SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 28th of March 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable John Fane, commonly called Lord Burghersh; the Right Honourable Augustus John Foster; and the Right Honourable Frederick James Lamb, were, by command of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Hans Francis Earl of Huntingdon to be Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the island of Dominica, His Lordship this day took the usual oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of His Majesty's Plantations.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Honourable John Wodehouse to be Lieutenant of the county of Norfolk, and city of Norwich, and county of the same, he this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majesty in Council was this day pleased to make the following amendment upon the Roll of Sheriffs for the present year:

Cardigan ,	Thomas Lewes Lloyd, Esq.
	made
	Thomas Lewis Lloyd, Esq.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th of February 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

Admiralty-Office, March 28, 1822.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that the Commissioners under the Exeter Improvement and Paving Act have, in pursuance of the Act of the 46 Geo. 3. cap. 158, given me notice, by letter from Mr. Bowring, dated the 20th instant, of their intention to erect a sea wall and wharf across a very small inlet, at a short distance from the high water mark near the Breakwater in Plymouth Sound.

J. W. Croker

Navy Pay-Office, London, March 30, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His late Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. John Jacob, of No. 25, Queen-Street, Seven

Dials, county of Middlesex, on the 11th of April 1820, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of not having accounted to John Fraser, late of His Majesty's ship America, for prize-money received on his behalf, though repeatedly called upon by the Officer for Prizes so to do.

Frederick John Robinson.

Navy-Office, March 16, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that the contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, and Plymouth, or any one or more of them, with which has been advertised for Wednesday the 20th instant, is put off until Wednesday the 17th of April next, on which last-mentioned day, at one o'clock, tenders will be received accordingly. G. Smith.

Teams of Horses,

CONTRACT FOR BLACK SILK HANDKERCHIEFS.

Navy-Office, March 20, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 4th of April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Deptford with Black Silk Handkerchiefs, for the use of the Seamen of the Royal Navy.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR SUPPLYING YORKSHIRE STONE, AND PERFORMING MASON'S WORKS TO A SMITHERY AT SHEERNESS.

Navy-Office, March 21, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 11th of April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Yorkshire Stone, and performing Mason's Works to a Smithery at His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, March 26, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th of April next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-Place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned, and which are lying at the Yards against the same expressed, viz.
