

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 7. to Monday December 11. 1682.

Milan, Nov. 25.

THE Count de Melgar, our Governor, having received advice, That the German Regiment, commanded by Colonel Urbino, which is sent from Naples to serve here, was Landed in the Territory of the Republick of Genoua, has sent Don Bernardo del Barrio, Lieutenant-General of the Forces of this Country, to conduct the said Regiment in their March hither. Monsieur de Louigny, Maistre de Camp General of this State, is returned from visiting the Frontier places, and has given the Count de Melgar an account of the state he found them in. From Turin they tell us, That the Duke of Savoy continues as yet at Moncalijer.

Venice, Nov. 28. On Tuesday last arrived here from Vienna the Count de Martenitz, and Yesterday he parted again from hence for Rome, being sent by the Emperor to the Pope, to acquaint him with the present state of things in Hungary, and to desire his assistance against the Turks and the Rebels. This State has made choice of Prince Alexander of Parma, late Governor of the Spanish-Netherlands, to be General of their Forces, and have assigned him an Annual Pension of 10000 Crowns, and he is very suddenly expected here, to take possession of the said Command. The Duke of Manua is now here, and intends to pass the Carnaval in this City. We have advice, by the way of Bossina, of the departure of the Grand-Signior from Constantinople, and that the Grand-Vizier was gone for Belgrade to give the necessary Orders against the next Campaign. From Rome of the 21 Instant they write, That the Pope had for several days been very much indisposed; and that he had not yet named his Nuncio for France.

Genoua, Dec. 2. The Crown and Tyger will Sail in few days for Legborne. Two days since arrived here from Tabarea, and Cape Negro, the Unity Captain Pariser, with Corn; while this Ship was at Tabarea, there happened a very great Storm, in which five great Barks, and some other Vessels were lost. This Morning came in here the Genoua Merchant with Sugars and Tobacco from Lisbon, and the Fane with Pilchards from Plimouth, and the Golchester Merchant with Rye. Here are likewise arrived several Genoueses, and Dutch Ships from the West.

Stockholme, Nov. 25. The States of this Kingdom assembled here have agreed on the following Resolutions:

I. That the King shall for the future have it in his Power to dispose of all the Offices of the Kingdom, without the Consent or Confirmation of the States.

II. That it shall be left to the King to make what farther reduction of alienated Crown-Lands by Majesty in his Justice he thinks fit, and to turn them to publick or private uses, as he sees cause.

III. That all Proclamations, Orders and Ordonances his Majesty thinks fit to publish, shall pass for Acts of the States, and be of the same Force and Authority.

Vienna, Nov. 29. As well the Imperial as Hungarian Troops are now going into their Winter-Quarters and while they are there, endeavours will be used to accommodate matters with the Rebels, and to prolong the Peace with the Turks: These, as we are informed, demand, First, a considerable Sum of Money to be paid immediately, for the Expence they have been at in their present preparations; Secondly a certain Sum to be paid Yearly; and Thirdly, Comorra and Raab: and on this side it's said an Offer has been made of three Millions, to induce them to prolong the Peace for 20 Years; and that besides, such Proposals have been tendered to Count Teckelej, as it's believ'd will satisfy him, in case the Port consent thereunto. It is still said, That the Emperor intends to go to Prague or Ratisbonne in the Spring, to consult with the Electors and Princes of the Empire upon the present state of Affairs.

Francfort, Dec. 9. The Imperial Ambassadors, continue still here, expecting the return of the Courier which they sent to Vienna upon the departure of the French Ambassadors. The seventh Instant the Deputies of the Empire were assembled, and the Deputies of Muniz, as Directors of the Assembly, presented to them a project of a Letter which they thought ought to be writ to the Dyet at Ratisbonne, to acquaint them with the departure of the French Ambassadors, but the Deputies would not agree to it, saying, it ought to have been resolved by Plurality of Voices in the Assembly, before such a Draught of a Letter had been made. This day the Deputies are again assembled. From Ratisbonne they write, That the Duke of Holslein's Deputy, had complained to the Dyet of the heavy Impositions that are laid upon his Subjects by the King of Denmark, who in default of Payment threatens them with Military Execution; and prayed they would apply a Remedy therein, but that the Dyet had not as yet taken any Resolution in the matter. The Letters add, That Monsieur Verjus, Envoy Extraordinary from the most Christian King, had received new Letters of Credence to the Dyet, by which he is empowered to treat with the Commissioners or Deputies of the Emperor and the Empire upon the Proposals which the most Christian King made many Months since by his Ambassadors at Francfort, in order to the establishing a firm Peace between him and the Empire.

Hague, Dec. 15. The Deputies of this State for Foreign Affairs have had a Conference with the Elector of Brandenburg's Minister, concerning the Affair of East-Friseland, in which the latter did assure them, That his Electoral Highness had no other design in what he had done than to protect the the States and Inhabitants of that Country, and that he would withdraw his Troops whenever they were no longer necessary for that purpose. The States-General have indeed resolved to send a Deputation to East-Frizeland, to endeavour a compoſure of the differences between the Princes and the States of that Country, and have named the Persons, but their departure is not at all haſtened, and indeed this matter ſeems not to be purſued with that warmth as was expected. On Friday laſt Prince Cafmir, Stadtholder of Frieland and Groningen, was to viſit the French Ambaſſador, with whom he keeps a very good Correſpondence. The Emperor's Ambaſſadors and the Deputies of the Empire continue ſtill at Francfort.

Plimouth, Dec. 5. The Meet of Dutch Merchant Ships which lately put in here, bound to the Southward, ſailed from hence on Sunday laſt.

