmentations following, viz. "On a chief of the arms of his family, a mount, thereon a lion the act of leaving the standard of Holkar, and beneath the word MAHIDPORE;" together with the crest following, viz. "A soldier, of the 22d Regiment of Light Dragoons, mounted, and in the position of attack," with the motto, "DECKAN;" provided the said armorial ensigns be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty hath been further pleased to command, that this especial mark of His royal favour be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
