His Majesty, taking into His royal consideration the highly distinguished services rendered on divers important occasions during a period of forty-seven years by Sir Robert Brownrigg, Bart. General of His Majesty's Forces, Colonel of the 9th (or the East Norfolk) Regiment of Foot, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and late Governor and Commander in Chief of the British Settlements in the Island of Ceylon, and more particularly the signal ability, energy, and valour, displayed by him during the year 1815, in conducting the operations of His Majesty's Forces under his command in the aforesaid Island, which terminated in the subjugation of the Kingdom of Kandy, and the annexation of that important country to the British possessions in Ceylon, thereby in an especial manner augmenting the security and internal prosperity of that valuable Colony; and being desirous, in addition to other marks of His royal approbation, of commemorating the important services of the said General, by granting unto him certain honourable armorial augmentations, His Majesty has been pleased to give and grant His royal licence and permission, that he the said Sir Robert Brownrigg, and his descendants, may bear to the armorial ensigns of Brownrigg the honourable augmentations following, viz. "A chief, embattled thereon a representation of the sceptre and banner of the King of Kandy in saltire, ensigned with the crown of that Kingdom," and as a crest of honourable augmentation, "A demi Kandian, holding in the dexter hand a sword, and in the sinister the crown of Kandy;" and His Majesty has been further graciously pleased to grant unto the said Sir Robert Brownrigg, in lieu of the sinister supporter hitherto borne by him as a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, "A lion guardant supporting the banner of Kandy as in the arms;" provided the said armorial ensigns be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Heralds' Office; otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty hath been further pleased to command that this especial mark of His royal favour be registered in His College of Arms.
