Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Commissions in the Corps of Swansea and Fairwood Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Vice-Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan.

Thomas Penrice, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 11th March 1822.

Robert Hancorne, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated as above.

Whitehall, March 25, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Alfred Whitaker, of Warminster, in the county of Wilts, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE respecting the PAYMENT of the FIVE PER CENTS.

ALL Holders of Navy Five per Cents. who may have given notice on or before the 16th instant, of their dissent from the terms offered by Parliament for the conversion of the said Stock into Four per Cents. and who may be desirous of receiving the Principal of the said Stock, together with one Quarter's Dividend on the 5th of April next, may receive such payment accordingly, on giving notice, in writing, at the Bank of England, on or before the 30th instant, within the usual hours of business, and transferring such Stock into the names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, on or before the 5th of April next. And all other persons who may have given notice of dissent as aforesaid, or may give such notice according to the Act of Parliament at any time before the 5th of July next, will, in pursuance of the said Act, receive the Principal of their Stock, together with half a year's Dividend, on the 5th of July next.

Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall,
26th March 1822.

Whitehall, March 15, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early in the morning of Monday the 4th instant, three stacks of hay, the property of John Craig, Esq. in his field situate at Severn-Hill, in the township of Brace Meoll, in the liberties of the town of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said John Craig, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, March 16, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 9th instant, the house of Mrs. Donatty, No. 16, Robert-Street, Bedford-Row, within the united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, was entered by some person or persons unknown, who inhumanly murdered the said Mrs. Donatty;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the actual perpetrator), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. John S. Taylor, No. 14, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row, Vestry Clerk of the said united parishes.

Whitehall, March 16, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Wednesday the 27th of February last, a range of building, connected with the saw-mill belonging to Mr. David Bellhouse, situate in Hunt-Street, Garratt, Manchester, was discovered to be on fire, and that there is strong reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown; and also that an anonymous letter was, on the 1st instant, received by the said David Bellhouse, threatening his life, and the destruction, by fire, of his house, saw-mill, and cotton-factory;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said building, and except the person who actually wrote the said letter), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices in either of the above mentioned felonies, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of either of the said offences, viz. ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS for the first-mentioned offence, and the like sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS for the last-mentioned offence, to be paid by the said David Bellhouse.
