SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1822.

Whitehall, May 10, 1822.

THE King has been pleased, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to grant unto Sir George Nayler, Knight, Clarenceux King of Arms, and Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, the office of Garter Principal King of Arms, with the name of Garter, and the style, liberties, and preeminences, belonging to the said office, void by the decease of Sir Isaac Heard, Knight, late Garter.

Carlton-House, May 10, 1822.

The King was this day graciously pleased to invest Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, with the gold chain and badge appertaining to the said office of Garter.

Whitehall, April 10, 1822.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Henry Geast, of Bordesley-Park, in the county of Worcester, Esq. grandson of Richard Geast, late of Handsworth, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, by Jane his wife, sister and heir of John Dugdale, of Blyth-Hall, in the county of Warwick, Esq. and grand-daughter of Sir John Dugdale, Knt. Norroy King of Arms, who was the son of Sir William Dugdale, of Blyth-Hall aforesaid, Knt. deceased, sometime Garter Principal King of Arms, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, from affectionate regard to the memory of his aforesaid maternal great uncle John Dugdale, and from respect to the memory of the said Sir William Dugdale, take and use the surname of Dugdale, in addition to and after that of Geast, and bear the arms of Dugdale, quarterly with those of Geast; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms,