Whitehal, Dec. 8. The following Addreſs from the Town of Great Yarmouth was preſented to His Maſteſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Yarmouth, their High Stewards, and Sir Thomas Meadows, one of their Bailiffs Elect, and was very graciously received by His Maſteſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand-Inqueſt at the Seſſions held for the Town and Burrough of Great-Yarmouth, the 19th day of September, 1682.

May it pleaſe Your Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

WHAT Your Maſteſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Grand-Inqueſt, out of a deep ſenſe of our Duty and Loyalty, do beg leave to acknowledge the continuation of thoſe many and great Bleſſings we enjoy, to be under Providence; from Your Maſteſties moſt wiſe and Gracious Reign over us; and to declare our Detestation and Abhorrence of all Treſonable Conſpiracies, and Traiterous Combinations, whether againſt Your moſt Sacred Maſteſty, or the Deſcent of the Crown in the Right Line, knowing ſuch Deſigns do tend to the overthrow of the eſtabliſhed Proteſtant Religion, and of Your Government, which is the Security of our juſt Rights and Liberties; alſo the late Aſſociation, provided to be found in the Earl of Shaftsbury's Chieft; which if it had taken effect, would have deſtroyed the whole Frame of Your Government, and reduced us to the like dreadful Conſuſions as of late: From all which, that we may be delivered, That Your Maſteſties Life and Reign over us may be long and prosperous, the Crown peaceably deſcend to Your Lawful Heirs and Succeſſors, and our Religion, and the Government eſtabliſhed, long flouriſh, is the hearty Prayer of us whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

Signed by the ſaid Grand-Inqueſt, We Your Maſteſties moſt Dutiful, Loyal and Obedient Subjects, do in moſt humble manner concur with the Grand-Inqueſt in the aboveſaid humble Addreſs.

2 Signed by the Magiſtrates, and the moſt conſiderable Inhabitants of the Town.

Whitehal, Dec. 8. This Evening was privately ſolemnized the Funeral of his Highneſs Prince Rupert. The Body was carried under a Velvet Canopy, from the Painted Chamber at weſtmiſter, to the Abby, accompanied by ſeveral Knights of the Garter, and divers of the Principal Nobility, and other Perſons of Quality. the Earl of Craven being Chief Mourner, and one of the Kings at Arms carrying the Coronet and Cushion, and the reſt of the Officers at Arms attending and directing the Ceremony. Was met at the Church Door by the Dean and Prebends of weſtmiſter, attended with the Quire, and was Interred among others of the Royal Family in a Vault on the South ſide of King Henry the Seventh's Chappell.

Whitehal, Dec. 8. Mr. John Duſſe, having been taken on Sunday laſt, coming out of the Houſe of a Foreign Ambaſſador at the time of Maſs, by one of his Maſteſties Meſſengers, and carried before a Magiſtrate, the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy were tendered him, which reſuſing, he was committed to the Cuſtody of the Meſſenger, in order to his being brought before His Maſteſty in Council; and the ſaid Duſſe, having on the fifth Inſtant made his eſcape, he was, through the diligent Search that was made after him by Order of Council, re-taken yeſterday at Rocheſter, and brought this Morning before the Council, where he again reſuſing to take the Oaths he was, by Order of the Board, ſent to the Lord Chief Juſtice of the Kings-Bench, to be proceeded againſt according to Law.

will be Advertisements.

WHereas there was Published in the Gazette of the 10th of November, an Adverſement concerning Mr. Alderman Backwell, We are ordered to give Notice to the World, That the ſaid Adverſement is not only a ſcandalous Reflection upon Alderman Backwell, who is now in His Maſteſties Service, but hath likewiſe given great offence, there being no ſort of Licence or Authority for the Publishing of the ſame, and particular care being alſo taken to make a full diſcovery of the abuſe.

It is ordered to give Notice to all Commanders, Maſters, and Pilots, or any others concerned, That there is now laid on the North ſide of the Wool-pack-Sand a large red Buoy, not for a Chappel-Buoy, for Ships to paſs that way, but for their direction to find deep Water, in caſe of neceſſity, for Anchoring in Horſe-whole.

See the Hiſtory of the Lives, Acts, Death, and Writings of the moſt Eminent Fathers of the Church that flouriſhed in the Fourth Century; (being the ſecond Volume) where in, among other things, an account is given of the Riſe, Growth, and Progreſs of Arianism, and all other ſects of that Age deſcending from it together with an Introduction, containing an Hiſtorical account of the State of Paſagillin under the firſt Chriſtian Emperors.

A Diſſertation concerning the Government of the Ancient Church by Biſhops, Metropolitans, and Patriarchs; More particularly concerning the ancient Power and Jurisdiction of the Biſhops of Rome, and the Encroachments of that upon other ſees, eſpecially the ſee of Conſtantinople. Both Writen by William Cave, D. D. one of His Maſteſties Chaplains in Ordinary; And ſold by R. Chiffwel, at the Roſe and Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard.

The Anatomy of an Horſe, containing an exact and full deſcription of the frame, ſituation, and connexion of all his Parts, (with their Actions and Uſes) expreſt in 49 Copper-Plates; with an Appendix containing two Diſcourſes, the one of the Generation of Animals, and the other of the Motion of the Chyle, and circulation of the Blood. By A. Snape Jun. r, Farrier to His Maſteſty. Printed for the Author, and ſold by T. Flether, at the Angel and Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard, W. Nott in Pall-Mall, G. Kunholt, at Charing-Croſs, and C. Harper in Fleet-ſtreet.

A very well made Brewing Copper, containing about 40 Gallons, Beer Meaſure, not uſed above nine Months, may be had a very great Pennyworth, on Little Tower-Hill, hard by the Victualling-Office.