And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, March 15, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early in the morning of Monday the 4th instant, three stacks of hay, the property of John Craig, Esq. in his field situate at Severn-Hill, in the township of Brace Meoll, in the liberties of the town of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said John Craig, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, March 16, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 9th instant, the house of Mrs. Donatty, No. 16, Robert-Street, Bedford-Row, within the united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, was entered by some person or persons unknown, who inhumanly murdered the said Mrs. Donatty;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the actual perpetrator), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. John S. Taylor, No. 14, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row, Vestry Clerk of the said united parishes.

Whitehall, March 16, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Wednesday the 27th of February last, a range of building, connected with the saw-mill belonging to Mr. David Bellhouse, situate in Hunt-Street, Garratt, Manchester, was discovered to be on fire, and that there is strong reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown; and also that an anonymous letter was, on the 1st instant, received by the said David Bellhouse, threatening his life, and the destruction, by fire, of his house, saw-mill, and cotton-factory;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said building, and except the person who actually wrote the said letter), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices in either of the above mentioned felonies, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of either of the said offences, viz. ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS for the first-mentioned offence, and the like sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS for the last-mentioned offence, to be paid by the said David Bellhouse,

Whitehall, March 19, 1822.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or
