BEACON FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

No. 8, Chatham-Place, Blackfriars.

President.

The Right Honorable The Earl of Lonsdale.

Trustees.

The Right Honorable	George Hammersly, Esq.
The Earl of Egmont.	Sir Henry Parnell, Bart.
Lord Churchill.	M. P.
Lord Robert Spencer.	Robert Ward, Esq. M. P.

Directors.

Robert Ward, Esq. M. P., Chairman.
John Wray, Esq., Deputy Chairman.

Benjamin Ansley, Esq.	Sir Henry Parnell, Bart.
Henry James Bouve- rie, Esq.	M. P.
Henry Hallam, Esq.	William Sotheby, Esq.
Geo. Hammersly, Esq.	The Honorable William Robert Spencer,
David Laing, Esq.	George Trevor Spencer, Esq.
Lawrence Bourke Mor- ris, Esq.

John Clark, Esq. Managing Director.

The above Company has been formed for the purpose of providing against every pecuniary loss which can result from the calamity of fire; this has long been a desideratum, for although much has been done to provide for the convenience as well as the interest of the public, with respect to Life Insurance, Fire Insurance admitting almost of an equal variety of forms, to embrace the various descriptions of insurable property has been left nearly in a state of infancy. By the plan of the Beacon, every individual will be enabled, on terms the most advantageous, effectually to guard, not only against permanent, but against temporary pecuniary difficulties, arising from the destruction of property by fire, in addition to which the immediate advantages derived by the insured from the liberal abatement in the rates will be found considerably to outweigh any contemplated return of premium hitherto offered to the public. The reduction of the premium refers only to common and common hazardous insurances, each of which are divided into two classes—private houses and shops; it being left to the discretion of the Directors, either to reject or accept doubly-hazardous insurances, at such rates as they may think each particular risk requires. Hitherto a larger premium than requisite has been charged on common insurances, to make up the loss sustained on doubly hazardous insurances, which defect is remedied by the plan of the Beacon. The above benefits are to be secured by a capital of two hundred thousand pounds raised by the sale of two thousand shares of one hundred pounds each; and further, to enable the Company at all times to meet with liberality the claims which may be made upon it, no policy will be effected to a greater extent in one risk than five thousand pounds, by which the loss will be so circumscribed, that the security of the Company can never be placed in jeopardy, or the interests of those connected with it impaired, by demands disproportioned to the general average amount of premiums received. The plan of the Beacon is particularly recommended to the consideration of tradesmen, and persons deriving income from the rent of houses, as by the adoption of the measures therein proposed, every possible loss may be effectually guarded against. An interest of five pounds per cent. per annum will be allowed on the deposits for shares, and in addition thereto, a like interest of five pounds per cent. will be allowed on the profits to arise from the annual insurance premiums, the gross amount of which will be ascertained on balancing the accounts at the end of every year, and added to the stock of Proprietors.

Persons desirous of purchasing shares are requested to apply to Mr. John Clark, 10, Chatham-Place, Blackfriars, where prospectuses and plans may be had.
